5510. When to take effect—Every act of the legislature which does not expressly declare when it shall take effect shall be in force from and after its approval by the governor; or, if the governor shall refuse or neglect to approve the same, then from and after it shall become operative, without his signature, by virtue of the constitution. (257)

5511. Revision to operate as repeal, when—Whenever a statute, enacted after the Revised Laws become operative, by its title purports to be a revision of all laws upon a particular subject, or of a particular chapter therein specified, or whenever such statute does, in fact, cover the entire subject matter of a former law, even if such statute contains no repealing clause, or only a general clause repealing laws inconsistent therewith, it shall be construed as repealing all former laws upon the same subject, or all of the chapter referred to not specifically retained.

5512. Effect of repeal—Whenever a law is repealed which repealed a former law, the former law shall not thereby be revived, unless it is so specially provided; nor shall such repeal affect any right accrued, any duty imposed, any penalty incurred, or any proceeding commenced, under or by virtue of the law repealed.
