Effective January 1, 2003, no fewer than five of the certified public accountants must be owners or employees of a CPA firm that holds a current permit and provides professional services at the time of appointment and reappointment. No fewer than two board members, who may be any of the seven certified public accountants, at the time of appointment and reappointment must be owners or employees of a CPA firm that:

- (1) holds a current permit;

- (3) consists of ten or fewer certified public accountants.

The board, its members, and its agents are immune from personal liability for actions taken in good faith in the discharge of the board's responsibilities, and the state shall hold the board, its members, and its agents harmless from all costs, damages, and attorneys fees arising from claims and suits against them with respect to matters to which such immunity applies.
