RETIREMENT

490.025 Retirement of supreme court justices

Subdivision 1. Requisites. When a justice of the supreme court, having served at least one term, arrives at the age of 70 years, or having served at least two full terms or the equivalent thereof, becomes incapacitated for the performance of his official duties to the extent that the public service suffers therefrom, and makes written application to the governor for his retirement, the governor, if he determines that such justice has arrived at such age and has served at least one term or that such disability exists, shall direct his retirement by written order which shall effect a vacancy in the office to be filled as provided by law.

[1973 c 494 s 14]

Subd. 2. Retirement compensation; amount. A justice shall receive the compensation allotted to his office for the remainder of the term for which elected. If a justice be retired for age or disability and, at the time of his retirement, has served as a justice for two full terms or the equivalent thereof or as a justice and as a judge of the district court for 15 years he shall, after the expiration of the term for which elected or appointed, receive for the remainder of his life one half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of his retirement plus two and one half percent of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of his retirement for each year, not exceeding 10, which he served in his office in excess of two full terms, or the equivalent thereof, on the supreme court or in excess of 15 years as a justice of such court and as a judge of the district court. All such retirement pay shall be paid in the manner judicial salaries are paid.
