16E.16 MODIFICATION OF OPERATING AND MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES.

When improved program effectiveness, better use of services, and greater efficiency and economy in state government can be demonstrated, the chief information officer with the approval of the governor may require a state agency to adjust its operating and management procedures to take advantage of improved systems, procedures, and methods resulting from systems analysis and information science technology.

History: 1984 c 544 s 49; 2005 c 156 art 5 s 23