

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

ATTORNEY GENERAL 8.14

(6) One copy each to the state institutions not hereinbefore mentioned, the elective state officials, the appointed heads of departments, the officers and employees of the legislature, the justices of the supreme court, the judges of the district court, the senators and representatives in Congress from this state, and the county auditors;

(7) One copy to each public school, to be distributed through the superintendent of each school district; and

(8) The remainder may be disposed of as the secretary of state deems best, and at a price the secretary of state shall establish. All receipts from the sale of the legislative manual shall be deposited to the general fund.

[1975 c 204 s 65]

5.21 Notice of rule hearings lists.

The secretary of state shall maintain lists of persons and associations who, pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 4, register their names for the purpose of receiving a notice of a rule hearing. A separate list shall be kept for each agency and shall be supplied upon request to the appropriate agency. Once each year the secretary of state shall inquire as to whether those persons and associations on the lists wish to maintain their names thereon and shall remove names for which there is a negative reply or no reply within 60 days.

CHAPTER 8. ATTORNEY GENERAL

Sec.
8.02 Deputies, assistants.

Sec.
8.14 Actions challenging state expenditures; intervention. [New]

8.02 Deputies, assistants.

The attorney general may appoint, and at his pleasure remove, three deputy attorneys general and 12 assistant attorneys general, who shall render such aid as he may require of them in the discharge of his official duty. He shall keep a record of his official correspondence and of all matters placed in his hands by the governor, auditor, commissioner of finance, secretary of state, or treasurer, or any officer or board in charge of any of the business of the state upon which any official action is necessary; he shall also keep a record of all legal proceedings instituted by him or in which he appears, and of the several steps taken therein. All official opinions shall be in writing and copies thereof made and filed in his office. The deputy attorneys general and each of such assistants shall, to the extent authorized in writing by the attorney general, have authority to appear before grand juries or in any court of this state, as the attorney general himself might do.

The attorney general shall have power to employ such assistance, whether lay, legal, or expert, as he may deem necessary for the protection of the interests of the state through the proper conduct of its legal business.

8.14 Actions challenging state expenditures; intervention.

In any action in which the state of Minnesota or any of its officers is a party and the amount of state expenditures for a particular purpose is challenged on the ground that the expenditure is insufficient to enable the state or any of its agencies to comply with the alleged requirements of the constitution of the United States or of federal law, the attorney general shall petition on behalf of and provide representation for (1) an individual taxpayer, who as an authorized representative of a particular class of recipients or

9.051 [Repealed, 1975 c 106 s 7]

9.061 Additional powers; emergencies.

Subdivision 1. The executive council may:

(a) take such measures as are necessary to prevent an impending disaster that threatens to destroy life or property;

(b) grant relief to communities stricken by disease, fire, action of the elements, or extreme economic distress;

(c) prevent the occurrence or spread of any disaster; and

(d) grant relief to individuals or families adversely affected by a major disaster in conformance with federal disaster relief laws and regulations. Any grants made shall be refunded to the state if the financial assistance needed is received from any other source.

In these emergencies, the executive council may, when necessary, commandeer and use any property, vehicle, means of transportation, means of communication, or public service. The owner of any property taken shall be given a receipt for the property and be paid for its use and for any damages inflicted upon the property while in the service of the executive council.
