565.27 SUFFICIENCY OF SURETY.

A person asserting a claim to property seized by order of the court may by motion challenge the sufficiency of the surety for the bond filed with the court. If the court finds the surety insufficient, it may grant a reasonable time for the filing of another bond.

History: 1979 c 18 s 7