469.133 RELOCATION.

Unless they desire otherwise, provision must be made for relocation of all persons who would be displaced by a proposed development district prior to displacement in accordance with the provisions of sections 117.50 to 117.56. Prior to undertaking any relocation of displaced persons, the governing body of a city shall ensure that housing and other facilities of at least comparable quality be made available to the persons to be displaced.

History: 1987 c 291 s 134