

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1977 SUPPLEMENT

STATUTORY CITIES 412.231

403.10 Cooperative agreements.

Subdivision 1. In counties implementing 911 systems pursuant to sections 403.01 to 403.08, all public agencies and counties which are part of different 911 systems but share common boundary lines may enter into cooperative agreements which shall provide that once an emergency unit is dispatched in response to a request through the system, the unit shall render its services to the requesting party without regard to jurisdictional boundaries.

Subd. 2. Public safety agencies with jurisdictional responsibilities shall in all cases be notified by the public safety answering point of a request for service in their jurisdiction.

Subd. 3. Counties, public agencies, operating public safety answering points, and other local governmental units may enter into cooperative agreements under section 471.59 for the allocation of operational and capital costs attributable to the 911 system.

[1977 c 311 s 10]

403.11 Local recurring costs.

Recurring costs of telephone communications equipment and services at public safety answering points shall be borne by the local governmental unit operating the public safety answering point or allocated pursuant to section 403.10, subdivision 3. Costs attributable to local government electives for services beyond minimum 911 service shall be borne by the governmental unit requesting the elective service.

[1977 c 311 s 11]

403.12 Report to legislature.

Subdivision 1. By January 1 of each year, the department of administration shall report to the legislature the progress that has been made in the implementation of sections 403.01 to 403.12. There is also created a commission to study and consider alternates for continuing financing of the statewide 911 telephone emergency system.

Subd. 2. The commission shall consist of two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker, two members of the senate appointed by the subcommittee on committees and three persons appointed by the governor. Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing power.

Subd. 3. The commission may act from the time its members are appointed until the commencement of the 1978 session of the legislature. It shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature not later than November 15, 1977, but may supplement them until January 15, 1978.
