

299G.11 DOOR OR SIDELIGHT OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

If doors or side lights of a public building, whether privately or publicly owned, are constructed with clear glass, markings shall be placed on such clear glass or the clear glass shall be manufactured with markings. Sidelights are defined as the clear glass panels not less than 15 inches wide immediately adjacent to the door.

History: 1967 c 174 s 1