72A.493 OBTAINING INFORMATION BY IMPROPER MEANS.

An insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization must not obtain information or authorize another person to obtain information in connection with an insurance transaction by:

(1) pretending to be someone else;

(2) pretending to represent a person;

(3) misrepresenting the true purpose of the interview; or

(4) refusing to provide identification upon request.

History: 1986 c 444; 1989 c 316 s 5