

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

CHILD LABOR 181A.07

[For text of subd 5, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 6. Any contractor, subcontractor or agent thereof who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned not more than 90 days or both. Each day that any such violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

Whoever induces any individual who seeks to be or is employed on any project subject to this section to give up or forego any part of the wages to which he is entitled under the contract governing such project by threat not to employ, by threat of dismissal from such employment or by any other means may be fined not exceeding $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year or both.

Any person employed on a project under a contract subject to this section who knowingly permits the contractor or subcontractor to pay him less than the prevailing wage rate set forth in such contract, or who gives up any part of the compensation to which he is entitled thereunder, may be fined not exceeding $40 or imprisoned not more than 30 days or both. Each day any violation of this paragraph continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

CHAPTER 179. LABOR RELATIONS

Sec.

179.74 State and its employees; negotiations;
appropriate units.

179.74 State and its employees; negotiations; appropriate units.

[For text of subds 1 to 3, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 4. The commissioner of personnel shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representative of appropriate units in the manner prescribed by sections 179.61 to 179.77; provided, however, that the director of mediation services shall define appropriate units of state employees as all the employees under the same appointing authority except where professional, geographical or other considerations affecting employment relations clearly require appropriate units of some other composition. The positions and classes of positions in the classified service defined as managerial by the commissioner of personnel in accordance with the provisions of section 43.326 and so designated in the official state compensation schedules, shall be excluded from any appropriate unit. Regardless of unit determination, the governor may upon the unanimous written request of exclusive representatives of units and appointing authorities direct that negotiations be conducted for one or more appointing authorities in a common proceeding.
