

216.27 FILING APPEAL PAPERS; EFFECT.

When an appeal is taken, the commission shall file with the clerk of the appellate courts the documents described by the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure. The Court of Appeals shall have full jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter appealed. The proceeding shall be governed by the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure. If the order of the commission is reversed, upon filing a copy of the order of reversal with the commission, it shall proceed to determine the reasonableness of the rates, fares, charges, and classification on the merits.

History: (4653) RL s 1974; 1971 c 25 s 67; 1980 c 614 s 123; 1983 c 247 s 94