The corporation shall have the authority to establish all personnel policies and practices, negotiate applicable labor agreements, and set all levels of compensation and benefits which are considered appropriate by the board except as limited in this section. The human resources system is subject to the following human resources requirements:

(1) determine compensation according to the pay equity requirements under sections 471.991 to 471.999;

Subd. 2. Employee transfer. All persons employed by the county whose employment is accounted for in the county enterprise fund for HCMC, on the effective date, shall be transferred to the corporation as specified in the lease and other transactional documents referenced in section 383B.913. The transfer of employees to the corporation under this subdivision does not constitute severance or termination of employment or a layoff entitling transferred employees to severance pay, termination benefits, a retirement plan refund, or any other right that may be applicable in the case of severance, termination, or layoff.

Subd. 3. Current positions. Each person employed by the county who is transferred to the corporation on the effective date shall retain employment and accrued benefits, including participation in deferred compensation programs, and will be recorded by most recent date of employment with Hennepin County upon transfer to the corporation created in section 383B.901.

Subd. 4. Bargaining units. The corporation shall recognize existing bargaining units organized by employees of HCMC and the exclusive representatives of those bargaining units as of the effective date. The corporation shall adopt all current labor agreements as of the effective date for the term of those agreements, except for countywide references, countywide provisions, and countywide human resources rules.

Subd. 5. General employee retirement benefits. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), employees of the corporation, other than paramedics, emergency medical technicians and the supervisors and managers of such employees, and protection officers and supervisors of such employees, are "public employees" under chapter 353 and are members of the general employees retirement plan of the Public Employees Retirement Association, including employees transferred to the corporation under subdivision 2 and employees hired by the corporation after the effective date.

(b) Notwithstanding sections 356.24 and 356.25, the corporation has the authority to create alternative retirement plans that are not defined benefit pension plans for the following classes of employees: supervisors, managers, physicians, and independent health practitioners who bill independently for their time, provided the value of the aggregate benefits are substantially comparable to the general employee retirement plan of the Public Employees Retirement Association. These classes of employees are eligible to participate in the general retirement plan of the Public Employees Retirement Association until and unless the corporation creates alternative retirement plans. Only those employees who are within the designated class and who are hired after the date of creation of the alternative plan may be enrolled in the alternative retirement plan in lieu of participation in the general employees retirement plan of the Public Employees Retirement Association. Any alternative retirement benefit plan established by the corporation must comply with the financial reporting requirements for public pension plans under section 356.20 and the investment performance reporting requirements for public pension plans under section 356.219.
