

609.508 FALSE INFORMATION TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.

A person is guilty of a misdemeanor if the person informs a financial institution, orally or in writing, that one or more of the person's blank checks or debit cards have been lost or stolen, knowing or having reason to know that the information is false.

History: 2000 c 354 s 2