3292. Examinations—At least once in every two years, the commissioner of insurance shall personally, or by his deputy, actuary, examiners or other salaried employe of his office, visit each domestic insurance company, other than township mutual fire insurance companies, and carefully examine its affairs for the purpose of ascertaining its financial condition and ability to fulfill its obligations, and if it be complying with all the provisions of law. He may also make such examination at any other time that he shall have reason to believe that such company is in an unsound condition, or that it is not conducting its business according to the provisions of law. He may also personally or by his deputy, actuary, examiners or other salaried employe of his office whenever he shall deem it necessary, make an appraisal of any or all of the company's assets. The commissioner, or person making the examination by his direction, shall have free access to all books and papers of any company, and of the books and papers of any of its agents, that may relate to its business, and may summon and examine under oath of its directors, officers, agents, trustees, or other persons, in relation to its affairs and conditions. The commissioner of insurance may in like manner, whenever he deems it necessary, make an examination of the affairs or an appraisal of any or all of the assets of any insurance company admitted, or applying for admission to do business under the laws of this state.

In the case of foreign insurance companies admitted or applying for admission to do business in this state, the insurance commissioner may, in his discretion, accept the report of examination made by the commissioner of insurance or corresponding officer of the state in which such company has its home office, in lieu of making the examination of such company authorized by the laws of this state. ('11 c. 386 § 6, amended '15 c. 208 § 2) [3245]

3293. Fees for examination—When any such visitation, examination or appraisal is made by the insurance commissioner, his deputy, actuary or chief examiner, the company so examined, except township mutual fire insurance companies, and companies organized exclusively to write insurance against loss or damage by cyclone, tornado and windstorm, or any one or more of them, upon the mutual plan, shall pay a fee to the said department of insurance of $15.00 per day for each and every day necessarily occupied by such a person, and each one thereof in making said examination, or in making an appraisal of any of the assets of said company. When such visitation, examination or appraisal is made, or engaged in, by any other person regularly employed in the said department of insurance and receiving a salary from the state of Minnesota, the company so examined, except township mutual fire insurance companies and companies organized exclusively to write insurance against loss or damage by cyclone, tornado and windstorm, or any one or more of them, upon the mutual plan, shall pay as fees to the said department of insurance the sum of $10.00 per day, for each and every day necessarily occupied by such other person, and each one thereof, in making or assisting to make, the examination, or in making an appraisal of any of the assets of said company. In addition to the fees mentioned herein, the company so examined shall also pay to the department of insurance the necessary expenses of any such person or persons so engaged in connection with any such examination or appraisal. All of which fees and expenses shall be accounted for and turned into the treasury of the state of Minnesota. In case of the examination of township mutual fire insurance companies, and companies organized exclusively to write insurance against loss or damage by cyclone, tornado and windstorm, or any one or more of them upon the mutual plan, the actual expenses only thereof shall be charged. The necessary expenses of any such person or persons so engaged in connection with any such examination or appraisal shall be repaid by the state treasurer to any such person or persons so engaged in connection with said examination or appraisal upon vouchers of the same, on condition that such expenses shall have been previously charged to such company so examined and the full amount thereof by it paid into the state treasury. ('11 c. 386 § 7, amended '15 c. 208, § 3) [3246]

3294. Commissioner may appoint examiner—The commissioner of insurance may, when he shall deem it necessary, appoint any experienced and competent professional insurance actuary to personally make or conduct or assist in making or conducting an examination of any insurance company admitted, or applying for admission, to do business in this state, on condition that he, the commissioner of insurance, shall have previously filed with the secretary of state during the last immediately preceding month of January or July, as the case may be, or within thirty days from the passage of this act, a written declaration designating such person, by name and address, as a consulting actuary of the Minnesota department of insurance. And in such case, the commissioner of insurance shall fix a reasonable compensation for such examiner on a per diem basis for the actual time employed in making or conducting or assisting to make or conduct such examination, and which, including expenses of any necessary appraisal or clerical assistance, shall be charged to the company so examined. And the compensation for such examiner, appraisal or clerical assistance, together with the amount of his necessary expenses actually incurred in connection with such examination, shall, upon proper vouchers therefor, be paid to him by the state on condition that same shall have previously been charged to such company and by it paid into the state treasury.

The commissioner of insurance, when he shall deem it necessary, may appoint any competent person to make an appraisal of any or all of the assets of any such company, at a compensation of not exceeding ten dollars ($10.00) per day and necessary expenses incurred in connection therewith, which compensation and expenses shall be paid to the department of insurance by such company and by it accounted for and turned into the treasury of the state of Minnesota; and which compensation and expenses shall be repaid by the state treasurer to any person so appointed upon proper vouchers of the same on condition that such fees and expenses shall have previously been charged to such company and the full amount thereof by it paid into the state treasury. ('11 c. 386 § 8, amended '15 c. 208 § 4) [3247]

3295. Fees—In addition to the fees and charges hereinbefore provided for, there shall be paid to the commissioner of insurance, and by him accounted for and paid into the treasury of the state of Minnesota, the following fees:

1. By township mutual fire insurance companies:
 - For filing certificate of incorporation, two dollars ($2.00).
 - For filing annual statements, one dollar ($1.00).

For abstract or summary of annual statement for publication, when prepared by commissioner, ten dollars ($10.00).

5. General fees:

For each certificate, including certified copy of certificate of authority, renewal, valuation of life policies, corporate condition or qualification, one dollar ($1.00).

For each copy of paper on file in his office, twenty cents (20 cents) per folio, and one dollar ($1.00) for certifying same.

For valuing the policies of life insurance companies, one cent per one thousand of insurance so valued.

And further provided that the commissioner of insurance may in lieu of a valuation of the policies of any foreign life insurance company admitted, or applying for admission to this state, accept a certificate of valuation from such company's own actuary or from the commissioner of insurance of the state, or territory, in which such company shall be domiciled.

For receiving and filing certificates of valuation of policies by company's actuary, or by the commissioner of any other state or territory, fifty dollars ($50.00).

All fees received by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be paid by him into the state treasury.

It is further provided that when by the laws of any other state or nation any fines, penalties, licenses or fees additional to, or in excess of, those imposed by this section upon foreign insurance companies and their agents are imposed upon insurance companies of this state or their agents doing business in such state, the same fines, penalties, licenses and fees shall be imposed upon all insurance companies of such state and their agents doing business in this state, so long as such laws of such other state remain in force. ('11 c. 386 § 9) [3248]

3296. Inconsistent acts repealed—Sections 1592, 1593 and 1598, Revised Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1905, and sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, chapter 229, General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1905, and chapter 472 of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1907, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed. ('11 c. 386 § 10.) [3249]

3297. Suspension of authority—Agent—If the commissioner is of the opinion, upon examination or other evidence, that a foreign insurance company is in an unsound condition, or if a life insurance company, that its actual funds are less than its liabilities, or that it is insolvent; or if a foreign insurance company has failed to comply with the law, or if it, its officers or agents, refuse to submit to examination, or to perform any legal obligation in relation thereto, he shall revoke or suspend all certificates of authority granted to it or its agents, and shall cause notification thereof to be published in a newspaper authorized by this chapter to publish annual statements of insurance companies, and no new business shall thereafter be done by it or its agents in this state while such default or disability continues, nor until its authority to do business is restored by the commissioner: Provided, however, that unless the ground for revocation or suspension relates only to the financial condition or soundness of the company or to a deficiency in its assets, he shall notify the company not less than ten days before revoking its authority to do business in this state; and he shall specify in the notice the particulars of the supposed violation. The district court of any county, upon petition of said company, brought within the ten days aforesaid, shall summarily hear and determine the question whether such violation has been committed, and shall make any proper order or decree therein, and enforce the same by any appropriate process. If the order or decree is adverse to the petitioning company, an appeal therefrom may be taken to the supreme court; and in the case of such appeal the commissioner may issue his order revoking the right of said petitioning company to do business in this state until the final determination of the question by the supreme court aforesaid. Neither this act nor any proceedings thereunder shall affect any criminal prosecution or proceeding for the enforcement of any fine, penalty or forfeiture. If upon examination, he is of the opinion that any domestic insurance company is insolvent, or has exceeded its powers or has failed to comply with any provisions of law, or that its condition is such as to render its further proceedings hazardous to the public or to its policy-holders, he shall apply to a judge of any district court to issue an injunction restraining it in whole or in part from further proceeding with its business. Such judge may, in his discretion, issue the injunction forthwith or upon notice and hearing thereon, and after a full hearing of the matter may dissolve or modify such injunction or make it perpetual, and make all orders and decrees needful in the premises, and may appoint agents or receivers to take possession of the property and effects of the company, and to settle its affairs, subject to such rules and orders as the court may from time to time prescribe, according to the course of proceedings in equity. Service of process in such proceedings shall be sufficient if made upon any person authorized by such company to write policies or accept premiums. In case any agent shall directly or indirectly make any contract of or for insurance, for or in behalf of any company not authorized to do business in this state, save as herein otherwise expressly provided, such agent shall be personally liable thereon. (1599) [3260]

3298. Impaired capital—Whenever it appears that the capital of any company is impaired to the extent of one-fourth or more, on the basis in this chapter provided, the commissioner shall notify it to repair the same by assessment, and if, within three months after such notice, it shall not satisfy him that it has done so, or reduced it as hereinafter provided, he shall proceed against it as required in section 3260. (1600) [3261]

3299. Notice to cease business—If the actual funds of a domestic life company are not of a net cash value equal to its liabilities, including the net value of its policies computed by the rule of valuation hereinafter established, the commissioner shall notify it thereof, and thereafter neither such company nor any of its agents shall issue any new policies until he is satisfied that its funds equal its liabilities, and shall have so notified it. (1601) [3262]

3300. To report violations—Whenever, upon examination or other evidence or information, it appears to him that any company, or any officer or agent thereof, has violated any provision of this subdivision, he shall report the facts to the governor, who shall cause proper proceedings to be taken in the premises. (1602) [3263]

3301. Unsatisfied judgment—Whenever a judgment has been rendered by any court in this state against any company holding the commissioner's certificate, and an execution issued thereon has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, and a certified transcript of the docket entry and the clerk's certificate of those facts is filed with the commissioner, he shall forthwith revoke its certificate and give one week's published notice thereof. No new certificate shall issue until such judgment has been fully satisfied and proof thereof filed with him, and the expenses and fees incurred are paid. During such revocation neither such company, nor any of its officers or agents, shall issue any new policy, take any risk, or transact any business, except such as is absolutely necessary in closing up its affairs in this state. (1603) [3264]

3302. Computation of net value—The commissioner shall compute, yearly, the net value on the last day of the preceding year of all outstanding policies in every company authorized to insure lives in this state, calculated upon the basis of the American experience table of mortality, with interest at not exceeding four per cent per annum. Such net value shall be deemed its liability on account of its unaccrued policy obligations, to provide for which it shall hold funds in authorized investments, approved by the commissioner, to an amount equal to such net value above and free from all other liabilities. In computing such net value, assessment policies, or certificates of any assessment company reincorporated to transact life insurance business, shall be valued as one-year term policies. In every case in which the actual premium charged is less than the net premium computed as aforesaid, the company shall also be charged with the value of an annuity, the amount of which shall equal the difference and the term of which in years shall equal the number of future annual payments due on the insurance at the date of the valuation. (1604) [3265]

3303. Valuation in other states—The commissioner may accept the valuation made by the insurance commissioner of the state under whose authority a life company was organized, whenever such valuation has been made on sound and recognized principles and on the legal basis provided in § 3265, or its equivalent, when furnished with a certificate of such commissioner setting forth such value on the last day of the preceding year. Every such life company which fails to promptly furnish such certificate shall on demand furnish such commissioner detailed lists of all its policies and securities, and shall be liable for all charges and expenses resulting therefrom. (1605) [3266]

3304. Reserves—To determine the policy liability of any company other than life or title insurance, and the amount such company shall hold as reserve, the commissioner shall take 50 per cent of the aggregate premiums, on policies running one year or less from date of policy, and a pro rata amount on policies running more than one year from date of policy, except upon inland and marine risks, which he shall compute by charging 50 per cent of the amount of premium written in its policies upon yearly risks and upon risks covering more than one passage not terminated, and the full amount of premiums written in policies upon all other inland and marine risks not terminated. In case of any fire and marine company with less than $200,000 capital admitted to transact in this state fire business only, the full amount of premiums written in its marine and inland navigation and transportation policies shall be charged as liability.

In case of a mutual fire insurance company with a policy holders' contingent liability fixed by its by-laws and in its policies as provided by law, to determine the amount of such reinsurance reserve the commissioner shall take twenty-five (25) per cent of the aggregate premiums running one year or less from date of policy, and fifty (50) per cent of the pro rata amount on policies running more than one year from date of policy. A policy for a term of years on which the premium is payable annually shall be considered a policy for one year.

In case of a casualty insurance company writing insurance against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injuries suffered by an employe or other persons and for which the insured is liable, and under insurance against loss from liability on account of the death of or injury to an employe not caused by the negligence of an employer, he shall charge as a liability, in addition to the capital stock and all other outstanding indebtedness of the corporation:

a. The premium reserve on policies in force, equal to fifty per centum of the gross premiums charged for covering the risks, provided that the commissioner may, in his discretion, charge a premium reserve equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums charged, computed on each respective risk from the date of the issuance of the policy.

b. The reserve for outstanding losses, other than compensation and liability, at least equal to the aggregate estimated amounts due or to become due on account of all losses and claims of which the corporation has received notice, provided that such loss reserve shall also include the estimated liability on any notices received by the corporation of the occurrence of any event which may result in a loss, and the estimated liability for all losses which have occurred but on which no notice has been received. For the purpose of such reserves, the corporation shall keep a complete and itemized record showing all losses and claims on which it has received notice, including all notices received by it of the occurrence of any event which may result in a loss.

Whenever, in the judgment of the commissioner, the loss reserves, calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions, are inadequate, he may, in his discretion, require such corporation to maintain additional reserves.

c. The reserve for outstanding losses under insurance against loss or damage from accident to or injuries suffered by an employe or other person and for which the insured is liable computed as follows:

1. For all liability suits being defended under policies written more than

(a) Ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, one thousand five hundred dollars for each suit.

(b) Five and less than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, one thousand dollars for each suit.

(c) Three and less than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, eight hundred and fifty dollars for each suit.

2. For all liability policies written during the three years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, such reserve shall be sixty per centum of the earned liability premium of each of such three years less all loss and loss expense payments made under liability policies written in the corresponding years; but in any event, such reserve shall, for the first of such three years, be not less than seven hundred and fifty dollars for each outstanding liability suit on said year's policies.

3. For all compensation claims under policies written more than three years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the present values at four per centum interest of the determined and the estimated future payments.

4. For all compensation claims under policies written in the three years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, such reserve shall be sixty-five per centum of the earned compensation premiums of each of such three years, less all loss and loss expense payments made in connection with such claims under policies written in the corresponding years; but in any event in the case of the first year of any such three-year period such reserve shall be not less than the present value at four per centum interest of the determined and the estimated unpaid compensation claims under policies written during such year.

The term "earned premiums" as used herein shall include gross premiums charged on all policies written, including all determined excess and additional premiums, less return premiums, other than premiums returned to policy holders as dividends, and less reinsurance premiums and premiums on policies cancelled, and less unearned premiums on policies in force. But any participating company which has charged in its premiums a loading solely for dividends shall not be required to include such loading in its earned premiums, provided a statement of the amount of such loading has been filed and approved by the commissioner of insurance.

The term "compensation" as used in this act shall relate to all insurances effected by virtue of statutes providing compensation to employes for personal injuries irrespective of fault of the employer. The term "liability" shall relate to all insurance, except compensation insurance, against loss or damage from accident to or injuries suffered by an employe or other person and for which the insured is liable.

The term "loss payments" and "loss expense payments" as used herein shall include all payments to claimants, including payments for medical and surgical attendance, legal expense, salaries and expenses of investigators, adjustors and field men, rents, stationery, telegraph and telephone charges, postage, salaries and expenses of office employes, home office expenses, and all other payments made on account of claims, whether such payments shall be allocated to specific claims or unallocated.

All unallocated liability loss expense payments made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first four years in which an insurer has been issuing liability policies shall be distributed as follows: Thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding and five per centum to the policies written in the fourth year preceding, and such payments made in each of the first four calendar years in which an insurer issues liability policies shall be distributed as follows: In the first calendar year one hundred per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year and fifty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, and twenty per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and in the fourth calendar year thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, fifteen per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in the annual statement.

All unallocated compensation loss expense payments made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first three years in which an insurer has been issuing compensation policies shall be distributed as follows: Forty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty-five per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding and five per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and such payments made in each of the first three calendar years in which an insurer issues compensation policies shall be distributed as follows: In the first calendar year one hundred per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year and fifty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in the preceding year and ten per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in the annual statement.

Whenever, in the judgment of the commissioner of insurance the liability or compensation loss reserves of any insurer under his supervision, calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions, are inadequate, he may, in his discretion, require such insurer to maintain additional reserves based upon estimated individual claims or otherwise.

Each insurer that writes liability or compensation policies shall include in the annual statement required by law a schedule of its experience thereunder in such form as the commissioner of insurance may prescribe. Provided that this act shall not apply to farmers mutual insurance companies. ('21 c. 406 § 1)

3305. What assets admissible—In valuing the assets which compose the legal reserve of a life company, its real estate, stocks, and bonds shall be so rated that the average annual income thereof shall not be less than three per cent, and if any asset produces less it shall be rated at its value upon a three per cent basis. Loans and credits shall not be allowed for more than their face value, nor shall any asset be appraised for more than its market value. Only such assets shall be allowed as are available for payment of losses in this state; but any deposit or fund set apart as security for a particular liability may be set off to an amount not exceeding such liability. The amount of any interest bearing lien against any policy or loan thereon, not exceeding the net value or premium reserve of such policy, computed under the provisions of this chapter, may likewise be allowed against liability thereunder. Stockholders' obligations of any description shall not be rated as part of the assets of any company, unless secured by sufficient approved collateral. (1608) [3269]

3306. Valuation of bonds, etc.—All bonds or other evidences of debt having a fixed term and rate held by an insurance company or fraternal beneficiary association authorized to do business in this state may, if amply secured and not in default as to principal and interest, be valued as follows: If purchased at par, at the par value; if purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield in the meantime the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made, provided that the purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase; and, provided further, that the commissioner of insurance shall have full discretion in determining the method of calculating values according to the foregoing rule. ('19 c. 54)

3307. Dividends—No domestic company shall declare a dividend either in cash or stock, except from its actual net surplus computed as required by law in its annual statement; nor shall any such company which has ceased to do new business divide any portion of its assets, except surplus, until it shall have performed or cancelled its policy obligations. It may declare and pay, annually or semi-annually, from its surplus, cash dividends of not more than ten per cent of its capital stock in any year, and if the dividends in any one year are less than ten per cent the difference may be made up in any subsequent year or years from surplus accumulations. But it may pay such dividend as the directors deem prudent out of any surplus remaining after charging in addition to all liabilities except unearned premiums, an amount equal to the whole amount of premiums on unexpired risks and deducting from the assets all securities and accounts receivable on which no part of the principal or interest has been paid within the preceding year, or for which foreclosure or suit has been commenced, or upon which judgment obtained has remained more than two years unsatisfied and on which interest has not been paid and also deducting all liens due and unpaid on any of its property. (1639) [3317]

3332. Corporate name—Advertisements — Every company, domestic or foreign, shall conduct its business, display all signs and advertisements, and issue all policies, circulars, and other documents and publications in this state in its own corporate name, and every foreign company shall state conspicuously upon a sign at each agency the state or country of its organization. Whenever a company publishes its assets, it shall in the same connection, and with equal conspicuousness, publish its liabilities, computed on the basis allowed for its annual statements; and any publication purporting to show its capital shall state only the amount thereof which has been actually paid in cash. (1614) [3290]

3333. Real estate—The real estate acquired or held by any domestic company for the convenience and accommodation of its business shall not exceed in value twenty-five per cent of its cash assets; nor shall any foreign company acquire or hold for like purposes real property in this state in greater proportion. All other real estate shall be disposed of within five years after title thereto is acquired, unless the company obtains a certificate from the commissioner that its interests will be materially prejudiced by such sale, and extending the time to a date named, and then within the time so specified. (1615) [3291]

3334. Policy to embrace conditions—A statement in full of the conditions of insurance shall be incorporated in or attached to every policy, and neither the application of the insured nor the by-laws of the company shall be considered as a warranty or a part of the contract, except in so far as they are so incorporated or attached. (1616) [3292]

(77-31, 79+588; 92-234, 99+892). (164+921, 164+919, 138-240.)

Not applicable to policies of fraternal beneficiary associations (107-12, 119+425); (99-190, 108+871); 105-479, 117+785).

3335. Reinsurance—If any company other than life shall, directly or indirectly, effect the reinsurance of any risk taken by it, or any part thereof, it shall make a sworn report thereof to the commissioner, at the time of filing its annual statement, or at such other time as he may request.

No fire company shall insure or reinsure in a single risk a larger sum than one-tenth of its net assets.

Every company effecting any reinsurance in violation of the foregoing provision, and every agent effecting or negotiating the same, shall severally be guilty of a misdemeanor. (R. L. § 1617, amended '07 c. 321 § 1) [3293]

3336. Consolidation or reinsurance—No company organized under the laws of this state to do the business of life, accident or health insurance, either on the stock, mutual, stipulated premium, assessment or fraternal plan, shall consolidate with any other company, or reinsure its risks, or any part thereof with any other company, or reinsure its risks, or the whole of, or any portion of the risks of any other company except as hereinafter provided; but nothing herein contained shall prevent any such company, organized on the stock or mutual plan, from reinsuring a fractional part of any single risk. ('05 c. 303 § 1) [3516]

(139-263, 166+221.)

3337. Conditions for reinsurance—Every insurer authorized to issue policies in this state may reinsure in any other insurer any part or all of any risk or risks, other than life, assumed by it; but such reinsurance, unless effected (a) with an insurer authorized to issue policies in this state, or (b) with an insurer similarly authorized in another state, territory or district of the United States and showing the same standards of solvency and meeting the same statutory and departmental regulations which would be required of or prescribed for such insurer were it at the time of such reinsurance authorized in this state to issue policies covering risks of the same kind or kinds as those reinsured, shall not reduce the reserve or other liability to be charged to the ceding insurer; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to permit to a ceding insurer any reduction of reserve or liability through reinsurance effected with an unauthorized insurer. In case such reinsurance effected with an insurer so authorized or so recognized for reinsurance in this state, the ceding insurer shall thereafter be charged on the gross premium basis with an unearned premium liability representing the proportion of such obligation retained by it, and the insurer to which the business is ceded shall be charged with an unearned premium liability representing the proportion of such obligation ceded to it calculated in the same way. The two parties to the transaction shall together carry the same reserve as the ceding insurer would have carried had it retained the risk.

Any contract of reinsurance whereby an insurer cedes more than seventy-five per cent of the total of its outstanding insurance liabilities shall, if such insurer is incorporated by or, if an insurer of a foreign country, has its principal office in this state, be subject to approval in writing by the commissioner of insurance of this state.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to permit the ceding insurer to receive through the cession of the whole of any risk or risks any advantage in respect to its unearned premium reserve that would reduce the same below the actual amount thereof.

For the purposes of this section, the word "insurer" shall be deemed to include the word "reinsurer," and the words "issue policies of insurance" shall be deemed to include the words "make contracts of reinsurance." ('19 c. 141 § 1)

3338. Petition for consolidation or reinsurance—When any such company shall propose to consolidate with any other company, or to enter into any contract of reinsurance, it shall present its petition to the insurance commissioner of this state, setting forth the terms and conditions of such proposed consolidation or reinsurance, and praying for the approval or of any modification thereof, which the commissioner hereinafter provided for may approve. ('05 c. 303 § 2) [3517]

3339. Notice of hearing—The insurance commissioner shall thereupon issue an order requiring notice to be given by mail to each policyholder of such company of such petition, and the time and place at which hearing thereon will be held, and shall publish the said notice in five daily newspapers, once in each week for at least two weeks before the time appointed for the hearing upon said petition.

In lieu of proceeding under the foregoing paragraph of this section and section 2 of chapter 303, Laws of 1905, any accident or health company, may consolidate and enter into a contract of reinsurance with any other company by filing with the commissioner of insurance a copy of such contract and all papers relating thereto, which consolidation and reinsurance shall take effect upon such filing and the mailing to each person holding a policy so reinsured a notice thereof. Provided, that if the holders of not less than five per cent of such policies so reinsured shall within thirty days thereafter file a petition with the commissioner of insurance for a hearing on the question of such reinsurance, the commissioner shall, and without such petition may, order a hearing as provided in section 4, chapter 303, Laws of 1905, notice of which shall be given by the company by mail to each holder of such policy, so reinsured, at least ten days before such hearing, and thereupon proceedings shall be had as provided in sections 4 and 5, chapter 303, Laws of 1905. ('05 c. 303 § 3, amended '15 c. 333 § 1) [3518]

3340. Commission to hear petition—Hearing—Disposition of surplus assets—The governor, or in event of his inability to act, some competent person resident of the state to be appointed by him, the attorney general, and the insurance commissioner of the state shall constitute a commission to hear and determine upon said petition. Such consolidation or reinsurance shall only be approved by the consent of all the members of said commission, and it shall be the duty of said commission to guard the interests of the policyholders of any such company or companies proposing to consolidate or reinsure. ('05 c. 303 § 4) [3519]

3343. If approved by the commissioner, a summary of such statement, prepared by the commissioner, together with his certificate of approval, shall be published, and proof of publication filed with him before May 1 following, in default whereof he shall have such publication and proof made at the expense of the company. Upon the approval of such statement the commissioner shall issue a renewal license for the succeeding year beginning on said March 1. In the case of a domestic mutual company, such license shall not be effective until filed for record with the register of deeds and shall contain a condition to that effect. Provided further, that for cause shown the commissioner of insurance may at any time and from time to time permit any corporation to accumulate and maintain a contingency reserve in excess of the limit above mentioned for a prescribed period, not exceeding one year under any one permission, by filing in his office a decision stating his reasons therefor and causing the same to be published in his next annual report. Policyholder permitted to choose method of application of surplus—Every policyholder shall on all participating policies hereafter issued, be permitted after his policy has been in force five years annually to select the manner and method of the application of the surplus to be annually apportioned to his policy from among those set forth in the policy. All apportioned surplus not actually paid over to the insured, or applied in the reduction of current or future premiums or in the purchase of paid-up insurance of pure endowment additions, shall be credited to the insured and carried as an actual liability and be paid at the maturity of the policy. ('07 c. 198 § 3) [3494]

3392. Automatic paid-up or extended insurance in certain cases—In event of default in payment of any premium due on any policy, provided not less than three full years' premiums have been paid, and provided further, such policy shall not be continued in force by virtue of an automatic loan provision therein, there shall be secured to the insured without action on his part, either paid or extended insurance as specified in the policy, the net values of which shall be at least equal to the entire net reserve held by the company on such policy, less two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and dividend additions, if any, and less any outstanding indebtedness to the company on the policy at time of default. There shall be secured to the insured the right to surrender the policy to the company at its home office within one month after date of default for the cash value otherwise available for the purchase of the paid-up or extended insurance as aforesaid. Annual apportionment of surplus on existing policies—Every life insurance company doing business in this state conducted on the mutual plan or in which policyholders are entitled to share in the profits or surplus shall, on all policies of life insurance heretofore issued, under the conditions of which the distribution of surplus is deferred to a fixed or specified time, and contingent upon the policy being in force and the insured living at that time, annually ascertain the amount of surplus to which all such policies as a separate class are entitled, and shall annually apportion to such policies as a class the amount of surplus so ascertained, and carry the amount of such apportioned surplus, plus the actual interest earnings and accretions of such fund, as a distinct and separate liability to such class of policies on and for which the same was accumulated, and no company or any of its officers shall be permitted to use any part of such apportioned surplus fund for any purpose whatsoever other than the express purpose for which the same was accumulated. ('07 c. 201 § 1) [3497]

Every policy which contains a reference to the application, either as a part of the policy or as having any bearing thereon, shall have a copy of such application attached thereto or set out therein. (1693) [3467]

INCONTESTABILITY—This policy constitutes the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable from its date except for nonpayment of premiums and except as otherwise provided in this policy. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in a written application and a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to this policy when issued.

The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Such loan may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. 3400. Exceptions—Single premium policies may be issued in any form prescribed in section 2, omitting therefrom provisions or portions thereof applicable only to other than single premium policies. Non-participating policies may be issued in any form prescribed in section 2, if they shall contain a provision that the policy shall be non-participating, and such policies shall omit therefrom clauses for participation in the surplus of the company. ('07 c. 220 § 3) [3475]

3401. Preliminary term provisions—Policies issued pursuant to the provisions of this act may provide for not more than one year preliminary term insurance, and shall be valued accordingly by incorporating therein the following clause immediately preceding the "Change of Beneficiary Clause": "The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance." ('07 c. 220 § 4) [3476]

3402. Provisions which must be included in every policy—No policy of life insurance in form other than as provided in section 2 (116 of this code) shall be issued in this state or be issued by a life insurance company organized under the laws of this state unless the same shall contain the following provisions:

(1) A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company, or to an agent of the company, upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers who shall be named in the policy and countersigned by the agent, but any policy may contain a provision that the policy itself shall be a receipt for the first premium.

(2) A provision for a grace of one month for the payment of every premium after the first, which may be subject to an interest charge, during which month the insurance shall continue in force, which provision may contain a stipulation that if the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premium will be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

(3) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after two years from its date, except for non-payment of premiums and except for violations of the conditions of the policy relating to naval and military services in time of war. A special form of policy, however, may be issued on the life of a person employed in an occupation classed by the company as extra hazardous or as leading to hazardous employment, which shall provide that service in certain designated occupations may reduce the company's liability under the policy to a certain designated amount not less than the full policy reserve.

(4) A provision that all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in a written application and a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued.

(5) A provision that if the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

(6) A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that, beginning not later than the end of the third policy year, the company will annually determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy, and that the owner of the policy shall have the right each year after the fifth to have the current dividend arising from such participation paid in cash, and if the policy shall provide other dividend options, it shall further provide that if the owner of the policy shall not elect any such other options the dividends shall be paid in cash. Which provision may stipulate that any dividends payable during the first five years of such policy shall be conditioned upon the payment of the next ensuing annual premium. This provision shall not be required in non-participating policies, nor in policies issued on under-average lives, nor in insurance in exchange for lapsed or surrendered policies.

(7) A provision that after three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, while the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of the policy, and on the sole security thereof, at a specified rate of interest, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy, and on any dividend additions thereto, specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserve, less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy, and of any dividend additions thereto; and that the company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year; which provision shall further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceeding sixty days after the application therefor is made and which provision may further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. It shall be further stipulated in the policy that failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any.

No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance.

This provision shall not be required in term insurance.

(8) A provision which, in event of default in premium payments, after premiums shall have been paid for three years, shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance, the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto, specifying the mortality table and the rate of interest adopted for computing such reserves, less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy, and of any existing dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy.

Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid and shall stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than sixty days after the application therefor is made, and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six months after the application therefor is made.

This provision shall not be required in term insurance of twenty years or less.

(9) A table showing in figures the loan values, and the options available under the policies each year upon default in premium payments, during at least the first twenty years of the policy, beginning with the year in which such values and options become available.

(10) A provision that if, in event of default in premium payments, the value of the policy shall be applied to the purchase of other insurance, and if such insurance shall be in force and the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and cancelled, the policy may be reinstated within three years from such default, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and payment of arrears of premiums with interest.

(11) A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured, settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death, or not later than two months after receipt of such proof.

(12) A table showing the amount of installments in which the policy may provide its proceeds may be payable.

(13) A title on the face and on the back of the policy correctly describing the same.

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof relating to premiums not applicable to single premium policies, shall to that extent not be incorporated therein. ('07 c. 220 § 5, amended '13 c. 152) [3477]

('13 c. 426 § 2) [3473]

3405. May be attached to existing policies—Any life insurance company that has heretofore issued any insurance policy of life insurance may, at the request of the insured, attach to any such policy heretofore issued which, by its terms, is payable to a beneficiary or beneficiaries in installments, a rider containing the terms and conditions set forth in section 1 hereof, and when so attached the same shall become a part of the contract of insurance to all intents and purposes as if so attached when said policy was originally issued. Provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any insurance company to attach any rider, of any kind or description, to any policy except upon the approval of the commissioner of insurance, with whom it shall be discretionary whether any rider shall be attached to any policy. ('13 c. 426 § 3) [3474]

(158+967).

3416. Provisions—No such policy shall be so issued or delivered (1) unless the entire money and other considerations therefor are expressed in the policy; nor (2) unless the time at which the insurance thereunder takes effect and terminates is stated in a portion of the policy preceding its execution by the insurer; nor (3) if the policy purports to insure more than one person; nor (4) unless every printed portion thereof and of any endorsements or attached papers shall be plainly printed in type of which the face shall be not smaller than ten-point; nor (5) unless a brief description thereof be printed on its first page and on its filing back in type of which the face shall be not smaller than fourteen point, nor (6) unless the exceptions of the policy be printed with the same prominence as the benefits to which they apply, provided, however, that any portion of such policy which purports, by reason of the circumstances under which a loss is incurred, to reduce any indemnity promised therein to an amount less than that provided for the same loss occurring under ordinary circumstances, shall be printed in bold face type and with greater prominence than any other portion of the text of the policy. ('13 c. 156 § 2) [3523]

3417. Standard provisions—Every such policy so issued shall contain certain standard provisions, which shall be in the words and in the order hereinafter set forth and be preceded in every policy by the caption, "Standard Provision." In each such standard provision wherever the word "insurer" is used, there shall be substituted therefor "company" or "corporation" or "association" or "society" or such other word as will properly designate the insurer. Said standard provisions shall be:

(1) A standard provision relative to the contract which may be in either of the following two forms: Form (A) to be used in policies which do not provide for reduction of indemnity on account of change of occupation, and Form (B) to be used in policies which do so provide. If Form (B) is used and the policy provides indemnity against loss from sickness, the words "or contracts sickness," may be inserted therein immediately after the words "in the event that the insured is injured":

(A). 1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity herein provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his doing any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation.

(B). 1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance except as it may be modified by the insurer's classification of risks and premium rates in the event that the insured is injured after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in the policy, or while he is doing any act or thing pertaining to any occupation so classified, except ordinary duties about his residence or while engaged in recreation, in which event the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in the policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate but within the limits so fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation.

If the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued requires that prior to its issue a statement of the premium rates and classification of risks pertaining to it shall be filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in such state, then the premium rates and classification of risks mentioned in this policy shall mean only such as have been last filed by the insurer in accordance with such law, but if such filing is not required by such law, then they shall mean the insurer's premium rates and classification of risks last made effective by it in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable.

(2) A standard provision relative to changes in the contract, which shall be in the following form:

2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall avoid the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the insurer and such approval be endorsed hereon.

(3) A standard provision relative to reinstatement of policy after lapse which may be in either of the three following forms: Form (A) to be used in policies which insure only against loss from accident; Form (B) to be used in policies which insure only against loss from sickness; and Form (C) to be used in policies which insure against loss from both accident and sickness.

(A). 3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent ac-

Subject to such adjustment as shall be equitable, the experience of the company or any table of mortality recognized for the purpose of insurance in any law of this state, may be used as a basis for the ascertainment and apportionment herein authorized; provided, that any company availing itself of the provisions of this section shall, in its articles or by-laws, specify the table of mortality and rate of interest which is to be the basis for the charges thereafter to be made to the policies or certificates aforesaid; and, provided further, that when any table of mortality is specified in any policy the said table shall be followed. ('19 c. 371 § 1)

Upon receipt of said certificate from the insurance commissioner said association may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one death benefit assessment or payment, in accordance with its tables of rates, as provided by its constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. But no such association shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate, nor pay or allow, or offer a promise to pay or allow to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least $1,000 each and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians and certificates of such examinations have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such association nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated nor until there has been submitted to the insurance commissioner under oath of the president and secretary or corresponding officers of such association a list of such applicants giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of regular payments or assessments, which shall not be lower for death benefits than those required by the National Fraternal Congress table of mortality with interest at 4 per cent per annum; nor until it shall be shown to the insurance commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer or corresponding officer of such association that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment or assessment as herein provided per $1,000 of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least $2,500, all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants and no part of which may be used for expenses. Said advanced payments shall during the period of organization be held in trust for and, if the organization is not completed within one year as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants.

The insurance commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable, and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the association has complied with all the provisions of the law he shall issue to such association a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such association at the date of such certificate. The insurance commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made and a certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate.

No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this section shall be valid after one year from its date, or after such further period not exceeding one year as may be authorized by the insurance commissioner upon cause shown, unless the 500 applicants herein required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided and the articles of association and all proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of said preliminary certificate or at the expiration of said extended period, unless such association shall have completed its organization and commenced business as herein provided. When any domestic association shall have discontinued business for the period of one year, its charter shall become null and void. ('07 c. 345 § 13) [3549] 3467. But no such association already organized, shall be required to reincorporate hereunder, nor shall it be required to adopt the rates prescribed herein for new associations, in order to avail itself of the privileges of this act, and any such association may amend its articles of association from time to time in the manner provided therein, or in its constitution or laws, and all such amendments shall be filed with the insurance commissioner and shall become operative upon such filing unless a later time be provided in such amendments, or in its articles of association, constitution or laws.

Any such society may continue to do business in this state until the first day of March, A. D. 1909. The commissioner of insurance shall then, if he finds that such society is complying with the provisions of this act, issue to it a license authorizing it to continue the transaction of business in this state until the first day of the succeeding March, and such license may be renewed annually but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding March. For each such license or renewal the association shall pay the commissioner of insurance the sum of $10.00. A duly certified copy of such license shall be prima facie evidence in any court or proceeding in this state that the licensee is a fraternal beneficiary association within the meaning of this act. ('07 c. 345 § 14, amended '09 c. 329 § 1) [3550]

3468. Merging of fraternal benefit societies—No fraternal benefit society, organized under the laws of this state to do the business of life, accident or health insurance, shall consolidate or merge with any other benefit society, or reinsure its insurance risks, or any part thereof, with any other fraternal benefit society, or assume or reinsure the whole or any portion of the risks of any other fraternal benefit society, except as herein provided. No fraternal benefit society or subordinate body thereof shall merge, consolidate with or be reinsured by any company or association not licensed to transact business as a fraternal benefit society. ('19 c. 42 § 1)

3469. provided that such insurance commissioner may within his discretion require such financial statement to be submitted as of the last day of the month preceding the date of such contract. The commissioner of insurance shall thereupon consider such contract of consolidation, merger or reinsurance, and if satisfied that the interests of the certificate holders of such fraternal benefit societies are properly protected, and that such contract is just and equitable to the members of each of such societies and that no reasonable objection exists thereto, shall approve said contract as submitted. FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES

3512. Standard fire policy—No fire company shall issue on property in this state any policy other than the standard form herein set forth, the blanks for which may be filled in print or in writing, and no condition, stipulation or term, other than those therein provided for, whether as to jurisdiction, limitation, magistrate, certificate or otherwise, shall be valid if inserted in any such policy, except as follows:

1. It may print on or in its policy its name, location and date of incorporation, the amount of its paid-up capital, the names of its officers and agents, the number and date of the policy, and, if it is issued through an agent, the words, "This policy shall not be valid until countersigned by the duly authorized agent of the company at"

2. It may print or use in its policy printed forms of description and specification of the property insured, including permits for the use of electricity, gasoline, acetylene or storage of other extra hazardous product or material, for repairs and improvements, for the operation or ceasing to operate, for the maintenance of sprinkling or other improvements, and for the use of the premises for ordinary work and materials incident to the business.

Any permit for the use or storage of a hazardous product may contain a caution giving instructions as to the proper method of use or storage.

It may print or use in its policy printed forms for insurance against loss of rents and rental values, leaseholds, values, use and occupancy, and indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by change of temperature resulting from the destruction of refrigerating or cooling apparatus, or any of its connections. It may also use a form specifically excluding the last mentioned hazard.

All contracts of insurance against loss of rents and rental values, leasehold values, use and occupancy, shall contain the following provision:

The period of indemnity under this contract shall be limited to such length of time (commencing with the date of the fire and not limited by the date of the expiration of the policy) as would be required with the exercise of due diligence and dispatch to rebuild, repair or replace such part of the property described in said policy as may be destroyed or damaged.

When the policy covers a lumber risk upon the request of the insured in writing, of which fact such writing shall be the only evidence, and if in consideration thereof, a reduction in the rate of premium is made by the company, the form known as the "clear space lumber clause" may be used, said form to be in the following terms, to-wit:

The rate of premium upon the within policy has been reduced from the sum of $..... to the sum of $....., and in consideration of such reduction the assured agrees that a continuous space of feet shall hereafter at all times be maintained between the property hereby insured and any wood-working or manufacturing establishment; said space shall, in all cases, exclude and be measured from the exterior boundary of any permanent structure or addition connected with or attached to (here insert description of nearest woodworker); said space not to be occupied by any independent or disconnected building or structure (here first exceptions if any) or by accumulation of combustible material of any kind and except the loading or unloading only within or transportation of lumber or timber products across such clear space. It shall not be used for handling, piling or sorting lumber for temporary purposes or otherwise. This clause shall not be construed to prohibit the maintenance of operation within said clear space of tramways used exclusively for the transportation of lumber; provided, that lumber is neither piled or stored thereon. Sorting platforms shall not be held tramways within the meaning of this clause, and failure upon the part of the insured to comply with the terms of this clause shall not avoid this policy, nor in any manner lessen the liability of the company hereunder, but in case of such failure, the assured shall be liable to the company for the difference in the premium hereinbefore set forth.

It may also print or use in its policy in case the assured desires a permit containing what is known as the "watchman clause," said clause to be in the following words, to-wit:

The insured agrees that during the continuance of this policy he will uniformly and constantly maintain a watch service in connection with said premises, and in consideration of such uniform and constant watch service the rate of premium charged upon the policy has been reduced from $..... to $....., and it is hereby expressly agreed and understood that the failure of the assured to maintain such uniform and constant watch service or comply with this clause or agreement, shall in no manner nor to any extent avoid this policy, or in case of loss lessen the liability of the company under this policy; but in the event of the failure of the assured to maintain such watch service or perform his part of this agreement, he shall then be liable, and hereby agrees to pay said full premium for the unexpired term of said policy.

It may also print or use in its policy a printed form providing that in case of a risk equipped with automatic sprinklers, the assured shall use due diligence in seeing that the equipment is properly maintained; also a permit that the premises may remain vacant or unoccupied for a stipulated number of days beyond the thirty (30) days provided in the policy, for which permit an additional premium may be charged; also a form whereby the assured agrees that, for a reduction in the rate of premium, barrels and buckets of water shall be kept at hand at all times; that failing so to do, the assured shall be liable for the highest rate written in the policy; also a form may be attached excluding liability for loss or damage to dynamos and other electrical appliances caused by electric current, either natural or artificial.

It may also print or use in its policy printed forms providing that in case of loss, such loss shall be payable to the mortgagee, as his, her, its or their interest may appear, a printed form in the following words, to-wit:

Subject to the stipulations, provisions and conditions contained in this policy, the loss, if any, is payable to, mortgagee, as his, her, its or their interest may appear.

It may also print or use in its policy in case the assured desires liability to attach to several buildings, divisions or locations under one item, a printed form in the following words, to-wit:

It is hereby agreed in case of loss, this policy shall attach in or on each building, division or location in such proportion as the value in or on such building, division or location bears to the aggregate value of the subject insured.

It may also print or use in its policy the following clause, to-wit:

The insured has relinquished all rights to recover for loss or damage by fire from (Here insert name of individual, partnership, association or corporation).

3. If insuring against damage by lightning, it may print in the clause enumerating the perils insured against the additional words, "also any damage by lightning, whether fire ensues or not," and in the clause providing for apportionment of loss in case of other insurance, the words, "whether by fire, lightning or both."

4. If incorporated or formed in the state, it may print in its policy any provision which it is authorized or required by law to insert therein; if not incorporated in this state, it may, with the approval of the commissioner, so print any provision required by its charter or deed of settlement, or by the laws of its own state or country, not contrary to the laws of this state.

5. It may print upon a policy issued in compliance herewith the words "Minnesota Standard Policy."

6. No provision shall be attached to or included in such policy limiting the amount to be paid in case of total loss on buildings to less than the amount of insurance on the same.

7. When two or more authorized companies unite in the issue of a joint policy, the heading thereof may show the severalty of the contract, and also the proportion of premium to be paid to each, and the proportion of liability which each assumes.

In the printed conditions of such standard policy the necessary changes may be made from the singular to the plural number when reference is had to the companies issuing such policy. It shall be plainly printed, no portion thereof in smaller than long primer type, and shall be as follows, to-wit:

No..... $..... (Corporate name of the company or association, its principal place or places of business.)

and curiosities are not included in said insured property unless specially mentioned.

Said property is insured for the term..... beginning on the day of in the year nineteen hundred and at noon, and continuing until the day of in the year nineteen hundred and at noon, against all loss or damage by fire originating from any cause except invasion, foreign enemies, civil commotion, riots, or any military or usurped power whatever; the amount of said loss or damage to be estimated according to the actual value of the insured property at the time when such loss or damage happens, except in case of total loss on buildings; but not to include loss or damage caused by explosion of any kind, unless fire ensues, and then to include that caused by fire only.

The policy shall be void if any material fact or circumstance stated in writing has not been fairly represented by the insured, or if the assured now has or shall hereafter make any other insurance on the said property without the assent of the company, or if without such assent the property shall be removed, except that, if such removal shall be necessary for the preservation of the property from fire, this policy shall be valid without such assent for five days thereafter, or if without such assent the situation or circumstances affecting the risk shall, by or with the knowledge, advice, agency or consent of insured, be so altered as to cause an increase of such risks, or if, without such assent, the property shall be sold or this policy assigned, or if the premises hereby insured shall become vacant by the removal of the owner or occupant, and so remain vacant for more than thirty days without such assent, or if it be a manufacturing establishment running in whole or in part extra time, except such establishment may run in whole or in part extra hours, not later than 9:00 o'clock P. M., or if such establishment shall cease operations for more than thirty days without permission in writing endorsed hereon, or if the insured shall make any attempt to defraud the company, either before or after the loss, or if gunpowder or other articles subject to legal restrictions shall be kept in quantities or manner different from those allowed or prescribed by law, or if camphene, benzine, naphtha or other chemical oils or burning fluids shall be kept or used by the insured on the premises insured, except that what is known as refined petroleum, kerosene, or coal oil may be used for lighting, and in dwelling houses kerosene oil stoves may be used for domestic purposes, to be filled when cold, by daylight, and with oil of lawful fire test only.

If the insured property shall be exposed to loss or damage by fire, the insured shall make all reasonable exertions to save and protect same.

In case of any loss or damage under this policy, a statement in writing, signed and sworn to by the insured, shall be forthwith rendered to the company, setting forth the value of the property insured, except in case of total loss on buildings the value of said buildings need not be stated, the interest of the insured therein, all other insurance thereon, in detail, the purposes for which and the persons by whom the building insured, or containing the property insured, was used, and the time at which and manner in which the fire originated, so far as known to the insured.

The company may also examine the books of account and vouchers of the insured, and make extracts from the same.

In case of any loss or damage, the company, within sixty days after the insured shall have submitted a statement as provided in the preceding clause, shall either pay the amount for which it shall be liable, which amount, if not agreed upon, shall be ascertained by award of referees, as hereinafter provided, or replace the property with other of the same kind and goodness, or it may, within fifteen days after such statement is submitted, notify the insured of its intention to rebuild or repair the premises or any portion thereof separately insured by this policy, and shall thereupon enter upon said premises and proceed to rebuild or repair the same with reasonable expedition. It is moreover understood that there can be no abandonment of the property insured to the company, and that the company shall not in any case be liable for more than the sum insured, with interest thereon from the time when the loss shall become payable, as above provided.

If there shall be any other insurance on the property insured, whether prior or subsequent, the insured shall recover on this policy no greater proportion of loss, except in case of total loss on buildings, sustained than the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount insured thereon.

And whenever the company shall pay any loss, the insured shall assign to it, to the extent of the amount so paid, all rights to recover satisfaction for the loss or damage from any person, town or other corporation, excepting other insurers, or the insured, if requested, shall prosecute therefor at the charge and for the account of the company.

If this policy shall be made payable to a mortgagee of the insured real estate, no act or default of any person other than such mortgagee, or his agents, or those claiming under him, shall affect such mortgagee's right to recover in case of loss on such real estate.

Provided, that the mortgagee shall, on demand, pay according to the established scale of rates for any increase of risks not paid for by the insured; and whenever this company shall be liable to a mortgagee for any sum for loss under this policy, for which no liability exists as to the mortgagor or owner, and this company shall elect by itself, or with others, to pay the mortgagee the full amount secured by such mortgage, then the mortgagee shall assign and transfer to the company interested, upon such payment, the said mortgage, together with the note and debts thereby secured.

This policy may be cancelled at any time at the request of the insured, who shall thereupon be entitled to a return of the portion of the above premium remaining, after deducting the customary monthly short rates for the time this policy shall have been in force.

The company also reserves the right, after giving written notice to the insured, and to any mortgagee to whom this policy is made payable, and tendering to the insured a ratable proportion of the premium, to cancel this policy as to all risks subsequent to the expiration of ten days from such notice, and no mortgagee shall then have the right to recover as to such risks.

In case of loss, except in case of total loss on buildings, under this policy and a failure of the parties to agree as to the amount of the loss, it is mutually agreed that the amount of such loss shall, as above provided, be ascertained by two competent, disinterested and impartial appraisers who shall be residents of this state, the insured and this company each selecting one within fifteen days after a statement of such loss has been rendered to the company, as herein provided, and in case either party fail to select an appraiser within such time, the other appraiser and the umpire selected, as herein provided may act as a board of appraisers, and whatever award they shall find shall be as binding as though the two appraisers had been chosen; and the two so chosen shall first select a competent, disinterested and impartial umpire; provided, that if after five days the two appraisers cannot agree on such an umpire, the presiding judge of the district court of the county wherein the loss occurs may appoint such an umpire upon application of either party in writing by giving five days' notice thereof in writing to the other party. Unless within fifteen days after a statement of such loss has been rendered to the company, either party, the assured or the company, shall have notified the other in writing that such party demands an appraisal, such right to an appraisal shall be waived; the appraisers together shall then estimate and appraise the loss, stating separately sound value and damage, and, failing to agree, shall submit their differences to the umpire; and the award in writing of any two shall determine the amount of the loss; the parties thereto shall pay the appraisers respectively selected by them and shall bear equally the expenses for the appraisal and umpire. The fees of any appraiser or umpire shall in no case exceed ten dollars ($10.00) per day.

No suit or action against the company for the recovery of any claim by virtue of this policy shall be sustained in any court of law or equity in this state, unless commenced within two years from the time the loss occurred.

In witness whereof, the said Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and attested by its secretary (or by such proper officers as may be designated), at its office in Date (R. L. § 1640, amended '09 c. 331 § 1; '13 c. 405 § 1; '13 c. 421 § 1; '23 c. 410) [3318]

1. In general—This form contains the only terms and conditions that may be incorporated in a fire insurance policy. (99-190, 180+871.) To be construed as similar contracts voluntarily entered into (92-234, 99+892). "Legal representatives" include a receiver (88-478, 93+517). When interest begins to run on loss (91-210, 218, 97+875, 98+100). Form of policy to be used by mutual company (87-392, 92+227). Mis-statements as to interest in property (71-338, 73+849). Effect of statement in policy that premium has been paid (78-284, 80+976). A policy insuring the "estate of A. B. deceased" is valid (86-486, 91+5).

2. Notice and proof of loss—"Forthwith" means within a reasonable time (79-337, 82+647; 78-46, 80+839). Waiver by insurer (80-527, 83+409; 95-492, 104+560). Claim as to amount of loss need not be specific. Substantial compliance with policy sufficient (83-398, 86+425). Failure to furnish proof of loss within prescribed times does not forfeit the rights of insured but merely postpones payment (82-336, 85+13; 84-116, 119, 86+888). Misrepresentation in proof of loss (68-335, 71+388). Books of account as evidence of value of stock. When company objects to sufficiency of proof of loss on specified grounds other objections are waived (66-138, 68+855).

3. Increased risk—78-240, 80+971; 88-231, 92+952; 96-81, 104+687.

4. Limitation of actions—Two year limitation runs from time of fire (84-116, 86+888).

5. Requisite exertions to save property—84-419, 87+932.

6. Other insurance—Prohibition against (86-371, 90+766; 86-486, 91+5; 92-390, 100+88; 96-81, 104+687; 29-347, 13+164; 54-162, 167, 55+909). Where a person suffering a partial loss was insured by several companies it was held that he might join them all in a single action to determine their liability (94-486, 103+495).

7. Mortgage clause—Rights of mortgagee—86-486, 91+5; 81-478, 84+334; 68-170, 70+979; 100-374, 111+260.

8. Vacancy—Provision as to vacancy unaffected by section 1642. R. L. '05. G. S. '13, s. 3322 (77-474, 80+630). Effect (53-549, 55+740).

9. What constitutes total loss—85-48, 88+265; 85-65, 88+272; 85-118, 88+438.

10. Arbitration—Not a condition precedent to action on policy when no disagreement as to amount of loss (79-337, 82+647; 94-141, 102+380). When a building is destroyed by fire, if the total insurance thereon, exclusive of foundation, is less than its insurable value as designated by the insurer in its policy the insured is not required to submit to arbitration (82-426, 85+212. See 85-48, 63, 88+265). In an action on a policy it is unnecessary when there is no disagreement as to the amount of loss, to allege in the complaint that an arbitration was or was not held or was waived by the insurer (94-141, 102+380; 94-486, 103+495). Insured is entitled to appear before referees and submit evidence of his loss (92-306, 99+886). Referees not bound by the same strict rules as courts in their investigations. Presumption that referees did their duty. Must be impartial and disinterested (92-210, 214, 97+875, 98+100). Board of reference a quasi court subject to rules governing common law arbitration. Should sit in a body and receive evidence offered by the parties with right of cross-examination, but are not limited to such evidence. May examine locus in quo and within reasonable limits pursue their investigations independently (84-526, 530, 88+16. See 50-341, 52+932). Notice of refusal to accept award. Procedure (84-526, 88+16). Requisites of pleading to charge fraud and misconduct in referees. Compensation of referees (83-21, 85+324). Waiver of right to arbitration by insurer (68-335, 71+388; 77-291, 79+1005; 96-154, 104+900. See 66-138, 68+855) (96-477, 105+675). A refusal by the insured to submit to arbitration held a waiver of his right to an appraisal but not to extinguish his right to recover on the policy (77-291, 78+1005). Effect of refusal of referee to serve (96-154, 104+900). Actions to set aside award (92-306, 99+886; 91-210, 97+875; 98-100, 84-526, 88+16; 66-138, 68+855). The right to demand arbitration is waived by a denial of liability (96-477, 105+675).

- 11. Lightning clause—100-528, 111+400.
12. Proximate cause of loss—100-528, 111+400.

3513. Automobile fire insurance policies—Insurance on automobiles, motorcycles and other motor vehicles, against loss or damage by fire, when combined in one policy with insurance against one or more of the other hazards mentioned in subdivision 12 of section 1 of chapter 138, Laws 1915 (§ 3305) need not be in accordance with section 3512. ('21 c. 342 § 1)

3514. Cancellation of fire policy—Any fire insurance company which has not collected the premium on its policy at the time of the delivery thereof may print or indorse or attach by rider on its policy the following clause:

"If the insured hereunder shall not have actually paid the premium hereon, or any part thereof, within sixty (60) days from the date of this policy, then this policy may be cancelled by the insurer by giving five days' written notice to the insured and to the mortgagee or other person to whom the policy is made payable, if any, without tendering any part or portion of such premium, anything to the contrary in the policy contract notwithstanding." ('23 c. 390 § 1)

3515. Violation of preceding section—Every company and every agent who shall wilfully make, issue or deliver a policy in violation of section 3512 shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor; but every stipulation of such policy in favor of the insured shall nevertheless be binding upon the company issuing the same. (1641) [3319]

3516. Whole amount collectible—Co-insurance, etc.—Every company insuring any building or other structure against loss or damage by fire, lightning or other hazard, by the issue of a policy or renewal of one therefore issued, or otherwise, shall cause such structure to be previously examined, a full description thereof to be made, and its insurable value to be fixed, all by the insurer or his agent, and the amount thereof to be stated in the policy. In the absence of any change increasing the risk, without the consent of the insurer, of which the burden of proof shall be upon it, and in the absence of intentional fraud on the part of the insured, the whole amount mentioned in the policy or renewal upon which the insurer receives a premium, shall be paid in case of total loss, and in case of partial loss, the full amount thereof. If there are two or more policies upon the property, each shall contribute to the payment of the whole or partial loss in proportion to the amount specified. Any policy where the entire risk covered by the same amounts to five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or more may contain a co-insurance clause, if the insured requests the same in writing, of which fact such writing shall be the only evidence, and if in consideration thereof, a reduction in the rate of premium is made by the company. When so demanded and attached to the policy, said agreement shall be binding upon both the insured and the company, and, in case of loss, the actual cash

Every person who solicits insurance and procures an application therefor shall be held to be the agent of the party afterwards issuing insurance thereon or a renewal thereof. (R. L. Nature of duty to examine premises defined. Insurer not charged with notice of vacancy by failure to examine. "Occupied as a dwelling" in a policy are words of warranty (92-337, 100+8). Provision in standard policy as to vacancy not affected by second sentence of this section (77-474, 88+630). Effect of valuation fixed under this section on right of arbitration (82-426, 85+212). Cited as to who is an "agent" (94-86, 102+213); "broker" (104-76, 116+221). A condition as to use and occupation of building held not available against certain mortgages (100-374, 111+260). 3517. Insurance in excess of value—No company shall knowingly issue any policy upon property in this state for an amount which, together with any existing insurance thereon, exceeds the fair value of the property, nor a longer term than five years. Any company wilfully insuring property for more than its real value shall forfeit to the state, for the benefit of the school fund, double the premium collected on such policy. (1643) [3323]

3518. (1644) [3324]

3519. Adjustment—Reference—Any person who shall not, within five days after written request, appoint a qualified referee as provided in the policy, shall be deemed to have waived the right to reference, and, if it be the insurer, shall be liable to suit. If any two such referees fail for ten days to agree upon a third, either party may within the next ten days make written application to a judge of the district court of the county wherein the fire occurred, setting forth the facts; whereupon said judge shall make the appointment. No person shall be a qualified referee who is not a resident of the state, disinterested and willing to act. (1645) [3325]

(109-388, 124+5; 96-154, 104+900; 125-517, 147+651.) (19 Cyc. 906; Minn. Dig. 4732.)

3520. Liability of company—Notwithstanding any penalty prescribed for the making, issuing or delivery of any policy in violation of any provision of law, every such policy shall be binding upon the company issuing the same. (1646) [3326]

3521. Salvage corps and fire patrols—Every authorized board of fire underwriters in any municipality containing fifty thousand or more inhabitants may provide a salvage corps, a fire patrol with competent superintendent for the purpose of discovering and preventing fires, suitable rooms for their accommodations and necessary apparatus to save and preserve property and life at and after a fire. Such superintendent and patrol subject to the control of the fire chief of the fire department of the municipality may enter any building on fire or in danger of taking fire and endeavor to protect, save or remove the contents, or any part thereof, during or after the fire; provided, however, that the employees of said fire patrol salvage corps shall be divided into two platoons or shifts to be known as the day and night shift. A change of shift from day duty to night duty shall be made every week on Sunday.

Each employe shall be entitled to a vacation of not less than fifteen (15) days each year with pay. No employes shall be subject to call or perform any duties in said department out of his regular hours as defined in this section; provided further, that their superintendent may establish such rules as may be necessary to insure attendance of employes in case of a great conflagration, and in such case said superintendent may require each and every employe in the protection of life or property notwithstanding said employe has been relieved from duty under the provisions of this act. (R. L. '05 § 1656; G. S. '13 § 3359, amended '19 c. 515 § 1)

3522. Guaranty surplus and special reserve fund—Any insurance company organized under the laws of this state, authorized to transact a fire insurance business, may create the funds herein provided for, to be known and designated as the guaranty surplus fund and the special reserve fund, and may avail itself of the provisions of this section and the following sections of this chapter, upon complying with the requirements thereof. ('09 c. 437 § 1) [3332]

3523. Action of stockholders to be filed with insurance commissioner—Any such insurance company, desiring to create such funds may do so if such action is authorized by its stockholders, upon the adoption of a resolution to that effect by its board of directors at a regular meeting of such board, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, and filing with the insurance commissioner of the state a copy thereof, declaring the intention of such company to create such funds and to do business under the provisions of this chapter; and, as soon after the filing of such copy of the resolution as convenient, the insurance commissioner shall make, or cause to be made, an examination of such company, and he shall make a certificate of the result thereof, which shall particularly set forth the amount of surplus funds held by such company at the date of such examination, the whole or any part of which, under the provisions of this chapter, may be equally divided between and set apart to constitute guaranty surplus and special reserve funds, which certificate shall be recorded in the insurance department. ('09 c. 437 § 2) [3333]

3524. Dividends may be declared out of surplus profits—After the date of filing any such resolution with the insurance commissioner, such company shall not make or declare or pay in any form any dividend upon its capital stock, exceeding eight per cent per annum thereupon and six per cent per annum upon the surplus funds to be formed hereunder, until after its guaranty surplus fund and its special reserve fund shall have together accumulated to an amount equal to its capital stock or to the sum of $2,000,000.00; and any part of the surplus profits of such company above such annual dividend, may be equally divided between and set apart to constitute the said guaranty surplus fund and the said special reserve fund, which funds shall be held and used as hereinafter provided, and not otherwise. And any company doing business under this chapter, whose guaranty surplus fund and special reserve fund shall have together accumulated to an amount equal to its capital stock or to the sum of $2,000,000.00, may, from time to time, declare dividends out of its surplus profits in such amounts as its board of directors may prescribe, subject only to the limitation that the payment of such dividends shall not deplete its capital, nor reduce the aggregate amount of the guaranty surplus and special reserve funds to an amount less than the amount of its capital stock, or if its capital stock exceeds $2,000,000.00, to an amount less than $2,000,000.00; and subject to the further limitation that no dividends exceeding 10 per cent upon the capital stock shall be declared in any year if the payment thereof would reduce the aggregate amount of all surplus funds, including guaranty surplus and special reserve funds, below an amount equal to 30 per cent of its unearned premiums. And any company doing business under this chapter, which shall declare or pay any dividend contrary to the provisions herein contained, shall forfeit its charter and be liable to be proceeded against by the attorney general for its dissolution. ('09 c. 437, § 3, amended '11 c. 273 § 1; '23 c. 130 § 1) [3334]

3525. Commissioner to make examination—Whenever such company shall notify the insurance commissioner that it has fulfilled the requirements already expressed in this act, and that its guaranty surplus fund and its special reserve fund, taken together, equals its capital stock or amount to the sum of $2,000,000.00, the commissioner shall make an examination of such company and make a certificate of the result thereof, and file the same in his office, and if the commissioner shall find that said combined funds shall equal the capital stock of such company or amount to the sum of $2,000,000.00, thereafter such company may continue, out of any subsequent profits of its business, to add to such funds; provided, that whenever any addition is made to the special reserve fund an equal sum shall be carried to the guaranty surplus fund. ('09 c. 437 § 4, amended, '23 c. 130 § 2) [3335]

3526. Items to be considered in estimating profit—In estimating the profit of any such company for the purpose of making a division thereof between said guaranty surplus fund and such special reserve fund, until such funds shall together amount to a sum equal to the capital stock of such company or amount to the sum of $2,000,000.00, there shall be deducted from the gross assets of the company, including for this purpose the amount of the special reserve fund, the sum of the following items:

First—The amount of all outstanding claims.

Second—An amount sufficient to meet the liability of such company for the unearned premiums upon its unexpired policies, which amount shall at least equal one-half the premiums received on policies having one year or less to run from the date of policy, and a pro rata proportion of the premiums received on the policies having more than one year to run from the date of policy, and shall be known as the re-insurance liability.

Third—The amount of its guaranty surplus fund and of its special reserve fund.

Fourth—The amount of the capital of the company; and

Fifth—Interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum upon the amount of the capital, and six per centum per annum upon the amount of the said funds for whatever time shall have elapsed subject to an equal division between the said funds as herein since the last preceding cash dividend. And the balance shall constitute the net surplus of the company, any portion of which is provided. ('09 c. 437 § 7, amended '23 c. 130 § 3) [3338]

3527. Investment of guaranty surplus—Said guaranty surplus shall be held and be invested by such company in the same manner as its capital stock and surplus accumulation may be held and be invested, and shall be liable and applicable in the same manner as the capital stock to the payment generally of the losses of such company. ('09 c. 437 § 5) [3336]

3528. Investment of special reserve fund—Said special reserve fund shall be invested according to existing laws relating to investments of capital by fire insurance companies, and shall be deposited from time to time as the same shall accumulate and be invested, with the insurance commissioner of the state, who shall permit the company depositing the same to change such deposits by substituting for those withdrawn others of equal amount and value, and to collect and receive the interest or dividends upon such securities as the same may accrue; and said fund shall not be regarded as any part of the assets in possession of said company, so as to be or render the same liable for any claim for loss by fire or otherwise, except as herein provided. ('09 c. 437 § 6) [3337]

3529. When claims exceed guaranty surplus and capital stock—Whenever the claims upon such company shall exceed the amount of its capital stock and of guaranty surplus fund provided for by this chapter, and of its surplus funds, other than the special reserve fund, the said company shall notify the insurance commissioner of the fact, who shall then make or cause to be made an examination of said company, and shall issue his certificate of the result, showing the amounts of capital, of guaranty surplus fund, of special reserve fund, of re-insurance liability and of other assets, and upon his issuing such certificate in duplicate, one copy to be given to the company and one to be recorded in the insurance department, the said special reserve fund shall be immediately held to protect all policyholders of said company other than such as are claimants upon it at the date of said certificate, and said special reserve fund, together with other assets, certified by the insurance commissioner as equal in value to the amount of the unearned premiums of such company, to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided, shall constitute the capital and assets of such company for the protection of policyholders other than such claimants and for the further conduct of its business, and any official certificate of the insurance commissioner herein provided for shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties interested in such company, whether as stockholders, creditors or policyholders, and upon the payment to claimants who are such at the date of said certificate, of the full sum of the capital of such company and of its guaranty surplus fund and of its assets at said date, excepting only such special reserve fund and an amount of its assets equal to the liability of the commissioner, such company shall be forever discharged from any and all further liability to such claimants, and to each of them, and the said insurance commissioner shall, after issuing his said certificate, upon the demand of such company, transfer to it all such securities as shall have been deposited with him by such company as such special reserve fund, and if the amount of such special reserve fund be less than fifty per centum of the full amount of the capital of the company, if the capital be $2,000,000.00 or less, or if the amount of such special reserve fund be less than $1,000,000.00, if the capital be over $2,000,000.00, a requisition shall be issued by the said insurance commissioner upon the stockholders, to make up such capital to that proportion of its full amount, not exceeding $1,000,000.00; provided, that any capital so impaired shall be made up at least to the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and in case said company, after such requisition, shall fail to make up its capital at least to said sum of one hundred thousand dollars, as therein directed, said special reserve fund shall still be held as security and liable for any and all losses occurring upon policies of such company. If, after such application or the special reserve fund and requisition on the stockholders, the par value of outstanding shares of stock shall exceed the new amount of capital so established, outstanding shares, to the amount of such excess, shall be surrendered by the stockholders pro rata. Such company shall, in its annual statement to the insurance commissioner of this state, set forth the amount of such special reserve fund and of its guaranty surplus fund. If, in consequence of the payment of losses by fires, or of the expenses of the business, or of the interest or dividends payable under the provisions of this act to stockholders, or from any cause, the guaranty surplus fund shall be reduced in amount below the amount of the special reserve fund, the directors of the corporation shall make no additions to the special reserve fund until the guaranty surplus fund is equal to the special reserve fund. The policy registers, insurance maps, books of record and other books in use by such company in its business, and its policy and other blanks, office furniture, fixtures and supplies are not to be considered as assets, but shall be held by the company for its use in the protection of its policyholders. Provided, however, that if any amount greater than a sum equal to one-half of its capital stock shall by such company, under the provisions of this chapter, have been deposited with such commissioner, he shall retain of such securities an amount equal to one-half of what amount he shall so hold thereof in excess of a sum equal to such one-half of such capital stock if the capital be $2,000,000.00 or less, or in excess of $3,000,000.00 if the capital be over $2,000,000.00, and he shall transfer the balance thereof to such company as herein provided, and the amount so transferred to such company shall from the time of such transfer, provided the amount thereof shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, constitute the capital stock of such company for the further conduct of its business as hereinbefore provided, and the securities so retained shall be regarded as the special reserve fund of such company, to which additions may be made as herein provided and shall be held in the same manner, and for the same purpose, and under the same conditions as the original special reserve fund of such company was held. The provisions of this section, providing for discharge of the company from further liability to existing claimants upon application to the payment of such claims of its capital, surplus and assets, excepting the special reserve fund, and an amount equal to the liability for unearned premiums, shall not be construed to relieve the stockholders of said corporation from any liability imposed by the constitution of this state. ('09 c. 437 § 8, amended '23 c. 130 § 4) [3339]

3530. Directors to call upon stockholders to make up impairment—If at any time after said special reserve fund shall have been accumulated by any company, the directors of such company shall present evidence satisfactory to the insurance commissioner that the capital of such company has become impaired, he shall order the directors to call upon the stockholders to make up such impairment, and the board of directors may thereupon require the necessary payment by the stockholders to make good the whole of such impairment, or they may apply for that purpose the whole or any part of the special reserve fund and require of the stockholders payment of such amount as may be necessary to make up the balance of such impairment not made up out of the special reserve fund. The stock of every stockholder shall be pledged and liable for the amount assessed upon him to make up such impairment, either in whole or in part, and in case any stockholder refuses to pay such assessment, the stock standing in his name may be sold at public auction, after thirty days' notice, in such manner as the directors may provide. If the board of directors elect to make good such impairment or any part thereof out of the special reserve fund, the insurance commissioner shall, upon request of said board, transfer to said company so much of said special reserve fund as is necessary for the purpose. No company doing business under this chapter shall insure any larger amount upon any single risk than is permitted by law to a company possessing the same amount of capital irrespective of the fund herein provided for. ('09 c. 437 § 9) [3340]

3531. Statement to be printed on policy—From and after the date when this act goes into effect, every policy not then in the hands of agents issued by a company which has constituted and set apart a guaranty surplus and special reserve fund, under this or any prior law of this state, shall have printed thereon by such company a statement that the same is issued under and in pursuance of the laws of the state of Minnesota relating to guaranty surplus and special reserve funds, and every such policy shall be deemed to have been issued and received subject to the provisions hereof. ('09 c. 437 § 10) [3341]

3532. Railroad company liable for property injured or destroyed by fire from engines—Each railroad corporation owning or operating a railroad in this state shall be responsible in damages to every person and corporation whose property may be injured or destroyed by fire communicated directly or indirectly by the locomotive engines in use upon the railroad owned or operated by such railroad corporation, and each such railroad corporation shall have an insurable interest in the property upon the route of the railroad owned or operated by it and may procure insurance thereon in its own behalf for its protection against such damages. (R. L. § 2041, amended '09 c. 378 § 1) [4426]

1909. c. 378, sec. 2, repeals inconsistent acts, etc. The statute merely makes the fact of the fire being scattered or thrown from railroad cars and engines prima facie evidence of negligence. The existence of such negligence is still the issue to be presented by the complaint and tried by the jury. The statute simply relieves plaintiff of the initiative in proof of negligence. It does not relieve of any proof save that of negligence. The presumption of negligence does not arise and defendant need not introduce evidence to rebut it until plaintiff has made out a case for the jury on the issue of the cause of the fire. (29-12, 11+122; 32-526, 21+732; 35-361, 29+66; 63-66, 65+93; 65-112, 67+794; 117-434, 136+275. (C. C.) 22 Fed. 811.) Plaintiff's case must rest upon something more than mere speculation or conjecture (83-370, 86+451; cf. 117-434, 136+275). Evidence to rebut presumption must be as broad as the presumption and must satisfactorily rebut every negligent act or omission which might, under the circumstances of the case, reasonably or naturally have caused the fire (29-12, 11+122; 35-170, 28+215; 43-334, 45+608; 45-481, 48+22. See, also, 97-467, 107+548). Presumption is overcome by satisfactory proof that the engine was properly constructed and managed and in suitable repair (43-319, 45+611; 145 Fed. 577, 75 C. C. A. 591. See 40-60, 41+301; 63-233, 65+433). Whether presumption is overcome is ordinarily a question for the jury (29-12, 11+122; 32-526, 21+732; 35-170, 28+215; 97-467, 107+548). Presumption held not overcome (29-12, 11+122; 29-58, 11+146; 31-57, 16+488; 32-526, 21+732; 33-359, 23+536; 35-170, 28+215; 36-452, 32+176; 39-413, 40+270; 40-60, 41+301; 43-334, 45+608; 43-427, 45+719; 43-519, 45+1132; 45-17, 47+260; 45-481, 48+22; 46-269, 48+117; 58-104, 59+978; 62-207, 64+392; 62-243, 64+562; 63-233, 65+443; 117-434, 136+275. See prior to statute (21-60). Presumption held overcome (43-319, 45+611). No presumption that right of way was in unsafe condition (36-522, 32+751).

Not unconstitutional, as arbitrary class legislation (186 Fed. 139, 29 C. C. A. 612).

The total amount of the liability of the policyholder shall be plainly and legibly stated upon each policy. Whenever any reduction shall be made in the contingent liability of members, such reduction shall apply proportionally to all policies in force. Provided, that mutual fire insurance companies maintaining a full fifty (50) per cent reinsurance reserve and having a fully paid-in and unimpaired guaranty fund of not less than $100,000, may issue policies without a contingent liability; but the fact that there is no such contingent liability must be plainly and legibly stated in such policies. (R. L. § 1627, amended '07 c. 321) [3304] (87-393, 92+227; 90-9, 11, 95+579.)

3539. Requirements when note given—Except as provided in § 3538, whenever a note or other written evidence of indebtedness is given for any premium due, or to become due upon any insurance of property, except marine, the same shall be full payment therefor and operate to continue the same in full force during the term thereof, except that when any such note or written evidence of indebtedness is not paid at maturity, the policy for which the same was premium in whole or in part may be cancelled upon notice and in same manner as though said premium was paid in cash and the surrender of said note or other written evidence of indebtedness shall constitute a return or payment of the unearned portion of premium, and in such event the parties liable on such note or evidence of indebtedness shall be liable for and shall pay the premium earned prior to such cancellation, and no more. Provided further, that in case of any cancellation of a policy any note or notes or written evidence of indebtedness, given for whole or part of the premium thereon, may be by insurer returned to the insured in lieu of cash to the extent of the unpaid amount thereof plus accrued interest. No note given for premiums or deposit for assessment, or both, or for any part of either, shall be negotiable, and every assignment thereof shall be subject to all existing defenses. Nor shall any such notes be valid for any purpose unless the words "not negotiable" are plainly and legibly written or printed across the face thereof. (R. L. '05 § 1628, amended '07 c. 321) [3305]

at least equal to the capital stock required of a like stock insurance company, may issue policies of insurance without contingent liability. ('19 c. 393 § 1)

3541. To insure against loss or damage to automobiles, etc.—Any such company authorized to write workmen's compensation or liability insurance under chapter 122, Laws 1913, when its articles of incorporation so provide, shall also be permitted to insure against loss or damage to automobiles or other vehicles and their contents by collision, fire, burglary or theft, and other perils of operation, and against liability for damage to persons or property of others by collision with such vehicles, and to insure against any loss or hazard incident to the ownership, operation or use of motor or other vehicles as specified in subdivision 12 of section 1 of chapter 138, Laws 1915. ('19 c. 393 § 2) [3305]

3542. Provisions as to policies lapsing—Any mutual company insuring property may provide by its certificate or by-laws that upon failure by any member for sixty days after notification thereof to pay any premium or assessment made upon his policy such policy shall lapse and become void without notice or further act by or on behalf of the company. Such condition shall be plainly and legibly specified in each policy. Whereupon such company may recover the amount of earned premium or assessment, or both, but no more. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the reinstatement of such lapsed policy by voluntary acceptance of any delinquent assessment before suit. (1629) [3306]

Mutual fire insurance companies may waive by-law made pursuant to this section (112-418, 128+462). (164+910, 138-234, 164+908.)

3543. Assessments—When and how made—Whenever the net assets of any mutual insurance company are insufficient for the payment of incurred losses and expenses above its reinsurance reserve, as provided by law, it shall make an assessment for the amount required ratably upon its members liable thereto. The order for assessment shall be duly entered upon its records, with a statement of its condition at the date thereof, including all cash assets, deposit notes, and contingent amount liable to such assessment, the amount of the assessment, and the particular losses or other liabilities for which it is made. Such record shall be signed by each director voting for the order before any part of the assessment is collected, and any person liable thereto may inspect and take a copy thereof.

Provided, that the commissioner of insurance may by written order relieve such company from an assessment or other proceedings to restore such assets during the time fixed in such order, when such deficiency does not exceed ten (10) per cent of its admitted assets. (R. L. § 1630, amended '07 c. 321 § 1; '15 c. 354) [3307]

3544. Guaranty fund—Whenever, by reason of depreciation, loss, or otherwise, the net assets after providing for other debts are less than the required premiums reserve upon policies the deficiency shall be restored by assessment as above provided, notice of which shall be filed with the commissioner. Whenever the board of directors, or the commissioner, shall be of the opinion that the insolvency of any company is probable, such board, or upon their failure so to do, the commissioner, may order two assessments made, the first to determine what each policyholder should equitably pay or receive in case of withdrawal from the company and cancellation of his policy; the second, such further sum as each should pay to reinsure the unexpired term at the same rate as the first insurance. The directors shall forthwith cause written notice and demand of payment to be served personally or by mail upon each policyholder subject thereto. After adjustment of the first assessment, every policy upon which the second assessment shall not be paid shall be cancelled; but in no case shall there be credited upon a policy more than if cancelled by the board of directors under the by-laws. If within two months after the last assessment is payable, the amount of the policies whose holders have paid the same is less than five hundred thousand dollars, all other policies shall be void, and the company shall continue only for the purpose of adjusting the deficiency or excess of premiums and settling outstanding claims. No assessment shall be valid against a policyholder who has not been duly notified thereof in writing within one year after the expiration or cancellation of his policy. A mutual fire insurance company may be formed with, or an existing fire insurance company may establish a guaranty fund divided into certificates of ten dollars each, or multiples thereof, and such guaranty fund shall be invested in the same manner as is provided for the investment of capital stock of insurance companies. The certificate holders of such guaranty fund shall be entitled to an annual dividend of not more than ten (10) per cent on their respective certificates, if the net profits or unused premiums left after all losses, expenses or liabilities, then incurred, with reserves for reinsurance are provided for shall be sufficient to pay the same; and if the dividends in any one year are less than ten (10) per cent the difference may be made up in any subsequent year or years from the net profits.

The guaranty fund shall be applied to the payment of losses and expenses when necessary, and if the guaranty fund be impaired, the directors may make good the whole or any part of such impairment from future profits of the company, but no dividend shall be paid on guaranty fund certificates while the guaranty is impaired.

The holder of the guaranty fund certificates shall not be liable for any more than the amount of his certificate which has not been paid in and such amount shall be plainly and legally stated on the face of the certificate.

Each certificate holder of record shall be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy in any meeting of the members of the company for each ten dollars investment by him in guaranty fund certificates. The guaranty fund may be reduced or retired by vote of the policyholders of the company and the assent of the insurance commissioner, if the net assets of the company above its reinsurance reserve and all other claims and obligations, and the amount of its guaranty fund certificates and interest thereon for two years last preceding and including the date of its last annual statement, shall not be less than fifty (50) per cent of the premiums in force.

Due notice of such proposed action on the part of the company shall be mailed to each policyholder of the company not less than thirty days before the meeting when such action may be taken.

In mutual fire insurance companies with a guaranty fund, the certificate holders shall be entitled to choose and elect from among their own number or from among the policyholders at least one-half of the total number of directors.

If any mutual fire insurance company with a guaranty fund ceases to do business, it shall not divide among its certificate holders any part of its assets or guaranty fund, until all its debts and obligations have been paid or cancelled.

3545. Non-assessable policies may be written—Creation of guaranty fund—Kinds of business permitted— Any mutual insurance company which establishes and maintains over and above its liabilities and the reserves required by law of a like stock insurance company, a guaranty fund available for the payment of losses and expenses at least equal to the capital stock and surplus, if any, required of a like stock insurance company, may issue policies of insurance without contingent liability, and when the articles of incorporation of any mutual insurance company having such guaranty fund so provide, such company may transact any and all of the kinds of business as set forth in subdivisions 1 to 14 inclusive, of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, as amended by chapters 29 and 276, Laws of 1917, and by chapter 413, Laws of 1919, subject to the restrictions and limitations imposed by law on a like stock insurance company, and any domestic mutual company having a guaranty fund equal to the amount of capital stock and surplus required of a like stock insurance company, may insure the same kinds of property and conduct and carry on its business, subject only to the restrictions and limitations applicable to like domestic stock insurance companies; provided, however, that section 3308, General Statutes 1913 shall not apply to such guaranty fund, save and except that the guaranty fund of such company shall be invested in the same manner as is provided by law for the investment of its other funds. Every such company shall in its annual statement, show as separate items, the amount of the guaranty fund and the remaining divisible surplus, and the aggregate of such items shall be shown as surplus to policy holders.

A guaranty fund may be created in whole or in part in either or both of the following ways.

(a) Where an existing mutual company has a surplus, the members of the company may at any regular or special meeting, set aside from and out of its surplus such sum, as shall be fixed by resolution, to be transferred to and thereafter constitute in whole or in part the guaranty fund of the company.

(b) By the issuance of "guaranty fund certificates" as specified in section 4 of this act, the same to be issued upon the conditions and subject to the rights and obligations specified in said section 4.

Any such company establishing a guaranty fund as hereinbefore provided may, subject to the restrictions and limitations imposed by law as to a like stock insurance company, amend its articles so as to provide for the doing by it of one or more of the kinds of insurance business specified in subdivisions 1 to 14 inclusive, of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, as amended by chapters 29 and 276 of Laws of 1917, and chapter 413, Laws of 1919.

The policy liability of any such mutual company issuing policies without a contingent liability shall, as to such policies, be computed upon the same basis as is applicable to like policies issued by stock insurance companies; provided, however, that where any such company shall issue five year term policies, wherein the premiums shall be payable in annual or biannual installments, and no premium note is taken by the company as payment of the full term premium, such company then shall be required to maintain a reserve fund on only the portion of premiums actually collected from time to time under such term policies, and no such company so creating a guaranty fund shall issue policies without a contingent liability after the guaranty fund shall be impaired or reduced below the capital and surplus required of a like stock insurance company doing the same kind or kinds of insurance. Any company having a guaranty fund may insure, without a contingent liability, any kind or class of property which a like stock company may insure. ('21 c. 200 § 1, amended '23 c. 159 § 1)

3546. Kind of business permitted by companies not having a guaranty fund—When the articles of incorporation of any mutual insurance company, not having a guaranty fund of the amount required by section 1 of this act, so provide, it may transact any and all kinds of business as set forth in subdivisions 1 to 14 inclusive, of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, as amended by chapters 29 and 276, Laws of 1917, and chapter 413, Laws of 1919, subject to the conditions and restrictions as to the kinds of insurance which may be combined by a like stock insurance company, and subject to all restrictions contained in the laws of this state with reference to mutual insurance companies transacting the same kinds of business; provided that nothing in this section contained shall be construed as prohibiting a company issuing policies with a contingent liability from creating a guaranty fund as authorized by section 4 of this act. Any mutual company, however, organized, may amend its articles so as to provide for the doing of two or more of the kinds of business specified in said subdivisions 1 to 14 inclusive, of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, as amended by chapters 29 and 276, Laws of 1917, and chapter 413, Laws of 1919. ('21 c. 200 § 2, amended '23 c. 159 § 2)

3547. Prerequisites of mutual companies transacting business other than life, fire, accident, etc.—No mutual insurance company shall transact the kinds of business specified in subdivisions 3, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13 and 14 of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, as amended, except upon compliance with the following conditions.

(a) It shall have not less than three hundred separate risks subscribed for and entered upon its books and one year's premiums thereon paid in cash, and shall have admitted assets of not less than $10,000, which admitted assets shall be not less than five times the maximum net single risk, as hereinafter defined.

(b) It shall not expose itself to any loss on any one risk or hazard, except as hereinafter provided, in an amount exceeding 10 per cent of its net assets, actual and contingent; such contingent assets being the aggregate amount of the contingent liability of its members for the payment of losses and expenses not provided for by its cash funds. No portion of any such risk or hazard which shall have been reinsured, as authorized by the laws of this state, shall be included in determining the limitation of risk prescribed by this section. For the purpose of transacting employers' liability and workmen's compensation insurance, each employe shall be considered a separate risk for determining the maximum single risk.

(c) It shall maintain unearned premiums and other reserves, separately for each kind of business upon the same basis as that required of domestic stock insurance companies transacting the same kind of business.

(d) Except as herein expressly provided, it shall comply with all the provisions of the laws of this state relating to the organization and internal management of mutual fire insurance companies, insofar as the same may be applicable and not inconsistent herewith.

(e) All policies issued by such companies shall provide for a premium or premium deposit payable in cash, and except as herein provided, for a contingent liability of the members at least equal to the premium or premium deposit as adjusted by audit if any. If at any time the admitted assets are less than the reserves and other liabilities, the company shall immediately collect upon policies with a contingent liability a sufficient proportionate part thereof to restore such assets, and the commissioner may, when such deficiency does not exceed 10 per cent of its admitted assets, by written order direct that proceedings to restore such assets be deferred during the period of time fixed in such order. The contingent liabilities, if any, of the policy holder shall be plainly and legibly stated in every policy in terms of either dollars or premiums. ('21 c. 200 § 3)

3548. Directors or officers may advance money—Votes by person or proxy—Liquidation of assets in wind-up—Any director, officer, or member of any mutual insurance company, or any other person, may advance to such company, any sum or sums of money necessary for the purposes of its business, or to enable it to comply with any of the requirements of the law, including the creation in whole or in part of a guaranty fund to enable it to do one or more of the kinds of business specified in section 1 of this act, and also for the creation by a company issuing policies with a contingent liability of a guaranty fund, in such amount as the board of directors shall determine, for the protection of policy holders of such company, and such moneys, together with such interest thereon as may have been agreed upon not exceeding 10 per cent per annum shall be repaid only out of the surplus remaining after providing for all reserves, if any, and other liability and which shall not otherwise be a liability or claim against the company or any of its assets. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company, and the amount of such advance remaining unpaid shall be reported in each annual statement.

The company shall issue to each person so advancing money for the creation of a guaranty fund a certificate or certificates specifying the amount so advanced. Such certificates may be assigned by the holder thereof and a transfer thereof recorded upon the books of the company. The holders of such guaranty fund certificates shall be entitled to annual interest thereon at the rate agreed upon, if the net profits of the company, after all losses, expenses, liabilities and legal reserves, if any, have been paid or provided for, are sufficient to pay the same. If the net profits of the company in any year are insufficient to pay the full amount of interest agreed upon, the difference may be paid in any subsequent year or years from the net profits of such subsequent years.

Such guaranty fund shall be applied to the payment of losses and expenses when necessary and if the guaranty fund be impaired the directors may make good the whole or any part of such impairment from future net profits of the company, or by the issue and sale of additional guaranty fund certificates, but no interest shall be paid on the guaranty fund certificates while the guaranty fund is impaired. No certificate shall be issued except for money actually paid to the company, which amount shall be plainly and legibly stated therein. The company shall issue certificates only in sums of $10.00 or multiples thereof; it shall keep a record of the name and address of the person to whom issued and of all assignments thereof. Upon the surrender of a certificate, duly assigned in writing, the company shall cancel the same and issue a new certificate to the assignee.

Each certificate holder of record shall be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of the members of the company for each $10.00 investment by him in the guaranty fund certificates.

Such guaranty fund may be reduced or retired by vote of the board of directors of the company, if the net assets of the company, above its legal reserves, if any, and all other claims and obligations are sufficient therefor. The certificate holders shall be entitled to choose and elect from among their own members or from among the policy holders at least one-half of the total number of directors.

In case the members of any company, by resolution adopted at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for that purpose, shall determine to wind up and liquidate the business of any such company, the assets thereof shall be applied, first, to the payment of the expense of such liquidation; second, to the payment of any accrued liability, including losses, if any; third, to the payment of any unearned premiums on policies in force at the time of such liquidation; fourth, to the payment of guaranty fund certificates, if any, together with accrued interest thereon, if any; fifth, the residue shall be distributed to the policy holders who were such at the time of the adoption of such resolution, in the proportion which the face amount of the insurance carried by each policy holder bears to the total amount of insurance in force. ('21 c. 200 § 4, amended '23 c. 159 § 3)

3549. Dividends, determination of—The board of directors of any mutual insurance company may from time to time fix and determine the amounts to be paid during the year as dividends or a refund of savings and gains to policyholders, provided that no such dividend or refund shall discriminate between members of the same class and that no dividend or refund shall be declared or distributed except out of the net divisible surplus of the company, and no such company shall pay or credit a policyholder any sum in anticipation of a future dividend or refund. ('21 c. 200 § 5)

3550. Revocation of license—In case of the failure of any insurance company to comply with any of the provisions of this act, its right to transact insurance business in this state shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance to immediately declare its license revoked; and in case of such revocation such company shall not be again licensed to transact business in this state for a period of one year from the date of such revocation. ('21 c. 200 § 6)

He shall have power to order the discrimination or unjust rate removed and fix and order a rate in lieu of the bureau rate found to be discriminatory or unjust and the rate so ordered and fixed shall become the bureau rate.

No action shall be taken by said commissioner of insurance unless upon a written complaint under the oath on information and belief of the person or persons interested, showing in substantial detail the ground for complaint with such data as will reasonably enable the commissioner of insurance to determine whether there is probable cause therefor, and no such action shall be taken nor shall there be any hearing thereon until a copy of said complaint and data shall have been sent by registered mail or special delivery to the insurance company or bureau concerned and such insurance company or bureau shall have at least ten days' notice of any hearing thereon.

Any person aggrieved by any such order or decision made by the commissioner of insurance may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county where the aggrieved party may reside within thirty (30) days from the making and filing of such order or decision by filing in the office of said commissioner a notice of such appeal in writing, and in such case the said commissioner shall within ten (10) days after the filing of such notice make and return to said district court a full and complete certified transcript of the findings and order appealed from, and of all papers relating thereto on file in his office, including such notice of appeal, and upon the filing of such certified transcript such appeal and all matters involved therein shall be brought on for trial upon the merits at the next term of said court after the filing of such transcript, unless otherwise ordered by the court; and upon such trial the findings of fact on which such order is based shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated.

Non-residents owning property in any town where any such company is authorized to do business may become a member with all rights thereof except eligibility to office. The board of directors may, by a majority vote thereof, annul and cancel any policy by giving written notice of the cancellation to the member holding such policy.

In case of annulment of any policy the action of the board of directors shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the directors. ('09 c. 411 § 14) [3396]

3661. Against fire or lightning only—A township mutual fire insurance company shall insure only against loss or damage by fire or lightning and it shall not issue any policy for a term of more than five (5) years. ('09 c. 411 § 15) [3397]

3664. President and secretary may accept applications—The president and secretary of such company may accept all applications and sign and issue policies, agreeing in the name of the company to pay all losses and damages, not exceeding the sums named in the policies, sustained by reason of fire or lightning, for the term therein specified, and every application for insurance made to any authorized officer or agent, until refused by the proper officer, shall be of the same force and effect as a regularly issued policy and contract of insurance, and from the time of its receipt by an officer or agent, the property specified in such application shall be deemed insured in the same manner and to the same extent as if covered by a regular policy issued according to law and the regulations of the company; provided, that there shall be no liability on such application against any company that has not at any annual or special meeting, by proper resolution, adopted the plan of making such applications of equal force and effect with regularly issued policies.

The same shall be kept on file with the secretary. ('09 c. 411 § 18) [3400]

3665. Classification of property—Every such company may classify property insured under different rates, corresponding as nearly as possible to the greater or less risk from fire by reason of location or construction, and issue its policies in accordance with such differences. Whenever any loss shall be ascertained which exceeds in amount the cash funds of the company, the secretary, or in his absence, the president, shall convene the directors, who shall levy an assessment upon each policyholder for the proportionate amount which he should pay to cover such excess; or the company may borrow not to exceed two mills on each dollar of insurance written by it and then in force and from such fund pay such losses, and afterwards levy assessments to pay such loans.

If the fund for the payment of expenses is insufficient the amount of the deficiency may be added to any assessment.

Suits at law may be brought against any member of such company who shall refuse or neglect to pay any assessment made upon them by the provisions of this act, and the directors of any company so formed who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform the duties imposed upon them by law shall be liable in their individual capacity to the person sustaining such loss.

It shall be the duty of the secretary whenever such assessment shall have been completed, to immediately notify every person composing such company, by letter sent to his usual postoffice address, of the amount of such loss, and the sum due from him as his share thereof, and of the time when and to whom such payment is to be made, but such time shall not be less than sixty nor more than ninety days from the date of such notice, and every person designated to receive such money may demand and receive two per cent in addition to the amount due on such assessment as aforesaid, for his fees in receiving and paying over the same. ('09 c. 411 § 19) [3401]

3666. Losses—How adjusted—Every member sustaining loss or damage by fire or lightning shall immediately notify the secretary, who, if the claim exceeds three hundred dollars, may forthwith convene the directors.

The directors shall appoint a committee of three members of whom the secretary shall be one, to ascertain the amount of such loss, with authority to examine witnesses, to whom the secretary is hereby authorized to administer oaths.

Whenever the by-laws so provide, he may act in place of and with all the authority of such committee; and when the claim does not exceed three hundred dollars, the loss may be ascertained by the president and secretary, or either, with like authority.

In case of failure of the parties to agree as to the amount of loss it is mutually agreed that the amount of such loss shall be referred to three disinterested men, the company and the insured, each choosing one, the third to be selected by the two so chosen.

The award, in writing, by a majority of the referees shall be conclusive and final upon the parties as to the amount of loss or damage, and such reference, unless waived by the parties, shall be a condition precedent to any right of action, in law or equity, to recover for such loss; but no person shall be chosen to act as referee against the objection of either party who has acted in like capacity within four months.

The referees shall have full authority to examine witnesses and determine all matters of dispute and shall make their award in writing to the president or secretary of such company. The said referees shall each be allowed the sum of $2.00 per day for each day's service so rendered, and the sum of five (5c) cents per mile for every mile necessarily traveled in discharge of such duties which shall be paid by the claimant, together with the fees of any witnesses that may have been called by the company, unless the award of such referees shall exceed the sum offered in liquidation of such loss or damage, in which case said expenses shall be paid by the company. ('09 c. 411 § 20) [3402]

3667. Annual meeting—The annual meeting of every such company shall be held before July 1st in each year and the fiscal year of the company shall be from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of the following December, both dates inclusive.

The secretary shall prepare and read at the annual meeting a full report of the business of the company transacted during the previous fiscal year, and on or before February 1st, following the end of each fiscal year the president and secretary shall file with the commissioner of insurance a verified statement of the entire business and condition of the company, and which statement shall contain such data and information in reference to the business of the preceding fiscal year as shall be required by the commissioner of insurance.

The commissioner of insurance may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to the business of the company. ('09 c. 411 § 21) [3403]

3669. Existing companies may avail themselves of this act—Any township mutual fire insurance company heretofore organized may exercise after the passage of this act all of the rights conferred thereby that are within the powers and privileges of its certificate or articles of incorporation, or it may be reincorporated hereunder.

But no such company already organized shall be required to reincorporate hereunder in order to avail itself of the privileges of this act.

Every township mutual fire insurance company now doing business in this state shall have the right to continue transacting such business until the first day of March succeeding the passage of this act, and if the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that the company is transacting its business in accordance with this act he shall, on the first day of each succeeding March issue a license to each company authorizing it to transact business until the first day of March following the date of such license. ('09 c. 411 § 23) [3405]

3670. All companies to be governed by this act—Except as herein provided all township mutual fire insurance companies heretofore or hereafter organized in this state shall be governed by this act and shall be exempt from all provisions of the insurance laws of this state not only in governmental relations with the state, but for every other purpose, and no law hereafter passed shall apply to such company unless it shall be expressly designated in such law that it is applicable to township mutual fire insurance companies. To effect such consolidation it shall be necessary:

First. That the board of directors or managing body of each of said corporations pass a resolution to the effect that such consolidation is advisable and containing the proposed name of the corporation, as consolidated, its principal office, and the names of its first board of directors and officers.

Second. That a special meeting of the policyholders of each of said corporations shall be held, a notice of which meeting shall be mailed to each of the policyholders thereof at least thirty (30) days prior to the holding thereof, and which notice shall embody the resolution adopted by said board of directors, as provided for in subdivision one (1).

Third. That a majority of the policyholders of each of said corporations present or represented at said special meetings shall by resolution approve and ratify the action of said directors, as provided for in subdivision one (1) hereof.

Fourth. That said proceedings and resolutions be filed with the commissioner of insurance of this state and approved of by him.

Fifth. Complete copies of said proceedings, certified to by the president and secretary of said respective corporations, shall be filed with the town clerk in each of the towns in which said company proposes to transact business.

When full copies of said proceedings have been filed with the commissioner of insurance, which copies shall be certified by the president and secretary of said respective corporations and duly verified by said officers, and approved of by him, the consolidation of said corporations shall be deemed to be complete, and the company so continuing said business shall be deemed to have fully assumed all of the obligations, liabilities and risks, and to be the owners of all the assets of the companies so consolidating.

If such consolidation is made under any new name, the filing of said proceedings and the approval of same by the commissioner of insurance shall be sufficient to constitute said consolidated company a corporation, with all the powers, privileges, and subject to all the limitations of a township mutual fire insurance company under the laws of this state. ('09 c. 411 § 25) [3407]

3672. Examination by commissioner of insurance—The commissioner of insurance whenever requested by five or more members shall make an examination of the affairs of any township mutual insurance company doing business within this state, and any such company so examined shall pay the actual expenses of the person making such examination.

Whenever, after examination, the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that any such company has failed to comply with any provisions of this law, or is exceeding its powers, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith; or is transacting business fraudulently, or is in such condition as to render further proceedings hazardous to the public or its policyholders, he may present the facts relating thereto to the attorney general who shall, if he deems the circumstances warrant, commence an action in quo warranto in a court of competent jurisdiction and such court shall thereupon notify the officers of such company of a hearing, and, unless it shall then appear that some special and good reason exists why such company should not be closed, said company shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business, and some person shall be appointed receiver of such company and shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, moneys, and other assets of the company and shall forthwith, under the direction of the court, proceed to close the affairs of the company and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto. ('09 c. 411 § 26) [3408]

Any officer of any such company, or employe thereof, who shall neglect or refuse to comply with, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days in the discretion of the court. Provided, that where any such company confines its operations to one county, it may transact business in the whole thereof by so providing in its certificate of incorporation. Provided, further, companies may be organized on the mutual plan under this act for the purpose of insuring blooded or registered horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, or other livestock, and may do business in any ten adjoining counties of the state. 3675. Mutual re-insurance or guarantee associations—Not less than six township mutual fire insurance companies or farmers' mutual fire insurance companies now doing business in this state may organize a mutual association for the purpose of insuring its members against losses occurring within any one calendar year exceeding one quarter of one per cent of the total amount of insurance in force. Any township mutual fire insurance company or farmers' mutual fire insurance company now or hereafter organized is eligible for membership in such association. (Ex. Sess. 19 c. 55 § 1, amended '21 c. 399 § 1)

3676. Filing of articles or resolutions—The incorporation of such association shall be effected by filing with the commissioner of insurance and with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation duly executed and acknowledged by the companies forming such association, said companies having been first duly authorized by resolution duly adopted at a regular annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, which certificate shall state in substance such facts as are required to be stated in certificates of incorporation by the general corporation laws of this state, and shall have first been approved by the commissioner of insurance. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 2)

3677. Members may withdraw—Any member of such association may withdraw from membership upon giving ninety (90) days' notice of its intention so to do when such withdrawal has been authorized by a majority vote of its members present and voting at a regular meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose. Such withdrawal shall not in any way affect its liability to contribute for any losses or expenses which may have been incurred prior to the time of withdrawal. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 3, amended '21 c. 399 § 2)

3678. Corporate powers—In addition to the powers hereby conferred, every such association shall have the corporate powers which are granted to corporations under the general corporation laws of this state. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 4)

3679. Selection of directors—The directors of such association shall be chosen from the officers of its members and at its first meeting shall adopt by-laws which shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance and shall not be effective until approved by him. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 5)

preceding, and every such association may maintain as a fund for the payment of losses and expenses an amount not exceeding one-half of one mill on the total amount of insurance in force in its member companies. The individual members of the member companies shall be subject to assessment in case the funds of the member companies are insufficient to pay the assessment made by the association, to the same extent and in the same manner as though said assessment by the association was a loss by fire for which the member company was liable. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 7)

3682. Annual statement—Every such association shall file with the commissioner of insurance an annual statement and procure a certificate of authority as required by law of township mutual fire insurance companies. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 8)

Whenever, after such examination, the commissioner is satisfied that any such association has violated the law, has exceeded its powers, is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, is transacting business fraudulently, or is in such condition as to render further proceedings hazardous to the public or its members, he may, after hearing duly had, suspend the license of such association and present the facts relative thereto to the attorney general, who shall, if the circumstances warrant, commence an action to enjoin said association from carrying on any further business and for the appointment of a receiver, who shall, under the direction of the court, proceed to close the affairs of such association and distribute its funds to those entitled thereto. (Ex. Sess. '19 c. 55 § 10)

Subscribers shall be entitled to annual dividends of two per cent upon the amount of their subscriptions from the profits of the company, and shall also be reimbursed from future profits for all money they shall pay to the company for its uses under their agreement with interest thereon. (1680) [3426]

3687. Net profits—Accumulations—The net profits or dividend surplus of every such company shall be annually divided among the insured whose policies terminated during the year, in proportion to their contribution thereto. Such dividends shall be made only in scrip certificates payable out of the accumulated profits or surplus, and such accumulation shall be kept and invested as a separate fund in trust for the redemption of such certificates, and for losses and expenses, as herein provided. Until redeemed, such certificates shall be subject to future losses and expenses, and be reduced in case the redemption fund is drawn upon for payment of such losses and expenses, but no part of such fund shall be used for payment of losses or expenses, except when and to the extent that the cash assets are insufficient therefor; and whenever any portion thereof is so used the outstanding certificates shall be reduced proportionately, so that such fund shall at all times equal the unredeemed certificates. If a subscriber fails to pay his subscription or any assessment thereon, and it is shown that any director or officer knowingly certified falsely as to him, the person so certifying shall be liable for the amount thereof. If any such company is at any time liable for losses beyond the amount of its net assets, the president and directors shall be personally liable for all losses on insurance effected while the company remains in such condition. (1682) [3428]

If any officer having charge of the books and papers of such company shall fail to make such report promptly, or if the company carries on its business in a fraudulent, extravagant, or unsafe manner, so as not to afford its policyholders protection against loss or damage, or if it violates any provisions of this subdivision; or if its expenses other than the absolute payment of its losses shall in any one year exceed the limit prescribed in section 3694, as amended, being section 2 of this act, the commissioner shall revoke its license to do business in this state.
