

123B.24 LEGAL ACTIONS BY DISTRICTS.

Any board may prosecute actions in the name of the district in the following cases:

- (1) On a contract made with the district, or with the board in its official capacity;
- (2) To enforce a liability, or a duty enjoined by law, in its favor or in favor of the district;
- (3) To recover a penalty or forfeiture given by law to it or to the district; or
- (4) To recover damages for an injury to the rights or property of the district.

History: Ex1959 c 71 art 8 s 2; 1998 c 397 art 6 s 120,124