216.13 COMMENCING PROCEEDINGS BEFORE COMMISSION.

Proceedings before the commission against any such carrier or public warehouse operator shall be instituted by complaint, verified as a pleading in a civil action, stating in ordinary language the facts constituting the alleged omission or offense. The parties to such proceedings shall be termed, respectively, "complainant" and "respondent."

History: (4638) RL s 1963; 1971 c 25 s 67; 1980 c 614 s 123; 1986 c 444