388.01	Election; qualifications; term; bond.	388.19 County attorneys council [New].
		388.20 Executive director [New].

388.01 Election; qualifications; term; bond

There shall be elected in each county a county attorney who shall be learned in the law, and whose term of office shall be four years and until his successor qualifies. Before entering upon his duties he shall give bond to the state in the penal sum of $1,000, to be approved by the county board, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office and pay over without delay to the county treasurer all moneys which come into his hands by virtue thereof, which bond and his oath shall be filed for record with the register of deeds.

[1973 c 524 s 6]

388.19 County attorneys council

Subdivision 1. Creation. There is hereby created a county attorneys council hereinafter designated as the "council" to be composed of the county attorney from each of the 87 counties and the attorney general of the state of Minnesota. The members shall meet annually in November of each year and, commencing at the annual meeting in November 1973, shall elect a president, a president-elect, a secretary, and a treasurer, and such other officers and directors as the county attorneys council shall determine. Each of these officers shall hold office for a term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The county attorneys council may adopt such rules as are necessary for the carrying out of its duties. A county attorney may designate in writing an assistant who may act in his stead in carrying out any function of the county attorneys council except serving as an officer. The county attorneys council may acquire and hold property, accept gifts and expend any such sums so received.

Subd. 2. First meeting. The first meeting of the county attorneys council shall be called by the attorney general within 60 days of final enactment of Laws 1973, Chapter 564. The attorney general, the president, president-elect, secretary, treasurer and immediate past president of the Minnesota County Attorneys Association shall be the officers of the council until the meeting in
