

609.025 JURISDICTION OF STATE.

A person may be convicted and sentenced under the law of this state if the person:

- (1) commits an offense in whole or in part within this state; or
- (2) being without the state, causes, aids or abets another to commit a crime within the state; or
- (3) being without the state, intentionally causes a result within the state prohibited by the criminal laws of this state.

It is not a defense that the defendant's conduct is also a criminal offense under the laws of another state or of the United States or of another country.
