242.10 POWERS; PROBATION, COMMITMENT, PAROLE. (1) Every order granting or revoking probation, committing to an institution, granting or revoking parole, or issuing final discharge to any person under the control of the commission shall be made by the commission. The commission may not delegate the making of such decisions to any other body or person. When the commission acts under this section, two members shall constitute a quorum.

242.11 CERTIFICATE OF PREPARATION; FILING. No person may be committed to the commission until it has certified in writing to the secretary of state that it is prepared to discharge its duties and functions and has filed certified copies thereof in the office of the clerk of the district court and with the probate court in each county. Before such filing a judge of said courts shall deal with persons convicted of a crime or found delinquent without regard to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242.

242.12 DECLARATION OF MINORITY OF PRISONER; PROCEEDINGS NOT CRIMINAL. When in any criminal proceeding in a court of this state a person has been convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for which the judge has power under section 242.13, to commit to the commission, the judge of that court shall determine whether the person was less than 21 years of age at the time of apprehension from which the criminal proceedings resulted. Proceedings in a juvenile court in respect to a juvenile are not criminal proceedings.

242.13 PRISONER COMMITTED TO COMMISSION; PROBATION. After a certificate has been filed with the clerk of the district court of any county, as provided in section 242.11, and except as hereinafter provided, the district court of such county shall commit to the commission every person convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor, who is found to be less than 21 years of age at the time of his apprehension and who is not sentenced to imprisonment for life, or in a county jail for 90 days or less, or to a fine only. This commitment shall be for the maximum term provided by law for the crime for which the person was convicted. Such clerk of district court shall deliver to the sheriff a warrant of commitment together with a certified copy thereof directing him to deliver such person to the director of the commission. Upon delivery of any such person, the director shall retain the certified copy and endorse his receipt upon the original which shall be filed in the court of commitment. In each such proceeding the court shall allow and order paid to the sheriff the sum of $10 per day for each authorized assistant and disbursements for the travel, board, and lodging of such person, of himself, and authorized assistants. Upon such order the state auditor shall issue a warrant on the state treasurer for the payment thereof. Execution of sentence may be stayed by the court and the defendant placed on probation. This probation shall not be granted until an investigation and report shall have been made by the probation officer of the court, if there is one, otherwise to the extent that its facilities permit, by the commission concerning the advisability thereof; but the granting or denial and the terms of probation shall be within the discretion of the court. If probation is granted, the court in its discretion may place the defendant under the supervision of the commission, providing the commission consents. Otherwise, such probation may be granted pursuant to law without regard to chapter 242.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1951 c 553 s 1; 1963 c 821 s 1; 1965 c 51 s 43; 1969 c 448 s 1]

242.14 PLACEMENT IN PENAL INSTITUTION PROHIBITED. The commission shall not have power by virtue of any commitment to it by a juvenile court, as authorized by section 260.185, to place such child in any penal institution.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1951 c 553 s 2; 1959 c 698 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 3]

242.15 MINORS, IMPRISONMENT IN JAIL DISAPPROVED BY COMMISSION. A person who is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor and who is found to be less than 21 years of age at the time of apprehension, and a person who has been found delinquent by a juvenile court, may not be imprisoned by virtue thereof in any jail which has been disapproved for that purpose by the commission.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.16 COMMITMENT, MINOR DETAINED. When a court commits a person to the commission, such court shall order the sheriff of the county of commitment to convey such person forthwith to some place of detention approved or established or designated by the commission or may direct that he be left at liberty until otherwise ordered by the commission under such conditions as will insure his submission to any orders of the director.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1951 c 459 s 1]

242.17 CERTIFIED COPY, WARRANT OF COMMITMENT. When a court commits a person to the commission it shall promptly forward to the commission a certified copy of the warrant of commitment.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.18 STUDY OF OFFENDER'S BACKGROUND; TREATMENT POLICY. When a person has been committed to the commission, the commission under its rules shall forthwith examine and study him and investigate all of the pertinent circumstances of his life and the antecedents of the crime because of which he has been committed to it, and thereupon order such treatment as it shall determine to be most conducive to the accomplishment of the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242. The court and the prosecuting and police authorities and other public officials shall make available to the commission all pertinent data in their possession in respect to the case.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 4]

242.19 METHODS OF CONTROL. When a person has been committed to the commission it may

(a) place him on probation under such supervision and conditions as it believes conducive to law abiding conduct;

(b) if he has been committed to the commission upon conviction of a felony or gross misdemeanor, order his confinement to such reformatory, state prison, jail or other place of confinement to which he might have been sentenced by the court in which he was convicted except for chapter 242. Such reformatories, state prisons, jails or other places of confinement are hereby required to accept such persons in like manner as though they had been committed by such court;

(c) if he has been committed to the commission by a juvenile court upon a finding of his delinquency, order his confinement to the state training school for boys or the Minnesota home school and such schools shall accept such persons so committed to them, or to a group foster home under the control of the commissioner of corrections, or to private schools or institutions established by law or incorporated under the laws of this state that may care for delinquent children;

(d) order his release on parole from confinement under such supervision and conditions as it believes conducive to law-abiding conduct;

(e) order recommitment or renewed parole as often as commission believes to be desirable;

(f) revoke or modify any order, except an order of discharge, as often as the commission believes to be desirable;

(g) discharge him from its control when it is satisfied that such discharge is consistent with the protection of the public;

(h) if it finds him eligible for probation or parole, and it appears from the commission's investigation that conditions in the home of his parents or guardian are not conducive to law-abiding conduct, refer the child, together with its findings, to a county welfare board or a licensed child placing agency for placement in foster care or when appropriate, for initiation of dependency or neglect proceedings as provided in sections 260.011 to 260.301. The commission shall reimburse county welfare boards for foster costs it incurs for such children while on probation or parole to the extent that funds for this purpose are made available to the commission by the legislature.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1949 c 575 s 1; 1953 c 353 s 1; 1959 c 631 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 5; 1969 c 413 s 1]

242.20 TRAINING. As a means of correcting the socially harmful tendencies of a person committed to it, the commission may, subject to the provisions of section 242.24, require participation by him in vocational, physical, educational and corrective training and activities and such conduct and modes of life as seem best adapted to fit him for return to full liberty without danger to the public welfare. The commission may receive money from the sale of articles made by a person committed to it and expend such money so received for the purchase of materials to be made into other articles for sale.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1953 c 352 s 1]

242.21 COOPERATION; STATE INSTITUTIONS, LOCAL POLICE OFFICERS. The commissioner of corrections may enter into agreement with the commissioner of public welfare, the adult corrections commission, with local probation officers or other public officials and with public or private agencies, schools or institutions, for custody, separate care, special treatment, or diagnostic services of persons subject to the control of the commission. The commissioner of corrections may pay any costs incurred by such agreements to the extent that funds for such purposes are made available to the commissioner by the legislature.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1949 c 575 s 1; 1955 c 261 s 1; 1959 c 263 s 3; 1969 c 280 s 1]

242.22 LOCAL PROBATION OFFICER; POWERS, DUTIES. Any person committed to the commission from a county having a probation officer of a district or juvenile court may be placed on probation by the commission under the supervision of such probation officer who shall assume such supervision as though it were pursuant to a judgment or order of the district or juvenile court. Such probation officer shall cooperate with the commission in providing treatment for such person consistent with the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242, but nothing therein shall give the commission direction or control over such probation officer or require him or his subordinates to perform duties not otherwise required by law. If parole is granted by the commission to such person after confinement to a penal institution or after commitment to the state training school for boys or the Minnesota home school, the parole may be conditioned on like supervision with the consent of the district or juvenile court respectively of such county.

242.23 INSTITUTIONAL FACILITIES, INSPECTION. The commission may inspect all public institutions, agencies and departments whose facilities it is authorized to utilize and shall be given reasonable opportunity to examine or consult with persons committed to the commission at all times.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.24 LIMITATION, POWERS OF COMMISSION. Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242 shall not be construed to give the commission control over existing facilities, institutions or agencies; or to require them to serve the commission inconsistently with their functions, or with the authority of their officers, or with the laws and regulations governing their activities.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 7]

242.25 RE-EXAMINATIONS, PERSONS COMMITTED. The director shall make periodic re-examinations of all persons under control of the commission for the purpose of determining whether existing orders in individual cases should be modified or continued in force. Those examinations may be made as frequently as the commission directs and shall be made with respect to every person at least once annually.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.26 CESSATION OF JURISDICTION. The control over a person committed to the commission in a criminal proceeding shall cease at the expiration of the term of his sentence for the crime for which convicted and he shall thereupon be entitled to a discharge in any event whether on probation, parole, confinement or other order of the commission. The care, custody and control of any delinquent child who has been committed to the commission by a juvenile court shall cease on the twenty-first birthday of such child.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1949 c 575 s 1; 1965 c 45 s 14]

242.265 TRANSFER TO ADULT CORRECTIONS COMMISSION. The commission may transfer to the adult corrections commission control over any person committed to its control who has attained the age of 21 years and who (1) is convicted of a felony committed while on probation under supervision of a person other than the probation officer of a district court or while on parole, or (2) is confined in a correctional institution by reason of a violation of parole. Upon such transfer the adult corrections commission shall thereupon assume control over the person in accordance with the judgment of the convicting court in the case of a transfer pursuant to clause (1), or as if the person had been sentenced by a court to the maximum term provided by law for the crime for which he was committed to the youth conservation commission in the case of a transfer pursuant to clause (2).

[1967 c 717 s 2]

242.27 DISCHARGE. Unless previously discharged or transferred to the adult corrections commission under the provisions of chapter 242, a person who has been committed to the commission upon conviction of a crime shall be discharged by the director and be given his liberty on his twenty-fifth birthday, unless the commission shall determine that such discharge at that time would be dangerous to the public in which event the commission shall terminate its control in the following manner:

(1) If he be then on probation under the supervision of the probation officer of a district court, the future control and disposition of the case shall be in all respects as though such probation were under the order of said court.

(2) If he be then on probation, but not under the supervision of a local probation officer, or if he be on parole, control of him shall be transferred to the adult corrections commission who shall thereupon assume like control over him as though he were on parole following sentence of a court of a maximum term provided by law for the crime for which he was committed.

(3) If he be then confined in a penal institution, the control of the commission shall cease and such confinement shall be upon like terms and conditions as though it had been under sentence of court for the maximum term provided by law for the crime for which he was committed.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1955 c 261 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 8; 1967 c 717 s 1]

242.28 IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE; ASSUMPTION OF CONTROL. If a sentence of imprisonment for life is imposed upon a person who was under 21 years of age at the time of his apprehension, and if before he reaches the age of 25 the board of pardons commutes the sentence by committing him to the commission, the commission shall assume control over him pursuant to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 9]

242.29 PROBATE COURT PROCEEDINGS; INSANITY, PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY. Whenever the director is of the opinion that there are grounds for believing that a person committed to the commission is insane, or a psychopathic personality, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Section 526.09, the director may institute proceedings in the probate court of the county in which such person then resides or is confined to determine whether he is insane or a psychopathic personality. If the court shall so find, he shall be transferred by the order of the court to the Minnesota security hospital or to a state hospital for the insane at the discretion of the court, there to be kept and maintained as in the case of other insane persons. If, in the judgment of the superintendent of the asylum or hospital, his sanity is restored before the period of his commitment to the commission has expired, he shall be returned by the commissioner of public welfare to the commission for further disposition or treatment under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242.

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1957 c 196 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 10]

[1947 c 595 s 1; 1961 c 750 s 11]

242.31 RESTORATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS. Whenever a person committed to the commission upon conviction of a crime is discharged from its control other than by expiration of the maximum term of commitment as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242, or by termination of its control under the provisions of section 242.27, such discharge shall, when so ordered by the commission, restore such person to all civil rights and shall have the effect of setting aside the conviction and nullifying the same and of purging such person thereof. The commission shall file a copy of the order with the district court of the county in which the conviction occurred, whereupon the court shall order the conviction set aside.

Whenever a person has been placed on probation by the court pursuant to section 242.13 and, after satisfactory fulfillment thereof, is discharged therefrom, the court, on application of the defendant or on its own motion and after notice to the county attorney, in its discretion may likewise so order.

Such orders restore the defendant to his civil rights and purge and free him from all penalties and disabilities arising from such conviction and it shall not thereafter be used against him, except in a criminal prosecution for a subsequent offense if otherwise admissible therein.

242.32 CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAMS; COOPERATION, OTHER AGENCIES. The commission shall be charged with the duty of developing constructive programs for the prevention and decrease of delinquency and crime among youth and to that end shall cooperate with existing agencies and encourage the establishment of new agencies, both local and state-wide, having as their object the prevention and decrease of delinquency and crime among youth; and the commission shall assist local authorities of any county or municipality when so requested by the governing body thereof, in planning, developing and coordinating their educational, welfare, recreational and health activities or other constructive community programs, which have as their object the conservation of youth.

242.33 ANNUAL REPORT TO GOVERNOR, RECOMMENDATIONS. The commission shall report annually to the governor upon its work including therein the number of persons committed to it, the number upon probation or parole, the number confined by it in penal or other institutions of the state, such information as it may have as to the causes of crime and delinquency among youth, and such other information relative to its activities as it may consider desirable or useful to the public. It may include in such report recommendations and suggestions for the prevention or decrease of such delinquency and crime. These reports may be published by the commission and upon publication they shall become public records.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.34 RETAKING ABSCONDING PERSON. The written order of the director is authority to any peace officer, or to any parole or probation officer or other supervising agent of the commission, to retake and place in actual custody any person under the control of the commission; but any such parole or probation officer may, without order or warrant, when it appears to him necessary in order to prevent the escape or to enforce discipline, take and detain such person and present him before the director for his action.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.35 RULES. The commission may make and shall enforce all rules appropriate to the proper accomplishment of its functions.

[1947 c 595 s 1]

242.36 ORDER OF COMMITMENT, REVIEW. (1) Within 30 days from the date of notice in writing of any order made pursuant to section 242.10, clause (1), or section 242.19, or of any order terminating its control made pursuant to section 242.27 after an examination as therein provided, any person who has been committed to the commission after conviction of a felony or gross misdemeanor, may request the commission in writing to conduct a hearing of record for the review of any such order.

(2) If the commission grants the request, it shall hold a full hearing of record, allowing the person opportunity to appear with counsel, and thereafter the commission shall issue a final order affirming, modifying, or rescinding its prior order.

(3) Upon application to the committing district court made by the person affected by the final order within 30 days from the date of written notice thereof, the committing district court only may review such final order. Such review shall be in like manner as though reviewed by certiorari, except that the trial shall be de novo upon the return of the commission and such other evidence as may be received by the court. Nothing herein shall prohibit the commission from making such investigation and orders to carry out the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 242.

(4) The final order shall remain in full force and effect until reversed by the committing district court, and if appeal is taken to the supreme court, until that court makes its final order.

242.37 CONSERVATION CAMPS. (1) The commission may establish and operate conservation camps in which persons committed to the commission may be placed. Such camps may be established independently or in cooperation with any other public agency or any governmental subdivision, subject to the approval of such agency or subdivision as to any camp or project to the extent that its premises or operations are affected.

(2) Every able-bodied person committed to the commission and confined to a conservation camp established pursuant to this section or to any other place or institution under the control of the commission may be required by order of the commission to labor during the whole or some part of the time for which he is so committed and confined, but not more than eight hours per day. The commission is authorized and empowered to provide for the payment of such compensation as it may determine to persons so confined who perform labor as hereinabove provided. Any money arising hereunder shall be and remain under control of the commission and shall be for the sole benefit of the person performing the labor unless it shall be used for rendering assistance to his family or dependents or in making restitution to persons determined by the commission to be entitled thereto, in either event payments shall be made only in such amount, at such time and to such persons as the commission may order in writing.

[1949 c 575 s 1]

242.375 SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPENSATION IN ADDITION TO SALARY. stitution or camp, he shall be entitled to his residence, subsistence and maintenance in addition to his salary.

[1957 c 894]

242.38 CUSTODY OF WARDS' FUNDS. The youth conservation commission shall have the care and custody of all moneys belonging to wards thereof which may come into its hands, keep accurate accounts thereof, and pay them out under rules and regulations prescribed by law, or by the commission, taking vouchers therefor. The officer charged with the custody of such funds shall give a bond in such amount as the commission may require, conditioned to safely keep and account for such funds. All such moneys received by any officer or employee shall be paid to the person having charge of such funds forthwith. Such officer, at the close of each month, or oftener if required by the commission, shall forward to the commission a statement of the amount of all moneys so received and the names of the wards from whom received, accompanied by his check for the amount, payable to the state treasurer. On receipt of such statement, the commission shall transmit the same to the state auditor, together with such check, who shall deliver the same to the state treasurer. All such funds shall be paid out by the state treasurer upon vouchers duly approved by the commission as in other cases. The commission may permit a contingent fund to remain in the hands of the officer charged with the custody of such funds from which necessary expenditures may from time to time be made.

There is hereby appropriated to the persons entitled to a payment authorized in sections 242.37 to 242.38, from a fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make such payment.
