21.54 SEEDS

CHAPTER 21. SEEDS

Sec.
21.54 Corn, growing zones.

21.54 Corn, growing zones.

[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 2. Field corn varieties; registration fee. A record of each hybrid seed field corn grain variety to be sold in Minnesota shall be registered by February 1 of each year by the originator or owner thereof with the commissioner. The annual fee for such registration shall be $12.50 per variety. The record shall include the permanent designation of the hybrid as well as the day classification and zone of adaptation, as determined under subdivision 1, which the originator or owner declares to be the zone in which said variety is adapted. In addition, at the time of the first registration of a hybrid seed field corn grain variety, the originator or owner shall include a sworn statement that his declaration as to the zone of adaptation was based on actual field trials in said zone and that such field trials substantiate his declaration as to the day and zone classifications to which the variety is adapted. The number or name used to designate any hybrid seed field corn grain variety in the registration thereof shall be the only variety name of all seed corn covered by or sold under such registration.

[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 2. Fee. Each application for registration shall be accompanied by a registration fee of $10 for each product registered by any one firm. But in cases where the registration fees have been paid by the manufacturer, jobber, or any person, as required by this section, then in that event nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to retail dealers selling economic poisons or devices. All such registration fees collected by the commissioner shall be paid into the state treasury and be credited to the general fund.

[For text of subd 3, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 4. Fee. Each application for a restricted use pesticide dealer license shall be accompanied by a fee of $35. All such license fees collected shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.
