414.08 CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE MAY APPEAL FROM DISTRICT COURT.

An appeal may be taken under the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure by the chief administrative law judge from a final order or judgment made or rendered by the district court when the chief administrative law judge determines that the final order or judgment adversely affects the public interest.

History: 1965 c 834 s 1; 1975 c 271 s 6; 1976 c 239 s 43; 1983 c 247 s 151; 2002 c 223 s 24; 2008 c 196 art 2 s 15