

CHAPTER 546

TRIALS

546.13 Sickness of juror; food and lodging.

546.44 Qualified interpreter.

546.13 SICKNESS OF JUROR; FOOD AND LODGING.

If a juror becomes sick or otherwise unable to perform duty, the court may discharge the juror. In that case, unless the parties consent to accept the verdict of the remaining jurors, another may be sworn in place of the discharged juror and the trial begun anew, or the jury may be discharged and another then or afterward impaneled. If the court, while a jury is kept together, shall order that they be provided with food and lodging, the sheriff shall furnish the same at the expense of the state courts.

History: 1999 c 216 art 7 s 36

NOTE: Laws 1999, chapter 216, article 7, section 46, subdivision 2, provides a specific effective date for the state takeover of miscellaneous jury costs under this section, as amended by Laws 1999, chapter 216, article 7, section 36.

546.44 QUALIFIED INTERPRETER.
