[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1978]

Subd. 2. The lessor shall give the tenant at least 60 days notice in writing of any change in the terms and conditions of a lease or rental agreement. A rule or regulation adopted or amended after the tenant enters into a lease or rental agreement may be enforced against the tenant only if the new or amended rule is reasonable and does not substantially modify the agreement. A reasonable rent increase or a modification of the lease or rental agreement resulting from governmental action shall not be construed as a substantial modification of the lease or rental agreement.

Subd. 3. Entry into an agreement pursuant to this section shall not be deemed a waiver of any rights or privileges guaranteed by law to the mobile home park owner or tenant.

Subd. 4. The following notice printed verbatim in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points shall be provided to prospective tenants before they sign leases or rental agreements:

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Your lease or rental agreement will set forth your rights and duties as well as the rights and duties of this mobile home park.

You may stay in the park for the term of your lease as long as it is in operation and you meet your financial obligations, obey state and local laws regarding mobile home parks, abide by park rules or regulations, meet any other obligations in the agreement and do not substantially annoy or endanger other tenants or substantially damage the park premises.

You cannot be evicted until you have received written notice for the eviction and have been given

(a) the time the ordinance, law or regulation provides to comply with a local ordinance, state law or regulation relating to mobile homes or a reasonable time if the ordinance, law or regulation provides no time, or

(b) 30 days to comply with the terms and conditions of the lease or rental agreement, except for nonpayment of rent.

If you have substantially annoyed or endangered other tenants or have caused substantial damage to the mobile home park premises, you will have 30 days after receipt of written notice to move out of the park. However, if during the 30 day period you substantially annoy or endanger other tenants or damage the park premises, you may be evicted immediately.

If you have been served with an eviction notice and you refuse to vacate the mobile home park, the park owner may commence a legal proceeding against you. If the judge or jury decides in your favor, you may stay within the park. However, if the judge or jury decides in favor of the park owner, a sheriff may move you and your belongings out of the park within 24 hours.

The mobile home park must give you 60 days written notice of any change in the terms or conditions of the agreement.

Rules or regulations of the park must not be unreasonable.

Changes made in rules or regulations after you enter into this agreement will not apply to you if they substantially change your agreement.

The mobile home park may not charge you more for utilities than the rate which is charged to single-family dwellings in the same utility service area for comparable service or more than the rate which you could pay directly for the same utility service from some other comparable source in the same market area.

The park may charge you no fee for a space or lot except rent plus reasonable charges for goods and services furnished you at the expense of the park in setting up your home on the space or lot.

Security deposits for damage to property or for default in the agreement may not exceed two months' rent.

If you decide to sell your mobile home and it is more than 15 years old, the park owner may insist that the home be moved from the park after its sale.

You may not be evicted or have your rent increased or your services decreased for reporting to the Minnesota department of health, the Minnesota attorney general or other appropriate governmental agency any violation of law or health or building code.

You must receive written notice six months in advance if the park voluntarily ceases or partially ceases operation or 90 days' written notice if your home must be moved to enable the park owner to make improvements to the park premises.

State laws governing mobile home park rentals and leases may be enforced by the Minnesota attorney general."

Park owners also shall provide the notice to persons who are park tenants on May 30, 1979.

327.43 Entrance and transfer fees prohibited; security deposits limited.

[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1978]

Subd. 2. No lessor shall deny any mobile home park tenant the right to sell said tenant's mobile home within the park or require the tenant to remove the mobile home from the park solely on the basis of the sale thereof unless the home is more than 15 years old. The lessor may reserve the right to approve the purchaser of said mobile home as a tenant, but such permission may not be unreasonably withheld, and the lessor shall not exact a commission or fee with respect to the price realized by the seller unless the lessor has acted as agent for the seller in the sale pursuant to a written contract.

[For text of subd 3, see M.S.1978]
