518A.37 WRITTEN FINDINGS.

Subdivision 1. No deviation. If the court does not deviate from the presumptive child support obligation computed under section 518A.34, the court must make written findings that state:

- (1) each parent's gross income;
- (2) each parent's PICS; and
- (3) any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the child support determination.
- Subd. 2. Deviation. If the court deviates from the presumptive child support obligation computed under section 518A.34, the court must make written findings that state:
 - (1) each parent's gross income;
 - (2) each parent's PICS;
 - (3) the amount of the child support obligation computed under section 518A.34;
 - (4) the reasons for the deviation; and
 - (5) how the deviation serves the best interests of the child.
- Subd. 3. Written findings required in every case. The provisions of this section apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court must review stipulations presented to it for conformity with section 518A.34. The court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties must provide sufficient documentation to verify the child support determination and to justify any deviation.
