315.01 FORMATION; TRUSTEES; ELECTION, APPOINTMENT, DESIGNATION. Subdivision 1. Who may elect. The stated worshipers with any church, congregation, or religious society, not already incorporated, who are of lawful age and have been considered as belonging thereto, may elect trustees thereof and incorporate the same in the manner herein provided.

Subd. 2. Election. A written notice, signed by at least five of such stated worshipers, stating the time, place, and object of the meeting, shall be posted at least 15 days prior to the time therein fixed, in some conspicuous spot at the place of worship of such church, congregation, or society. At the time and place so fixed, such worshipers, not less than five thereof being present, shall, by a plurality vote, elect a chairman and secretary, who shall together determine the qualifications of voters and receive and count the votes. The voters as so determined, shall, by a plurality vote, elect not less than three, nor more than 15 members of their church, congregation, or society as trustees, to take charge of its property and temporal affairs; and such voters shall also adopt a name, by which the trustees and their successors in office shall forever thereafter be known; and they may also determine the qualifications of the trustees thereafter to be chosen and the religious denomination or sect to which the society shall belong. Immediately after such meeting the chairman and secretary thereof shall sign, in the presence of two subscribing witnesses, and shall acknowledge, a certificate, which shall state the names of the trustees elected, the name adopted for the incorporated society, the qualifications of future trustees, if any shall have been determined by the electors, and the name of the religious denomination to which the society shall belong, if any shall have been selected.

Subd. 3. Appointment. When, by the constitution, rules, or usages of any particular church, denomination, congregation, or religious society, trustees are required to be appointed, elected, or chosen in any way, by any minister, presiding elder, or other officers, or by any conference, assemblage, body, or meeting of any kind, and are so appointed, elected, or chosen, such minister, presiding elder, officers, or the presiding officer and secretary of any such conference, assemblage, body, or meeting so appointing, electing, or choosing trustees, shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to such trustees a certificate, stating the names of such trustees, the time when and the persons or body by which they were appointed, elected, or chosen, and the name by which such trustees and their successors in office shall forever thereafter be called and known. Upon the filing and recording of such certificate, as required by law, such trustees, and their successors appointed or chosen in the same manner, shall be a body corporate under the name specified therein, and have all the rights, powers, and privileges of other religious corporations organized under this chapter.

Subd. 4. Designation. When, by the constitution, rules, and usages of any particular church or religious denomination, the minister or ministers, elders, and deacons, or other officers elected by any church or congregation according to such constitution, rules, or usages, are thereby constituted the trustees of such church or congregation, such designated persons may assemble and execute and acknowledge a certificate, stating therein the name by which they and their successors in office shall forever thereafter be called and known. Upon the filing and record of this certificate with the register of deeds of the proper county, such persons and their successors shall be a body corporate by the name expressed therein.

315.02 CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION OF TRUSTEES. When trustees have been heretofore elected, appointed, or in any way chosen by a conference or assembly of any kind, of any church or religious society, in accordance with its own constitution, rules, or usages, and a certificate thereof made by its presiding officer and secretary, or either of them, specifying the corporate name by which such trustees are to be known, and duly recorded, with intent to make such trustees a body corporate, they shall in all legal proceedings be deemed a religious corporation under the provisions of this chapter from the time of the recording of such certificate, and all their acts thereafter as a corporation shall be as valid and as effectual as though originally formed under the provisions of this chapter; and all conveyances to such trustees as a corporation are hereby confirmed and declared valid.

315.03 CERTIFICATE RECORDED, WHERE. Such certificate, together with the certificate of acknowledgment, and a copy of the notice of meeting and affidavit of the posting thereof, shall be recorded with the register of deeds of the county where the place of worship of such society is located; and thereafter such trustees and their successors shall be a body corporate by the name expressed in such certificate.

[R. L. s. 3134; 1937 c. 252 s. 1] (7965)

315.04 TRUSTEES, POWERS. Such trustees may have a common seal and alter the same at pleasure. They may take possession of all temporalities of such church, congregation, or society, real and personal, given, granted, or devised, directly or indirectly, to such body or to any other person for their use. They may sue and be sued in their corporate name, recover and hold all debts, demands, rights, and privileges, all churches, buildings, burial places, and all the estate and appurtenances belonging to such church, congregation, or society, however acquired or by whomsoever held, as fully as though originally vested in them. They may hold, purchase, and receive title, by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, of and to any property, real or personal, without limitation as to amount, for any of the purposes authorized or approved by the congregation or society, as provided in section 315.05, with power to mortgage, sell, convey, demise, lease, and improve the same.

Sections 315.03 to 315.05 shall apply to all religious corporations formed under Revised Statutes of the Territory of Minnesota 1851, Chapter 36, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Under the direction or approval of the congregation or society, they may erect, acquire, and operate churches, dwellings for their ministers, and other buildings for the use of the church, congregation, or society, hospitals, nurses' homes and training schools, missions, camps and recreational grounds, and other buildings or facilities for the carrying on of other religious, moral, and charitable activities. They may appoint a clerk and treasurer of their board and a collector, regulate their compensation, and remove them at pleasure. The clerk shall enter all rules and orders made by the trustees, and payments ordered by them, in a book kept for that purpose.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to give the trustees power to fix the salary of any minister, but the same shall be fixed by a majority of the society entitled to vote at the election of trustees.

Sections 315.03 to 315.05 shall apply to all religious corporations formed under Revised Statutes of the Territory of Minnesota 1851, Chapter 36, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Unless otherwise provided in the constitution or articles, immediately after their first election they shall be divided by lot into three classes, the first class retiring at the end of the first year, the second class at the end of the second year, and the third class at the end of the third year; and, as near as may be, one-third of the whole number shall thereafter be chosen annually. Two trustees may call a meeting of the board; and, when assembled, a majority of the whole number shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. Fifteen days before the expiration of the term of office of any trustee the clerk shall give notice of the election of his successor, by posting the same at the place where the society statedly meets for worship, therein stating the name of the trustee and the time and place of election; and, in addition to such notice, the minister or some other officer of such church or society shall give public notice of such election to the congregation at least one week before the election. 315.07 VOTERS, QUALIFICATIONS. No person belonging to any such church, congregation, or society shall be entitled to vote at any election after its incorporation until he has been an attendant on public worship in such church, congregation, or society at least six months before the election, and contributed to its support according to its usages and customs. The clerk of the trustees shall keep a register of all persons who desire to become stated hearers in such church, congregation, or society, and therein note the time of such request, and he shall attend all subsequent elections in order to test the qualifications of such voters in case of question.

315.08 DEFINITIONS. Subdivision 1. Words, terms, and phrases. Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following words, terms, and phrases, for the purposes of this chapter, shall be given the meanings subjoined to them.

Subd. 2. Society. The word "society" means the religious body constituted in accordance with the principles of the ecclesiastical policy which forms the basis of the corporation designated in this chapter as the church, congregation, or society, as distinguished from the corporation itself.

[R. L. s. 3138; 1925 c. 194 s. 1] (7969)

315.09 GENERAL POWERS OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS. Every corporation organized under this chapter may, in its corporate name, sue and be sued, hold, purchase, and receive title, by gift, grant, or other conveyance of and to any property, real or personal, with power to mortgage, sell, or convey the same. It may adopt all by-laws and make all regulations necessary or expedient for the management of its affairs in accordance with law.

[R. L. s. 3162] (8001)

315.10 POWERS OF CERTAIN CORPORATIONS. Any religious corporation, parish or diocese formed under the laws of this state, allowing a bishop, vicar general, pastor of a parish with two laymen, or allowing a bishop, vicar general, and chancellor of a diocese with two other members of the same religious denomination, to form a corporation; such corporation shall have the power to sue or be sued, to hold, purchase, and receive title, by devise, purchase, gift, grant, or otherwise, any property, real or personal, with power to mortgage, sell, or convey the same, or any part thereof, without giving the notice or being authorized thereto, as required in the manner provided in section 315.12.

[1907 c. 60 s. 1] (7964)

315.11 LIMITATION OF RIGHT TO HOLD PROPERTY. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the taking or holding of real or personal property by any religious corporation for purposes other than those of its incorporation, and all of its provisions are subject to any limitation or modification which may hereafter be enacted by general laws as to the amount of property which may be held by the corporations provided for in this chapter.

315.12 SALE OR ENCUMBRANCE OF REAL ESTATE. Any religious corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter, by and through its trustees, may sell and convey, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any of its real estate; but no such conveyance or encumbrance shall be made by the trustees except when first authorized by resolution of such society adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at a meeting thereof called for that purpose, notice of the time, place, and object of which shall be given for at least four successive Sabbaths on which the society stately meets for public worship, immediately preceding such time. When any religious society ceases to have stated meetings for public worship, or for any cause is unable to give such notice of the time and place of the meeting of such society, the corporation may make such sale, conveyance, or encumbrance by its trustees, upon being authorized by resolution, as hereinbefore specified, adopted at a meeting of which at least 20 days posted notice has been given. If such society has, for any reason, ceased to exist, for a period of one year, the corporation may sell and convey its property by its trustees upon giving at least 20 days posted notice upon the premises of its intention so to do. Proof of such non-existence, notice, meeting, and the adoption of resolution may be made by the affidavit of a trustee or member of the society cognizant thereof. The affidavit shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds where the certificate of incorporation was recorded, and the same and the record thereof, or certified copies of such record, shall be presumptive evidence of the fact therein contained.

No person shall vote at any meeting called to authorize the trustees to sell, convey, encumber, or dispose of any real estate of such corporation who is not a member of such religious body, and no such religious corporation shall sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of its real estate in any manner other than as provided by the denominational rules and certificates of association of such society as the same appears of record in the office of the register of deeds of the county. Nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect or infringe any provision of Revised Laws 1905, Chapter 59.

315.13 EXISTING SOCIETIES CONFIRMED; REORGANIZATION. Every church, congregation, or religious society heretofore incorporated under any general or special law, and not since dissolved, is hereby confirmed. In case of the dissolution of any such corporation, or of any corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter, the same may be incorporated or reincorporated under the provisions thereof at any time within six years after such dissolution; and thereupon all the estate, real and personal, at any time belonging thereto, and not lawfully disposed of, shall vest in the corporation the same as though there had been no dissolution.

[R. L. s. 3139] (7970)

315.14 LANDS HELD IN TRUST. Lands, tenements, or hereditaments conveyed by devise, grant, purchase, or otherwise, to any persons as trustees in trust for the use of any religious society heretofore or hereafter organized, for a meeting house, burial ground, or parsonage, with the improvements thereon, shall descend in perpetual succession, and be held by such trustees in trust for such society.

[R. L. s. 3140] (7971)

315.15 PARISH CORPORATIONS, ORGANIZATION. The bishop of any religious denomination may associate with him the vicar general of the same diocese and the pastor of such denomination of the parish wherein a corporation is to be located, which shall be within the diocese of such bishop, and the bishop, vicar general, and pastor, or a majority of them, shall designate and associate with them two lay members of any such denomination; and, upon adopting, signing, and acknowledging, in duplicate, a certificate of incorporation reciting the fact of such association, and of the selection of such laymen, and containing the name, general purpose, and place of location of such corporation, and having one such certificate recorded with the register of deeds of the county of its location and the other filed with the secretary of state, the said five persons and their successors shall become a corporation, subject to all the requirements, and vested with all the rights, powers, and privileges, of a religious corporation. The persons at any time holding the offices hereinbefore specified in any diocese shall, by virtue of their respective offices, be members of and, with the two laymen aforesaid, constitute such corporation, but every such person, on ceasing to hold such office, shall cease to be a member thereof, and his successor in office shall become a member in his place. The two laymen designated as aforesaid shall remain members for the term of two years from the date of the certificate, and thereafter their term of office shall be two years, and in either case until their successors are chosen. They shall always be designated and appointed by the three first named corporators, who shall also fill all vacancies in their number. Their appointment shall be in writing and entered upon the records of the corporation. Should there at any time be a vacancy in the office of bishop of any diocese, or should any other person be appointed in his stead to administer the spiritual and temporal affairs of such diocese, then, during such vacancy or suspension of the authority of such bishop, such administrator of the affairs of the diocese, or any other person appointed under the rules of such denomination to preside over and administer its affairs, shall, while acting as such administrator or appointee, be a member of such corporation, with all the rights and powers incident thereto; but his membership shall at once cease when such vacancy has been filled or suspension of authority removed. If any diocese in which any such corporation is located shall be subdivided according to the rules and practice of such denomination, and one or more new dioceses formed therefrom, or from parts thereof, the bishop and vicar general of any such new diocese and their successors in office, as soon as appointed and instituted, shall, by virtue of their respective offices, forthwith become members of any such corporation within such new diocese, with all the rights, duties, privileges, powers, and obligations of such members, and the bishop and vicar general of the diocese in which such corporation was located prior to such subdivision shall cease to be members thereof.

Subd. 2. The persons who may hold the offices, respectively, of bishop, vicar general, and chancellor of such religious denomination within and for such diocese, and their successors in office forever, shall, by virtue of their respective offices, always be members of such corporation, but on ceasing to hold such office the corporate membership of each shall at once cease. The other two incorporators and their successors in office shall always be selected and appointed by the bishop, vicar general, and chancellor of such diocese, or a majority of them, for the same term and in the same manner as provided in section 315.15 for the selection and appointment of the two laymen by the bishop, vicar general, and pastor, and all vacancies shall be filled by the three first named corporators. Every such appointment shall be in writing and entered of record in the minutes of the corporation, and such appointees shall be members of such religious denomination and residents of the diocese of its location. Any corporator so selected may at any time resign, and such resignation and its acceptance shall always be entered on the minutes of the corporation. In case of a vacancy in the office of bishop of such diocese or the temporary suspension of his authority to act, the provisions of section 315.15 in reference to such a case shall in all respects apply.

Subd. 3. Any member of either corporation specified in this section and in section 315.15 may, by a writing signed by him, appoint a proxy to represent and act for him, and in his name and stead to vote at any meeting of such corporation.

Subd. 4. A religious corporation may be formed in the manner set forth herein, for the purpose of establishing one or more cemeteries in accordance with section 307.01.
