

352.93 MINNESOTA STATE RETIREMENT SYSTEM

applicable sections of law but no period of service shall be used more than once in calculating the annuity.

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 an employee who was in a covered correctional position on July 1, 1973; was employed in a position covered by chapter 352, prior to reaching age 60; and was required to retire because of the lowering of the mandatory age, shall be entitled to an annuity under this section even though he does not have ten years of covered service under chapter 352.

Subd. 6. This section shall apply to qualified employees who retire on or after July 1, 1973, but the annuity payable hereunder shall not begin to accrue until July 1, 1974.

[1973 c 653 s 42]

352.94 Augmentation

Subdivision 1. An employee who becomes a correctional employee after serving as a regular employee shall be covered under section 352.72, subdivision 2, with respect to the regular service.

Subd. 2. An employee who becomes a regular employee after serving as a correctional employee shall not be covered under section 352.72, subdivision 2, with respect to his correctional service.

352.95 Disability benefits

An employee who becomes totally and permanently disabled while in a covered correctional position shall have his disability benefit rights determined under section 352.113 except that when such person becomes 55 years of age he shall be deemed to be retired and shall be entitled to receive the benefit provided under section 352.113, subdivision 3, whether or not disabled at such age. An employee who receives a disability benefit shall not be entitled to an annuity under section 352.93, even though otherwise qualified, until re-employed in a covered correctional position for a period of at least one year.

(NOTE: Section 352A.01, Subdivision 8, was also amended by Laws 1973, Chapter 388, Section 170, to read as follows:

"Sec. 170. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 352A.01, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [Temporary disability.] Members who are absent from their duties because of temporary disability resulting from injuries for which the state is liable under the workmen's compensation law shall have the period of such absence for which compensation is paid under the workmen's compensation law included in determining the period of service for the state unless they are receiving a disability allowance from the retirement fund. The workmen's compensation division shall furnish the retirement board with a copy of each abstract submitted to the state auditor and to be charged to the state compensation revolving fund which shall be construed as notice to the retirement board that the employees listed thereon have sustained injury arising out of and in the course of employment by the state of Minnesota and are entitled to credit for service on the records of the association during the time compensation is received for temporary disability resulting from such injury, but shall not be used for any other purpose."
