circumstances, the judge of the probate court, the court commissioner, or any judge of the district court, of the county in which the application is made, may authorize the license to be issued at any time before the expiration of the five days. The clerk shall collect from the applicant a fee of $10 for administering the oath, issuing, recording, and filing all papers required, and preparing and transmitting to the state registrar of vital statistics the reports of marriage required by this section. If illness or other extenuating circumstances, it may be surrendered to the clerk for cancellation, and in such case a new license shall issue upon request of the parties of the original license without fee therefor. Any clerk who shall knowingly issue or sign a marriage license in any other manner than in this section provided shall forfeit and pay for the use of the parties aggrieved not to exceed $1,000.

PERSONNEL

525.04 Judge; election, qualifications, bond

There shall be elected in each county a probate judge who shall be learned in the law, except that probate judges now in office shall be considered learned in the law insofar as being eligible to continue in office and to be re-elected to same. Before he enters upon the duties of his office he shall execute a bond to the state in the amount of $1,000, approved by the county board and conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. Such bond with his oath shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds. The
