631.425 RELEASING OFFENDERS FOR EMPLOYMENT AT THEIR CUSTOMARY WORK.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

- (b) "Court" means a court having criminal jurisdiction.
- (c) "Sheriff" includes a chief of police and workhouse superintendent.
- (d) "Jail" includes a county jail, workhouse, and lockup.

Subd. 2. Discretion of court. A convicted person at the time of sentencing to jail, or at any time before commitment, may in the discretion of the sentencing court be committed under this section. The court shall cite this section in the sentence if a person is committed under this section.

Subd. 3. Continuation of employment. If the person committed under this section has been regularly employed, the sheriff shall arrange for a continuation of the employment insofar as possible without interruption. If the person is not employed, the sheriff or any suitable person or agency designated by the court shall make every effort to secure some suitable employment for that person. An inmate employed under this section must be paid a fair and reasonable wage for work performed and must work at fair and reasonable hours per day and per week.

Subd. 4. Confinement when not employed. Unless the court otherwise directs, each inmate must be confined in jail during the time the inmate is not employed, or, if the inmate is employed, between the times of employment.

Subd. 5. Earnings. The earnings of an inmate may be collected by the sheriff, probation department, welfare board or suitable person or agency designated by the court. From the earnings, the person or agency designated to collect them may pay:

Subd. 7. Violation of sentence; procedure. If the inmate violates a condition of work release relating to conduct, custody or employment, the inmate must be returned to the court. The court then (1) may require that the balance of the inmate's sentence be spent in actual confinement, (2) may cancel any earned reduction of the inmate's term, and (3) may find the inmate in contempt of court.

Subd. 8. Sheriff; extra compensation. The county board or local governing board shall determine how much extra compensation and mileage the sheriff is entitled to under this section.

Subd. 9. Employment in another county. The court may by order authorize the sheriff to whom the inmate is committed to arrange with another sheriff for the employment of the inmate in the other sheriff's jurisdiction. When the inmate is employed in the other jurisdiction, the inmate is in the custody of that jurisdiction's sheriff, but in other respects is subject to the commitment.

Subd. 10. County welfare board; duties. A committing court or sheriff may request the county welfare board or any other welfare agency, public or private, to provide appropriate services to an inmate or the inmate's family.
