

645.17 PRESUMPTIONS IN ASCERTAINING LEGISLATIVE INTENT.

In ascertaining the intention of the legislature the courts may be guided by the following presumptions:

- (1) the legislature does not intend a result that is absurd, impossible of execution, or unreasonable;
- (2) the legislature intends the entire statute to be effective and certain;
- (3) the legislature does not intend to violate the Constitution of the United States or of this state;
- (4) when a court of last resort has construed the language of a law, the legislature in subsequent laws on the same subject matter intends the same construction to be placed upon such language; and
- (5) the legislature intends to favor the public interest as against any private interest.
