636.23 PROBATION OFFICER AND DEPUTIES IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY; SALARIES. In any county of this state now or hereafter having a population of over 150,000, and an area of more than 5,000 square miles, the judges of the district court of the judicial district in which such county is located shall fix the amount of salaries to be paid probation officers of such court and their deputies.

[1927 c. 126 s. 1] (10915-15)

636.24 INDUSTRIAL HOME SCHOOL FOR GIRLS IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY. The board of county commissioners of any county in this state which now has or may hereafter have a population of over 150,000, and less than 220,000, and an area of over 5,000 square miles, shall have the power to establish and maintain thereon an industrial home school for the confinement and care therein of any and all girls and women convicted of any violation of the laws of this state or of any city or village ordinance, who could be sentenced as punishment therefor to any prison, jail, or lockup.

The board of industrial home directors, at any time before July first of each year, is authorized to determine the amount necessary to carry on such institution during the ensuing year and to file a duly certified copy of its resolution, fixing such amount, with the board of county commissioners of the county, and the board of county commissioners shall include such amount, or the amount to which the same shall be reduced by the county board, in the annual tax levy made by the county board, an amount that would be raised by a tax levy of not to exceed one-twentieth of a mill upon each dollar of such taxable property within such county, which sums so raised may be used by the board of industrial home directors for the maintenance of such industrial home school. The board of industrial home directors shall have the power, in the name of St. Louis county, to lease, or to acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation land and suitable buildings for and maintain thereon an industrial home school for the confinement and training or education therein in all branches of domestic science, the girls or women who become inmates thereof under the provisions of sections 636.24 to 636.31.

All expenses incurred in establishing and maintaining the home school shall be paid on duly itemized and verified bills filed with and audited and allowed by the board of county commissioners of such county when properly approved by the matron of the home school, except the salary of the matron and assistant matrons, who shall be paid in the same manner that other officers and employees of the county are paid.

[1919 c. 153 s. 1; 1921 c. 70 s. 2] (10917-1)

636.25 BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The board of county commissioners of any such county, when it shall determine to establish and maintain such home school, or shall have heretofore established such home school under the provisions of sections 636.24 to 636.31, shall appoint a board consisting of five members, electors of such county, which board shall include the members of any existing board under those sections. The members of any board appointed under the terms of those sections shall be chosen with reference to their special fitness for such office. All appointments to this board shall be ratified by the order of a majority of the judges of the district court of the judicial district in which the home school is located, before the same shall be in force and effect as an appointment. The board shall be known as the board of industrial home directors.

The members of the board shall serve without compensation or financial benefit, but they shall be entitled to reimbursements for all actual and reasonable expenses in connection with their official duties, an itemized and verified statement of which expenses shall be filed with and audited and allowed by such county board.

The terms of the members of the first board of industrial home directors hereunder shall expire as follows: One on the first Monday of January of the first year hereafter; two on the first Monday in January of the second year hereafter; and two on the first Monday in January of the third year after their appointment hereafter. Upon expiration of such terms their successors shall be appointed in like manner for three years each.

All vacancies on the board shall be filled by like appointment for the unexpired terms.

Annually, on the first Monday in January, the board shall elect from its number a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary, to serve for one year and until their successors qualify. The members of the board shall qualify by subscribing to and taking the usual oath of office.

[1919 c. 153 s. 2; 1921 c. 70 s. 3] (10917-2)

636.26 CONTROL OF SCHOOL BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS; MATRON. The home school for girls shall not be correlated with any other county institution, nor be located on land which is part of the county work farm or county poor farm of any such county. The board of industrial home directors shall have full charge and control of the industrial home school, the selection of a building site, and the acquiring thereof by purchase, gift, or condemnation; and the erection of all buildings and the making of all improvements thereon; and shall have charge of furnishing the same with proper furniture and equipment. The board of industrial home directors shall appoint and employ a matron and as many assistant matrons as may be required, and other necessary help, and prescribe their duties and fix their compensation subject to approval thereof by the county board as to the number and compensation of such persons, and shall require to be taught in the school domestic science in all its branches, and direct the establishment and maintenance of a careful curriculum for regular classes and study in relation thereto, and direct the matron to cause all girls and women confined therein to be employed at domestic labor and study as far as practicable.

[1919 c. 153 s. 3; 1921 c. 70 s. 4] (10917-3)

636.27 RULES AND REGULATIONS; INMATES MAY WORK OUT; MATRON OR ASSISTANTS; PROBATION OFFICERS. The board of industrial home directors shall adopt such rules and regulations and enforce such discipline for the management and operation of the industrial home school as may be deemed necessary, and have power to adopt rules and regulations under which the inmates may be allowed to work out by the day, when such inmates shall be sufficiently educated in domestic science to be qualified for such work.

The written order of the matron or assistant matron shall be sufficient authority and warrant for any officer or constable or parole officer of this state to execute such order, and arrest and return to the custody of the industrial home any inmate that may have escaped or broken her parole, and it is hereby made the duty of any such sheriff, constable, or police officer to execute any such order in the same manner as any other criminal process of this state is executed.

The matron and assistant matrons of the industrial home school shall be vested with the duties of probation officers of the district court and such court shall have authority to appoint or designate one or more other persons of good character to serve as probation officers during the pleasure of the court without compensation.

[1919 c. 153 s. 4] (10917-4)

636.28 ADMISSION TO HOME SCHOOL. Any girl or woman who may be a resident of any county to which sections 636.24 to 636.31 apply and who evinces a desire to be free from undesirable associations and to lead a better life shall, upon her personal request or the request of her parent or guardian and upon the recommendation of the matron, be admitted, upon the order of the juvenile court of such county, to such industrial home school and be subject to the rules and regulations thereof and be entitled to its protection and privileges for a period of not exceeding ten days; provided, such applicant may remain in the school for such further time as may be determined by the matron, subject to the control of the board of directors, and when circumstances render it possible shall pay such reasonable charges as may be required by the board of industrial home directors.

[1919 c. 153 s. 5] (10917-5)

636.29 COMMITMENTS TO HOME SCHOOL BY JUVENILE COURT. The juvenile court of any such county may commit to the industrial home school, for a period of not more than one year, any girl duly adjudged by such court to be dependent, neglected, or delinquent, and any such girl may be released therefrom at any time upon order of such court, and if it appear to the satisfaction of the court that any girl so committed is of a vicious or incorrigible character and not proper to be an inmate therein, then such court may commit such person to any state or other institution authorized by law to receive her.

[1919 c. 153 s. 6] (10917-6)

636.30 COMMITMENT BY COURT. The district court and any municipal court or justice of the peace in such county may commit or parole into such industrial home school any girl or woman duly convicted by such court of any violation of the laws of this state or of any city or village ordinance and who could by such court be sentenced as punishment therefor to be confined in any prison, jail, or village lockup.

Any girl or woman who at any time shall have been committed to the county jail of such county may, during the time of her confinement therein, by order of the court making such commitment, be transferred from such jail and committed to such industrial home school for such time as to such court shall seem proper, not exceeding the unexpired term of her sentence.

If any girl or woman committed or paroled into such industrial home school is found to be vicious or incorrigible, and not amenable to the regulations of the industrial home school, she may be recommitted to the county jail of such county by the court from which the girl or woman was committed.

[1919 c. 153 s. 7] (10917-7)

636.31 PLACE OF DETENTION. The industrial home school shall be a place of detention; and the district, juvenile, and municipal courts and any justice of the peace of the county may commit to, parole to, or place in the school for temporary detention, any female coming within the respective jurisdictions of such courts, and any female who is committed to or placed therein may be released therefrom by order of such courts, respectively.
