

480.236 SOFTWARE SALES.

The Supreme Court may sell or license self-developed or vendor custom-developed computer software products or systems through whatever sales method the Supreme Court, in its discretion, deems appropriate, in order to offset its software development costs. Prices for the software products or systems may be based on market considerations. Proceeds of the sale or licensing of software products or systems by the Supreme Court must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.
