[1907 c. 210 s. 1] (8168)

503.02 CONVEYANCES, EXECUTION. Any such judge or authorities, holding the title to any such lands in trust, as declared by said act of congress, shall, by a good and sufficient deed, grant and convey the title to said land, and each part thereof, to the person entitled thereto, according to his rights or interest therein, existing in law or equity, at the time of entry of such lands; and when any part of such lands is occupied or possessed by any one claiming by grant, lease or sale from any other person, the respective rights and interests of such persons shall not be changed or impaired by such conveyance. Every such conveyance shall be executed and acknowledged as to admit to record in the office of the register of deeds, and if made previous to the issuing of the patent of such lands, it shall contain a covenant that the grantor, shall, after issuing of the patent therefor, execute and deliver to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, such other deed as may be or become necessary to fully vest and perfect the title to such lands in such grantee, his heirs or assigns.

[1907 c. 210 s. 2] (8169)

503.03 ENTRY OF LANDS. Within 30 days after the entry of such lands, or if heretofore entered, after the passage of this chapter, such judge or authorities so entering the same, shall give posted notice of such entry in such town and publish notice thereof for three consecutive weeks in the county where such land is situated. Such notice shall contain an accurate description of the lands so entered as stated in the certificate of entry or duplicate receipt for the purchase money thereof.

[1907 c. 210 s. 3] (8170)

503.04 CLAIMANTS TO FILE STATEMENT. Every person claiming to be entitled to such land or any part thereof, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, shall within 60 days after the first publication of such notice, sign a written statement containing an accurate description of the parcel or parts in which he claims to have an interest and the specific right, interest or estate which he claims to be entitled to receive, and shall deliver the same to such judge or authorities; and any person failing to sign and deliver such statement within the time herein specified, shall as against adverse claimants, be forever barred from the right of claiming or recovering such lands, or any estate or interest therein in any court.

[1907 c. 210 s. 4] (8171)

503.05 ADVERSE CLAIMS, HOW ADJUSTED; ACTION. In case there are adverse claimants to such lands or any part thereof, and the controversy is not settled by written agreement, it may be determined by submission in writing by the parties to reference or arbitration and by the written award of the arbitrators. If it is not so settled or determined within three months from the time of entry of such land, either claimant may commence a new action against the other in the district court of the county wherein such lands are situated.

[1907 c. 210 s. 5] (8172)

503.06 EVIDENCE ON TRIAL OF ACTION. Upon the trial of such action, either party may give in evidence the statement deposited by the other, or the person under whom he claims, as provided for in section 503.04 and the person who made the first claim to any settlement, either in person or by agent, servant or tenant, or those claiming under him, upon such land, shall in such action be deemed to have the right to such land.

[1907 c. 210 s. 6] (8173)

503.07 SUMMONS TO ADVERSE CLAIMANTS; HEARING; EVIDENCE; APPEALS. In case such controversy is not settled or determined by agreement or arbitration within the time hereinbefore specified, and is not prosecuted within one month after such time expires, if the title to such land is held by any such judge, he shall summon the claimants to appear before him at a specified time and place within the county wherein such lands are situated, and make allegations and proof of their respective claims. At such time and place if the parties appear, such judge shall proceed to hear their allegations and proof and shall thereupon determine, in writing, such controversy. Upon such hearing the deposited statements, required by section 503.04, shall stand for the pleadings and either party may use in evidence the statement of the other or of the person under whom he claims. Witnesses testifying at such hearing shall be sworn and the evidence reduced to writing. Such judge or any justice of the peace, may issue subpoenas to witnesses to attend such hearing, and any person so served who fails to appear in response to such subpoena shall be deemed guilty of contempt and may be attached to answer such contempt and to testify in the case. There shall be no postponement of such hearing except for cause. The summons and subpoenas issued in such cases shall be treated and served in the same manner as processes in civil actions, and the fees of officers and witnesses shall be the same as provided in such cases. Either party may appeal to the supreme court from the decision of the judge in such proceeding in the same manner as appeals in civil actions are taken from a judgment of the district court. Upon such appeal, the judge shall make a return to the supreme court consisting of the statements constituting the pleadings, the evidence, and the decision of such judge. If any person summoned to appear before such judge in such a proceeding fails to appear, he shall be deemed to have waived and relinquished all his right, title, interest, and estate in the land in controversy, and every part thereof, and shall be forever barred from asserting or claiming any right, title, interest, or estate therein.

[1907 c. 210 s. 7] (8174)

503.08 CORPORATE AUTHORITIES OF TOWNS, PLEADINGS. If such controversy is not settled or determined as provided in section 503.07, and the title of such land is held by the corporate authorities of any town, such authorities may commence an action in the district court of the county wherein such land is situated against the adverse claimants to determine the same. The complaint shall be in the nature of a bill of interpleader and shall set forth an accurate description of the lands in controversy and the character and extent of claimants' rights, interests, or estates as shown by their respective statements deposited as provided by section 503.04, and pray that the claimants be required to appear in such court and prosecute their claims or be forever barred thereof. The summons shall be issued and served in like manner as required by section 503.07 and any party summoned who fails to appear and answer such complaint as required by the summons shall be forever barred of all right to assert any claim or title to such lands adverse to the other claimants in such action. Any claimant who appears shall make answer to such complaint and either disclaim any right, title, interest, or estate in the lands therein described or set forth the character and extent of his right, title, interest, or estate therein.

[1907 c. 210 s. 8] (8175)

503.09 STATEMENT OF EXPENSE; CHARGE ON LANDS. As soon as may be after the expiration of 60 days from the time of the first published notice, required by section 503.03, the judge or authorities holding the title to lands described in such notice shall make a written statement, containing a true account of moneys expended in the acquisition of the title and the administration of the trust, including moneys paid for the purchase of such lands, all necessary traveling expenses, posting and publishing notices, serving summons, subpoenas, and other processes and all other necessary expenses incident to such trust, and also an account of charges for services rendered as such trustee. The whole amount of such statement of account shall be a charge in favor of the trustee upon the lands as held in trust and shall be paid pro rata by the claimants to such land, as their respective entitled shares thereof appear.

[1907 c. 210 s. 9] (8176)

503.10 PERSON ENTITLED TO DEED TO PAY CHARGES. Before any such judge or authorities shall be required to execute, acknowledge or deliver any deed of conveyance of such land or any part thereof, as hereinbefore provided, to any person entitled to such deed, such person shall pay or tender to such judge or authorities the amount shown by the statement provided in section 503.09, chargeable upon the same or that part thereof to be conveyed, together with interest on each of the items of such account at six percent per annum from the date of each item, and also such further amounts as are reasonable for preparing, executing and acknowledging such deed and acknowledgment fees therefor.

[1907 c. 210 s. 10] (8177)

503.11 CONVEYANCES, WHEN TO BE EXECUTED; WHEN NOT. After the expiration of 60 days from the time of the first published notice provided in section 503.03, such judge or corporate authorities shall, upon demand of the person entitled thereto, and upon payment or tender by such person to such judge or authorities of the amount provided in section 503.10, execute, acknowledge and deliver to such person a deed of conveyance, as provided in section 503.02 and in accordance with the statement required to be made and deposited by section 503.04; provided, that no such deed for any of such land, or any part thereof, shall be executed or delivered when there are adverse claimants thereto until such controversy is settled or determined as hereinbefore provided. In all cases where there is no such controversy, upon the application of any person claiming such land, the judge of the district court of the district where the land is situated shall, by such notice as he shall prescribe, summon before him such claimant and cause proof to be made by oral testimony, affidavit, deposition, or otherwise, as shall satisfy him who is the person entitled to such land, and when it shall thus be determined, the judge or authorities upon like demand and payment, or tender of payment, shall execute and deliver to the person so determined to be entitled thereto a deed of conveyance, as provided in section 503.02.

[1907 c. 210 s. 11] (8178)

503.12 JUDGE SHALL BE SEIZED OF TITLE TO LANDS, WHEN. In case any judge of the district court who enters any such land under said act of congress and thereby becomes the sole trustee thereof, is possessed of or entitled to the same or any part thereof in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and his right or claim is not disputed or claimed adversely by any other person, he shall be seized of the title thereto and the estate therein in fee simple to his own use absolutely, free and discharged of such trust; and no conveyance, other than the patent of such land, shall be necessary to perfect his title thereto. If any such land is claimed by any person adversely to such judge, the conflicting claims between them shall be determined by settlement, arbitration, or by action as hereinbefore provided for determining adverse claims; and in case such an action is necessary, the issues therein shall be tried before and determined by some other judge of the district court who is disinterested.

[1907 c. 210 s. 12] (8179)

503.13 TITLE TO LANDS, FROM WHAT TIME HELD. For the purpose of determining the rights of adverse claimants to any such entered land, the judge or corporate authorities shall be deemed to possess and hold the title thereto in trust, from the time of entry thereof.

[1907 c. 210 s. 13] (8180)

503.14 COSTS REGULATED. The costs in actions and proceedings provided in this chapter shall be regulated and recoverable as in civil actions in this state.

[1907 c. 210 s. 14] (8181)

503.15 RECONVEYANCE PURSUANT TO CONTRACTS.
