(c) The amount of any disability benefit shall be increased annually by the same percentage that the salary of the position which the disabled person held at the time of the disability has increased over the previous 12-month period for former members of the Columbia Heights Police Relief Association.

(d) The amount of any disability benefit shall be increased annually by the amount of any positive difference between the disability benefit payable for the month before the effective date of a postretirement increase and the amount equal to 50 percent of the salary of a first class patrol officer on the effective date of a postretirement increase for former members of the Albert Lea Police Relief Association.

Subd. 4. Surviving spouse benefit. (a) Except as specified in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d), any surviving spouse benefit payable on behalf of a deceased former member of a consolidating relief association shall be increased annually by the same percentage or amount that a service pension is to be increased as provided in subdivision 1.

(b) The amount of any surviving spouse benefit shall not be subject to any annual postretirement adjustment for former members of the following consolidating relief associations:

- (1) Buhl Police Relief Association;
- (2) Chisholm Firefighters Relief Association;

- (3) Chisholm Police Relief Association;
- (4) Crookston Fire Department Relief Association;
- (5) Crookston Police Relief Association;
- (6) Faribault Police Benefit Association;
- (7) Hibbing Firefighters Relief Association;
- (8) Hibbing Police Relief Association; and
- (9) Mankato Police Benefit Association.

(c) The amount of any surviving spouse benefit shall be increased annually by the percentage that the salary base has increased over the previous 12-month period for former members of the West St. Paul Police Relief Association.

(d) The amount of any surviving spouse benefit shall be increased annually by the amount of any positive difference between the surviving spouse benefit payable for the month before the effective date of a postretirement increase and the amount equal to 30 percent of the salary of a first class patrol officer on the effective date of a postretirement increase for former members of the Albert Lea Police Relief Association.

Subd. 5. Surviving child benefit. (a) Except as specified in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d), any surviving child benefit payable on behalf of a former member of a consolidating relief association shall be increased annually by the same percentage or amount that a service pension is to be increased as provided in subdivision 1.

(b) The amount of any surviving child benefit shall not be subject to any annual postretirement adjustment for former members of the following consolidating relief associations:

- (1) Anoka Police Relief Association;
- (2) Austin Firefighters Relief Association;
- (3) Austin Police Relief Association;
- (4) Buhl Police Relief Association;
- (5) Chisholm Firefighters Relief Association;
- (6) Chisholm Police Relief Association;
- (7) Columbia Heights Police Relief Association;
- (8) Crookston Fire Department Relief Association;
- (9) Crookston Police Relief Association;

(16) Virginia Fire Department Relief Association;

(17) Virginia Police Relief Association; and

(18) West St. Paul Police Relief Association.

(c) The amount of any surviving child benefit shall be subject to an annual postretirement adjustment only if no surviving spouse benefit is also payable and the annual adjustment shall be the same percentage or amount that a service pension is to be increased as provided in subdivision 1 for former members of the New Ulm Police Relief Association.

(d) The amount of any surviving child benefit shall be increased annually by the amount of any positive difference between the surviving child benefit payable for the month before the effective date of a postretirement increase and the amount equal to ten percent of the salary of a first class patrol officer on the effective date of a postretirement increase for former members of the Albert Lea Police Relief Association.

Subd. 6. Family maximum benefit. (a) Except as specified in paragraph (b), any family maximum benefit payable on behalf of a former member of a consolidating relief association shall be increased as provided for its component surviving spouse or surviving child benefits.

(b) The amount of any family maximum benefit shall be increased annually by the amount of any positive difference between the family maximum benefit payable for the month before the effective date of a postretirement increase and the amount equal to 50 percent of the salary of a first class patrol officer on the effective date of a postretirement increase for former members of the Albert Lea Police Relief Association.

Subd. 7. Effective date for postretirement increases. Any postretirement increases as provided in this section shall occur once per calendar year. If the postretirement increase is based on the increase in a base salary amount, the postretirement increase shall be payable as of the first of the month next following the effective date of the triggering salary increase. If more than one salary increase occurs in a calendar year, only one postretirement increase shall take effect in that calendar year and the next succeeding postretirement increase shall take into account any additional salary increases which occurred since the immediately previous postretirement increase and shall occur on the date occurring 12 months after the date of the immediately previous postretirement increase or the first of the month next following the effective date of any triggering salary increase in that calendar year, whichever occurs first. If the increase in the base salary amount upon which the postretirement increase is based includes retroactive payments to an earlier date, the applicable postretirement increase may also be payable retroactive to that date. If the postretirement increase is based on the Consumer Price Index or is a set annual percentage amount, the postretirement increase shall be payable as of the first day of February.
