62A.023 NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE.

A health insurer or service plan corporation must send written notice to its policyholders and contract holders at their last known address at least 30 days in advance of the effective date of a proposed rate change. This notice requirement does not apply to individual certificate holders covered by group insurance policies or group subscriber contracts.

History: 1995 c 258 s 21