Minnesota Statutes 1965, Sections 15.0418, 15.0419, 15.0421, 15.0422, and is subject to appeal in accordance with section 15.0424.

Subd. 2. Determination of discriminatory practice. If the panel or examiner finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice, the panel or examiner shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall issue a preliminary order directing the respondent to cease and desist from the unfair discriminatory practice found to exist and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the panel or examiner will effectuate the purposes of this chapter. The panel or examiner may order the respondent to pay the charging party compensatory damages, except damages for mental anguish or suffering, and may also order the respondent to pay the charging party punitive damages in an amount not less than $25 nor more than $100. In addition to the aforesaid remedies, in a case involving discrimination in

(a) employment, the panel or examiner may order the hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of an employee with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or his admission to or participation in an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job-training program, or other retraining program, or any other relief the panel or examiner deems just and equitable.

(b) housing, the panel or examiner may order the lease, or rental of the housing accommodation to the charging party, or the sale, lease or rental of a like accommodation owned by or under the control of the person against whom the complaint was filed, according to terms as listed with a real estate broker, or if no such listing has been made, as otherwise advertised or offered by the vendor or lessor, or any other relief the panel or examiner deems just and equitable.

The panel or examiner shall cause the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and preliminary order to be served on the respondent personally, the charging party by registered or certified mail, and shall furnish copies to the attorney general and the commissioner.

Subd. 3. Dismissal of hearing. If the panel or examiner makes findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order in favor of the respondent, such order shall be a final decision of the department.

Subd. 4. Respondents subject to state licensing or regulatory power. In the case of a respondent which is subject to the licensing or regulatory power of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, if the panel or hearing examiner determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice, and if the respondent does not cease to engage in such discriminatory practice, the commissioner may so certify to the licensing or regulatory agency. Unless such determination of discriminatory practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, a final determination is binding on the licensing or regulatory agency. Such agency may take appropriate administrative action, including suspension or revocation of the respondent's license or certificate of public convenience and necessity, if such agency is otherwise authorized to take such action.

Subd. 5. Public contracts. In the case of a respondent which is a party to a public contract, if the panel or hearing examiner determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice, the commissioner may so certify to the contract letting agency. Unless such finding of a discriminatory practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, a final determination is binding on the contract letting agency and such agency may take appropriate administrative action, including the imposition of financial penalties or termination of the contract, in whole or in part, if such agency is otherwise authorized to take such action.

Certificates of compliance may be suspended or revoked, or a pending application for a certificate may be denied, by a panel or examiner, in an order based on a finding that the holder or applicant has committed an unfair discriminatory practice in respect of a public contract; provided, however, that:

(1) any contractor certified to be in compliance with regulations of the federal government in respect of discriminatory practices shall also be certified by the state; and

(2) a contract awarded by a department or agency of the state shall not be terminated or abridged because of suspension, revocation or denial of a certificate based upon an unfair discriminatory practice for which the commissioner's complaint was issued after the date of the contract award; and
