[R L s 5199; 1929 c 177; 1963 c 849 s 16] (10540)

626.05 DEFINITIONS. Subdivision 1. A search warrant is an order in writing, in the name of the state, signed by a court of record or by a justice of the peace in any county having no municipal court other than a probate court, directed to a peace officer, commanding him to make such search as may be authorized by law and to hold any item seized, subject to the order of a court.

Subd. 2. The term "peace officer" as used in sections 80.24, 340.65, and 626.04 to 626.17 means a sheriff, deputy sheriff, policeman, or constable.

[1963 c 849 s 3]

626.06 JURISDICTION TO ISSUE. Search warrants may be issued by any court of record or by a justice of the peace in any county having no municipal court other than a probate court having jurisdiction in the area wherein the place to be searched is located.

[1963 c 849 s 4]

626.07 GROUNDS FOR ISSUANCE. A search warrant may be issued upon any of the following grounds:

- (1) The property or things were stolen or embezzled;
- (2) The property or things were used as the means of committing a crime;
- (3) The possession of the property or things constitutes a crime;

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1974

TRAINING; INVESTIGATION, APPREHENSION; REPORTS 626.16

(4) The property or things are in the possession of any person with the intent to use them as a means of committing a crime, or the property or things so intended to be used are in the possession of another to whom they have been delivered for the purpose of concealing them or preventing their being discovered;

(5) The property or things to be seized consist of any item or constitute any evidence which tends to show a crime has been committed, or tends to show that a particular person has committed a crime.

The property or things described in this section may be taken pursuant to the warrant from any place, or from any person in whose possession they may be.
[1963 c 849 s 5]

626.08 PROBABLE CAUSE. A search warrant cannot be issued but upon probable cause, supported by affidavit, naming or describing the person, and particularly describing the property or thing to be seized, and particularly describing the place to be searched.

[1963 c 849 s 6]

626.09 EXAMINATION OF PARTIES MAKING REQUEST. The court or justice of the peace may, before issuing the warrant, examine on oath the person seeking the warrant and any witnesses he may produce, and must take his affidavit or their affidavits in writing, and cause same to be subscribed by the party or parties making same.

[1963 c 849 s 7]

626.10 AFFIDAVIT, CONTENT. The affidavit or affidavits must set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the application, or probable cause for believing that they exist.

[1963 c 849 s 8]

626.11 ISSUANCE OF WARRANT. If the court or justice of the peace is thereupon satisfied of the existence of the grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, he must issue a search warrant, signed by him with his name of office, to a peace officer in his county, commanding him forthwith to search the person or place named, for the property or things specified, and to retain such property or things in his custody subject to order of the court or justice of the peace issuing the warrant.

[1963 c 849 s 9]

626.12 APPLICANTS, NAMES ON WARRANT. The warrant, in addition, shall contain the names of the persons presenting affidavits in support of the application, and the grounds for its issuance.

[1963 c 849 s 10]

626.13 SERVICE, PERSONS MAKING. A search warrant may in all cases be served by any of the officers mentioned in its directions, but by no other person, except in aid of the officer on his requiring it, he being present and acting in its execution.

[1963 c 849 s 11]

626.14 TIME OF SERVICE. A search warrant may be served only in the daytime unless the court or justice of the peace determines on the basis of facts stated in the affidavits that a nighttime search is necessary to prevent the loss, destruction, or removal of the objects of the search. The search warrant shall state that it may be served only in the daytime unless a nighttime search is so authorized.

[1963 c 849 s 12]

626.15 EXECUTION AND RETURN OF WARRANT, TIME. A search warrant must be executed and returned to the court or justice of the peace who issued it within ten days after its date; after the expiration of this time the warrant, unless executed, is void.

[1963 c 849 s 13]

626.16 DELIVERY OF COPY OF WARRANT AND RECEIPT. When the officer conducts the search he must give a copy of the warrant and, when property or things are taken, a receipt therefor (specifying it in detail) to the person in whose possession the premises or the property or things taken were found; or, in the absence of any person, he must leave such copy of the warrant and receipt in the place where the property or things were found. Such delivery of a copy of the warrant shall constitute service.

[1963 c 849 s 14]

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1974

626.17 RETURN AND INVENTORY. The officer must forthwith return the warrant to the court or justice of the peace, and deliver to him a written inventory of the property or things taken, verified by the certificate of the officer at the foot of the inventory.

[1963 c 849 s 15]

UNLAWFUL SEARCHES AND SEIZURES

626.21 RETURN OF PROPERTY AND SUPPRESSION OF EVIDENCE. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the district court for the district in which the property was seized or the municipal court having jurisdiction of the substantive offense for the return of the property and to suppress the use, as evidence, of anything so obtained on the ground that (1) the property was illegally seized, or (2) the property was illegally seized without warrant, or (3) the warrant is insufficient on its face, or (4) the property seized is not that described in the warrant, or (5) there was not probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued, or (6) the warrant was illegally executed, or (7) the warrant was improvidently issued. The judge shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to the decision of the motion. If the motion is granted the property shall be restored unless otherwise subject to lawful detention, and it shall not be admissible in evidence at any hearing or trial. The motion to suppress evidence may also be made in the district where the trial is to be had. The motion shall be made before trial or hearing unless opportunity therefor did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, but the court in its discretion may entertain the motion at the trial or hearing.

[1963 c 850 s 1]

626.22 MALICIOUSLY PROCURING SEARCH WARRANT; MISCONDUCT IN USE. Every person who shall maliciously and without probable cause procure a search warrant to be issued and executed, and every officer who, in executing a search warrant, shall wilfully exceed his authority, or exercise it with unnecessary severity, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The office of any such sheriff and of any such chief of police shall keep such report as a confidential communication and shall not disclose the name of the person making the same, and the party making the report shall not by reason thereof be subpoenaed, examined, or forced to testify in court as a consequence of having made such a report.

626.554 REPORTING OF MALTREATMENT OF MINORS. Subdivision 1. Declaration of purpose. The purpose of this section is to provide for the protection of minor children who have had physical injury inflicted upon them, by other than accidental means, where the injury appears to have been caused as a result of physical abuse or neglect.

Subd. 2. Who makes report and to whom made. Any physician, surgeon, person authorized to engage in the practice of healing, superintendent or manager of a hospital, nurse and pharmacist, whether such physicians, surgeons, persons engaged in the practice of healing, superintendent or manager of any hospital, nurse and pharmacist be licensed or not, shall immediately report all cases of physical injury to children inflicted by other than accidental means which come to their attention where the injury appears to have been caused as a result of physical abuse or neglect. Such cases shall be reported to the appropriate police authority as defined in section 626.53 and the county welfare agency. The appropriate police authority, upon receiving such a report, shall immediately notify the county welfare agency. Provided, however, that no provision of this section shall be construed to mean that a child is neglected or lacks proper parental care solely because said child's parent, guardian, or custodian in good faith, selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care of such child.

Subd. 3. Nature and content of report. An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise and followed as soon thereafter as possible by a report in writing, to the appropriate police authority and the county welfare agency. Such report shall contain the names and addresses of the child and his parents or other persons responsible for his care, if known, the child's age, the nature and extent of the child's injuries, including any evidence of previous injuries, and any other information helpful in establishing the cause of the injuries and the identity of the perpetrator.

Subd. 5. Immunity from liability. Anyone participating in good faith in the making of a report pursuant to this section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. Any such participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report.

Subd. 6. Evidence not privileged. Neither the physician-patient privilege nor the husband-wife privilege shall be a ground for excluding evidence regarding a child's injuries or the cause thereof, in any judicial proceeding concerning a physical injury to a minor which appears to have been caused as a result of physical abuse or neglect.

Subd. 7. Penalty for violation. Anyone knowingly and willingly violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 7. Retaliation prohibited.
