

92.31 STATE MAY EXCHANGE LAND.

The Executive Council may exchange lands acquired by the state by purchase, as set forth in section 92.30, for lands of the United States of the same general character and of substantially the same value that in its judgment will promote the best interests of the state. The council may set the terms of the sale. It may accept or pay out of any available funds any cash differences needed to effect an equitable exchange of lands. The Executive Council may have any lands acquired under this section appraised by competent authority.

History: (6302-2) 1929 c 246 s 2; 1985 c 265 art 3 s 1