6.48 Federal general revenue sharing funds, transfer to general fund

Any moneys heretofore or hereafter received from federal general revenue sharing funds and any interest earned on such moneys shall be transferred to the general fund in order to comply with United States Department of Treasury regulations that such federal general revenue sharing funds be appropriated and expended in the same manner as the state's own revenues. Upon transfer such federal general revenue sharing funds shall be appropriated and expended in the same manner as all other moneys in the general fund. Provided, however, that such federal general revenue sharing funds shall not be appropriated or considered to be appropriated to any local unit of government, including school districts, the university of Minnesota, or for any purpose that is contrary to the provisions of Public Law 92-512 or the regulations of the United States Department of the Treasury. The state auditor shall make such transfers, and the sums so transferred are then a part of the general fund and available for appropriation and expenditure.

CHAPTER 8. ATTORNEY GENERAL

Sec.
8.01 Appearance.
8.02 Deputies, assistants.
8.024 Additional deputies and assistants.

Sec.
8.025 Part time special attorneys, payment on hourly basis beyond $10,000 [New].
8.026 Assistant, retirement associations [New].

8.01 Appearance

The attorney general shall appear for the state in all causes in the supreme and federal courts wherein the state is directly interested; also in all civil causes of like nature in all other courts of the state whenever, in his opinion, the interests of the state require it. Upon request of the county attorney he shall appear in court in such criminal cases as he shall deem proper. Whenever the governor shall so request, in writing, he shall prosecute any person charged with an indictable offense; and in all such cases he may attend upon the grand jury and exercise the powers of a county attorney.

[1973 c 90 s 1]

8.02 Deputies, assistants

The attorney general may appoint, and at his pleasure remove, two deputy attorneys general and nine assistant attorneys general, who shall render such aid as he may require of them in the discharge of his official duty. He shall keep a record of his official correspondence and of all matters placed in his hands by the governor, auditor, secretary of state, or treasurer, or any officer or board in charge of any of the business of the state upon which any official action is necessary; he shall also keep a record of all legal proceedings instituted by him or in which he appears, and of the several steps taken therein. All official opinions shall be in writing and copies thereof made and filed in his office. The deputy attorneys general and each of such assistants shall, to the extent authorized in writing by the attorney general, have authority to appear before grand juries or in any court of this state, as the attorney general himself might do.

The attorney general shall have power to employ such assistance, whether lay, legal, or expert, as he may deem necessary for the protection of the interests of the state through the proper conduct of its legal business.
