86B.525 DEVICE FOR ARRESTING BACKFIRE.

A motor other than a detachable outboard motor may not be used on a watercraft unless each carburetor is fitted with a device for arresting or safely deflecting backfire which is approved or prescribed by the United States Coast Guard. The devices must be maintained in serviceable condition.

History: 1990 c 391 art 9 s 31