524.5-426 DELEGATION.

- (a) A conservator may not delegate to an agent or another conservator the entire administration of the estate, but a conservator may otherwise delegate the performance of functions that a prudent person of comparable skills may delegate under similar circumstances.
 - (b) The conservator shall exercise reasonable care, skill, and caution in:
 - (1) selecting an agent;
- (2) establishing the scope and terms of a delegation, consistent with the purposes and terms of the conservatorship;
- (3) periodically reviewing an agent's overall performance and compliance with the terms of the delegation; and
- (4) redressing an action or decision of an agent which would constitute a breach of fiduciary duty if performed by the conservator.
- (c) A conservator who complies with paragraphs (a) and (b) is not liable to the protected person or to the estate for the decisions or actions of the agent to whom a function was delegated.
- (d) In performing a delegated function, an agent shall exercise reasonable care to comply with the terms of the delegation.
- (e) By accepting a delegation from a conservator subject to the laws of this state, an agent submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state.
