- (2) collect or hold an applicant screening fee without giving the applicant a written receipt for the fee, which may be incorporated into the application form, upon request of the applicant; or
- (3) use, cash, or deposit an applicant screening fee until all prior applicants have either been screened and rejected, or offered the unit and declined to enter into a rental agreement.
- Subd. 2. Return of applicant screening fee. (a) The landlord must return the applicant screening fee if:
- (1) the applicant is rejected for any reason not listed in the disclosure required under subdivision 3; or
 - (2) a prior applicant is offered the unit and agrees to enter into a rental agreement.
- (b) If the landlord does not perform a personal reference check or does not obtain a consumer credit report or tenant screening report, the landlord must return any amount of the applicant screening fee that is not used for those purposes.
- (c) The applicant screening fee may be returned by mail, may be destroyed upon the applicant's request if paid by check, or may be made available for the applicant to retrieve.
- Subd. 3. Disclosures to applicant. If a landlord accepts an applicant screening fee from a prospective tenant, the landlord must:
 - (1) disclose in writing prior to accepting the applicant screening fee:
- (i) the name, address, and telephone number of the tenant screening service the landlord will use, unless the landlord does not use a tenant screening service; and
 - (ii) the criteria on which the decision to rent to the prospective tenant will be based; and
- (2) notify the applicant within 14 days of rejecting a rental application, identifying the criteria the applicant failed to meet.
- Subd. 4. Remedies. (a) In addition to any other remedies, a landlord who violates this section is liable to the applicant for the applicant screening fee plus a civil penalty of up to $100, civil court filing costs, and reasonable attorney fees incurred to enforce this remedy.
- (b) A prospective tenant who provides materially false information on the application or omits material information requested is liable to the landlord for damages, plus a civil penalty of up to $500, civil court filing costs, and reasonable attorney fees.
