338.01 EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS; FINDINGS.

The legislature finds that a basic tenet of contract law is mutually enforceable promises. The legislature further finds that contracts respecting employment are important and desirable. The legislature's purpose in enacting sections 338.02 and 338.03 is to assist in ensuring that the mutual promises in employment contracts are honored and enforced.

History: 1990 c 539 s 2