609.83 FALSELY IMPERSONATING ANOTHER.

Whoever does either of the following may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both:

(1) assumes to enter into a marriage relationship with another by falsely impersonating a third person; or

(2) by falsely impersonating another with intent to defraud the other or a third person, appears, participates, or executes an instrument to be used in a judicial proceeding.

History: 1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.83; 1984 c 628 art 3 s 11; 1986 c 444