LEGAL INFORMATION
LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES
A summary of the Minnesota law governing limited liability companies, with an emphasis on the provisions related to filing and recording with the Secretary of State, including definitions and specific sections for various types of businesses and entities. For instance, the document highlights sections related to insurance companies, hospital districts, home rule charters, governors, gifts of lands to the state, gas companies, foreign limited partnerships, and electronic filing, among others. It also includes references to relevant sections of the Minnesota Statutes, such as those related to laws of Minnesota, legislative redistricting, and judicial proceedings.
