

CHAPTER 543

SUMMONS, CERTAIN CORPORATIONS;
NONRESIDENT JURISDICTION

543.20 Personal jurisdiction in support enforcement cases and paternity suits.

543.20 PERSONAL JURISDICTION IN SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT CASES AND PATERNITY SUITS.

Subdivision 1. Service. In addition to the methods of service of process provided in the rules of civil procedure, service of a summons, an order to show cause, or an order or judgment within this state may also be made upon an individual by delivering a copy to him or her personally at his or her place of employment or at a post-secondary education institution in which he or she is enrolled. The employer shall make the individual available for the purpose of delivering a copy. The post-secondary education institution must make the individual's class schedule available to the process server or make the individual available for the purpose of delivering a copy. No employer or post-secondary education institution shall deny a process server admittance to the employer's or post-secondary education institution's premises for the purpose of making service under this section.

No service shall be allowed under this section unless such service is made personally on the individual.

Subd. 2. Applicability. Service of an employee at a place of employment or of a student at a post-secondary education institution applies only to: (a) summons in an action for dissolution, annulment, legal separation, or under the parentage act and under section 256.87; (b) orders to show cause under both section 256.87 and the revised uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act as well as for contempt of court for failure to pay child support; (c) petitions under the Domestic Abuse Act; and (d) motions, orders and judgments for the payment of child support when the court orders personal service.

Subd. 3. Retaliation prohibited. An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee, nor shall a post-secondary education institution dismiss or discipline a student as a result of service under this section.

Subd. 4. Definition. For purposes of this section, "post-secondary education institution" means any state university, community college, area vocational technical institution, private college, private post-secondary school, or the University of Minnesota.
