CHAPTER 463. BUILDING LINE EASEMENTS; BUILDING REGULATIONS; AND HAZARDOUS BUILDINGS

HAZARDOUS AND SUBSTANDARD BUILDINGS

Sec.
463.251 Securing vacant buildings [New].

463.251 Securing vacant buildings

If in any city, village or borough a building becomes vacant or unoccupied and is deemed hazardous due to the fact that the building is open to trespass and has not been secured and the building could be made safe by securing the building, the governing body may order the building secured and shall cause notice of the order to be served upon the owner of record of the premises or his agent by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. If the owner of the building fails to comply with the order within ten days after the order is served upon him, the governing body shall cause the building to be properly secured and the cost thereof may be charged against the real estate as provided in section 463.21.

465.56 Cities may levy taxes for advertising purposes

Subdivision 1. The governing body of statutory city, or home rule charter city of the fourth class may, as hereinafter provided, annually levy a tax of not to exceed one mill on all the taxable property within such municipality but in no event shall more than $2,000 be raised in any one year for the purpose of advertising the municipality and its resources and advantages. Such tax shall be levied in the same manner and at the same time as taxes for other municipal purposes are levied, and shall be collected in the same manner. The proceeds of such tax shall be used only for the purpose of advertising such municipality or for cooperative programs of promotion for the area by more than one such municipality and its resources and advantages; provided, that the annual expenditure for such purposes by any such municipality is hereby limited to the sum of $2,000, provided, nothing in sections 465.56 and 465.57 shall permit the levy of any tax in excess of the amount authorized by sections 275.11 to 275.16. For purposes of this subdivision the term "statutory city" does not include any city which was operating under the provisions of Laws 1895, Chapter 8, as amended, on July 1, 1975.

Subd. 2. The governing body of any city which was operating under the provisions of Laws 1895, Chapter 8, as amended, on July 1, 1975, may expend not more than $5,000 annually for the purpose of advertising the city and its resources and advantages notwithstanding the provision of section 465.57.
