181.15 WHEN EMPLOYEE NOT ENTITLED TO BENEFITS.

No such servant or employee who hides or stays away to avoid receiving payment, or refuses to receive the same when fully tendered, shall be entitled to any benefit under sections 181.13 to 181.171 for such time as so avoiding payment; provided, when any number of employees enter upon a strike the wages due such striking employees at the time of entering upon such strike shall not become due until the next regular payday after the commencement of such strike.

History: (4129) 1919 c 175 s 3; 1986 c 444; 1997 c 7 art 1 s 86