260.01 DEPENDENT, NEGLECTED, AND DELINQUENT CHILD; ASSOCIATION. For the purpose of sections 260.01 to 260.34 the term "dependent child" means a child who is illegitimate; or whose parents, for good cause, desire to be relieved of his care and custody; or who is without a parent or lawful guardian able to adequately provide for his support, training, and education, and is unable to maintain himself by lawful employment, except such children as are herein defined as "neglected" or "delinquent." The term "neglected child" means a child who is abandoned by both parents, or, if one parent is dead, by the survivor, or by his guardian; or who is found living with vicious or disreputable persons, or whose home, by reason of improvidence, neglect, cruelty, or depravity on the part of the parents, guardian, or other person in whose care he may be, is an unfit place for such child; or whose parents or guardian neglect and refuse, when able to do so, to provide medical, surgical, or other remedial care necessary for his health or well-being; or, when such child is so defective in mind as to require the custodial care and training of the state school for the feeble-minded, neglect and refuse to make application for his admission to the institution; or who, being under the age of 12 years, is found begging, peddling, or selling any articles or singing or playing any musical instrument upon the street, or giving any public entertainment, or who accompanies or is used in aid of any person so doing. The term "delinquent child" means a child who violates any law of this state or any city or village ordinance; or who is habitually truant or incorrigible; or who knowingly associates with vicious or immoral persons; or who without just cause and without the consent of his parents, guardian, or other custodian absents himself from his home or place of abode, or who, knowingly visits any place which exists, or where his presence is permitted, in violation of law; or who habitually uses obscene, profane, or indecent language; or who is guilty of lewd or immoral conduct involving another person. The word "association" means any corporation which includes in its purpose the care or disposition of children coming within the meaning of sections 260.01 to 260.34.

260.02 JURISDICTION; DISTRICT COURT; PROBATE COURT. The district court in counties now or hereafter having a population of more than 100,000 shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all cases coming within the terms of sections 260.01 to 260.34. In all trials in the district court under these sections, except as hereinafter provided, any person interested therein may demand a jury, or a judge of his own motion may order a jury to try the case. In counties now or hereafter having a population of not more than 100,000 the probate court shall have jurisdiction over the appointment of guardians of dependent, neglected, or delinquent children for the purpose of these sections. The jurisdiction of both the district and probate courts over cases of dependency, neglect, and delinquency arising thereunder shall extend to all persons resident or found within the territorial limits of the court, although the evidentiary facts showing such dependency, neglect, or delinquency may have occurred outside such territorial limits.

Sections 260.01 to 260.34 shall apply to children under the age of 18 years, except as therein provided.

When jurisdiction shall have been obtained by the court in the case of any child such child shall continue for the purposes of these sections under the jurisdiction of the court until he becomes 21 years of age unless discharged prior thereto by the court.

[1917 c. 397 s. 2; 1927 c. 192 s. 2; 1931 c. 250 s. 1; 1933 c. 184; 1941 c. 110 s. 1; 1945 c. 517 s. 1] (8637)

260.03 JUDGES OF JUVENILE COURT. In counties having more than 45,000 inhabitants, except the fourth judicial district and the counties in the seventh judicial district, the judges of the district court shall, at such times as they shall determine, designate one of their number whose duty it shall be to hear all cases arising under sections 260.01 to 260.34, unless absent or disabled, in which case another judge shall be temporarily assigned for these purposes; and such designation shall be for the period of one year unless otherwise ordered. The judge of the juvenile court so designated shall devote his first service and all necessary time to the business of the juvenile court and this work shall have precedence over all his other court work. When deemed advisable the district judges may designate two judges for the purposes and subject to the provisions specified in this section. A special court room, to be designated as the juvenile court room, shall be provided for the hearing of such cases, and the findings of the court shall be entered in books to be kept for that purpose, and known as the "juvenile record," and the court may for convenience be called the juvenile court of the appropriate county. The title of proceedings in the juvenile court, excepting prosecutions under sections 260.27 and 260.28, shall be substantially as follows:

Juvenile Court, County of.....

In the matter of..... as a dependent (or neglected or delinquent, as the case may be) child.

[1917 c. 397 s. 3; 1927 c. 192 s. 3; 1931 c. 250 s. 2; 1941 c. 110 s. 2] (8638)

260.04 CLERK TO ASSIGN DEPUTY; SALARIES. The clerk of the district court shall assign a deputy, subject to the approval of the judge of the juvenile court, who shall have special charge of the duties to be performed by the clerk in connection with the juvenile court and whose duty it shall be to keep all books and records thereof, to issue summons and process, to attend to correspondence in connection with the court, and in general to perform such duties in the administration of the business of the court, whether or not herein specifically enumerated, as the judge may direct. Such deputy may be specially appointed for the purposes specified herein, in addition to other deputies provided for by law. In counties where more than one judge of the juvenile court has been designated a deputy clerk may be assigned for each. In counties having not less than 150,000 population the salary of the deputy clerk assigned pursuant to this section shall be $1,800 per annum. When not engaged in the duties pertaining to the juvenile court the deputy shall do such work in the clerk's office as the clerk may direct. When such deputy is absent the clerk or another deputy may perform the duties herein specified. The clerk may from time to time change the assignment of such deputy with the approval of the judge. When no assignment of a deputy has been made pursuant to this section the clerk of the district court shall perform the duties herein specified.

[1917 c. 397 s. 4] (8639)

260.05 SALARY OF BAILIFF IN JUVENILE COURT IN RAMSEY COUNTY. In all counties of this state having or which hereafter shall have a population of not less than 220,000, and not more than 330,000, a bailiff of the juvenile court may be appointed by the judge of the court. He shall serve four years unless removed by the judge for cause and shall be in attendance at all sessions of the court, make and serve all summons, writs, warrants, and processes issued out of the court and perform such other duties as may be directed by the judge. He shall have all the authority of a deputy sheriff and when his services are not required by the juvenile court, he may, with the consent of the court, be called upon by the sheriff to serve as such deputy. In case of his absence, the sheriff shall, upon request of the judge, assign a deputy to perform his duties. The bailiff shall receive a salary of $1,800 per annum, which sum shall include all expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties within the county.

260.06 PROBATE COURT AS JUVENILE COURT; RECORD; APPEAL. In counties of not more than 100,000 population the judge of probate shall provide himself with a suitable book at the expense of the county in which he shall enter minutes of all proceedings of the court in each case; he need not record any evidence taken except as it shall seem to him proper and necessary and he shall record therein all orders, decrees, and judgments made by this court except non-appealable orders. The reasons for appointing a guardian shall be entered therein and any parent or the attorney for any child may appeal from the final disposition of the guardianship matter by complying with the law regulating appeals from probate courts. When acting under the provisions of sections 260.01 to 260.34 the probate court may for convenience be called the juvenile court of the appropriate county.

A final order or commitment in any case of dependency, neglect or delinquency, shall be an appealable order which, on appeal, shall be treated and considered the same as an order appointing a general guardian, and shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury is waived by the appellant. On an appeal to the supreme court from a final order of commitment in district court such order shall be treated and considered the same as an order involving merits or a final order affecting a substantial right in a special proceeding.

The parent or attorney for any child so committed may appeal from such order of commitment by complying with the laws regulating appeals from probate and district courts.

Whenever it is necessary for a child to be present the district court may order that the child and an authorized attendant shall be present at a fixed time and place for the hearing on the appeal.

[1917 c. 397 s. 6; 1931 c. 250 s. 3; 1931 c. 82 s. 1; 1933 c. 204 s. 1; 1941 c. 110 s. 3; 1945 c. 517 s. 2] (8641)

260.07 WHO MAY FILE PETITION; REQUISITES. Any reputable person including any agent of the director of social welfare or the state industrial commission having knowledge of a child in this state who appears to be either dependent, neglected, or delinquent may file with the juvenile court in the county where the child is or in the county of its residence a verified petition setting forth the facts of the alleged dependency, neglect, or delinquency. The petition shall also set forth the name and residence of each parent, if known, and if both are dead or the residence unknown, then the name and residence of the legal guardian, or if there be none, or if his residence is unknown then the name and residence of some near relative, if there be one and his residence is known. It shall be sufficient if the petition is on information and belief.

[Ex. 1937 c. 79 s. 1] (8642-1)

260.08 SETTING PETITION FOR HEARING; SUMMONS; SERVICE; GUARDIAN AD LITEM; WARRANT; HEARING; CUSTODY OF CHILD. Upon the presentation of the petition if it appears that a child may be dependent, neglected, or delinquent and that it is for the best interests of the child that the matter be heard in said county, the petition shall be filed and a date set for hearing thereon. A summons may be issued by the judge or clerk of the court requiring the person having custody or control of the child, or with whom the child may be, to appear with the child at a place and time stated in the summons, which time shall be not less than 24 hours after service. Such place may be in the county-seat of the county, or in any other city or village in the county, at the discretion of the court. It shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if service is made at any time before the day fixed in the summons for the return thereof; but in such case the court if so requested shall not proceed with the hearing earlier than the second day after the service. The summons shall be served as provided by law for the service of summons in civil actions, and may be served by a probation officer. The parents of the child, if living, and their residence is known, or its legal guardian, if one there be, or if there be neither parent nor guardian, or if his residence is not known, then some relative, if there be one and his residence is known, shall be notified of the proceedings, and in any case the judge may appoint some suitable person to act in behalf of the child. Except in counties containing a city of the first class if the petition presented is made by a person other than a representative of the division of social welfare or county welfare board, notice as provided by the court shall be given to the county welfare board. Where the person to be notified, other than a member of the county welfare board or its staff, resides within the county, service of notice shall be the same as service of the summons, but in any other case service of notice shall be made in such manner as the court may direct. If the person summoned as herein provided shall fail without reasonable cause to appear and abide the order of the court or bring the child, he may be proceeded against as in case of contempt of court. In case the summons cannot be served or the party served fails to obey the same, and in any case when it shall be made to appear to the court that such summons will be ineffectual, or that the welfare of the child requires that he shall be brought forthwith into the custody of the court, a warrant may be issued by the court, either against the parent or guardian or the person having custody of the child or with whom the child may be, or against the child himself. On the date set for the hearing and on the return of the summons if any has been issued or other process, or on the appearance of the child with or without summons or other process in person before the court, and on the return of the service of notice, if there be any person to be notified, or a personal appearance or written consent to the proceedings of the person or persons, if any to be notified, or as soon thereafter as may be, the court shall proceed to hear the case, and may proceed in a summary manner.

In all such proceedings in counties having less than 150,000 population the county attorney shall appear for the petitioner. The child shall have the right to appear and be represented by counsel and, if unable to provide counsel, the court may appoint counsel for him. The counsel shall receive from the general revenue fund of the county reasonable compensation for services upon the order of the court.

In all such proceedings the county welfare board shall upon the request of the judge of the juvenile court or the county attorney, cause an investigation to be made relative to the child and the child's family. In all such proceedings, such child may be released into the custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian.

[Ex. 1937 c. 79 s. 2; 1941 c. 158 s. 1; 1945 c. 517 s. 3] (8643-1)

260.09 PROBATION OFFICERS; DUTIES; COMPENSATION. The court shall have authority to appoint one or more persons of good character to serve as probation officers during the pleasure of the court. Such probation officers shall act under the orders of the court in reference to any child committed to their care, and in the performance of their duties shall have the general powers of a peace officer; and it shall be their duty to make such investigations with regard to any child as may be required by the court before, during or after the trial or hearing, and to furnish to the court such information and assistance as may be required; to take charge of any child before, during or after trial or hearing when so directed by the court, and to keep such records and to make such reports to the court as the court may order. Probation officers heretofore or hereafter appointed under the provisions of sections 636.01 to 636.06 shall be subject to the orders of the court in reference to all matters covered by the provisions of sections 260.01 to 260.34. In counties of more than 100,000 population, a majority of the judges of the district court may direct the payment of such salary to probation officers as may be approved by the county board. In other counties probation officers shall receive the same fees as constables for similar services, including all travel, and in addition thereto such salary as may be fixed by the judge and approved by the county board.

In all counties where regular probation officers are not provided by the county board, the county welfare board may on request of the judge of juvenile court provide a probation officer and provide funds and fix the salary therefor to direct and supervise any child placed on probation by the court. Two or more counties through their county boards may combine to provide a common probation officer for the several counties.

[1917 c. 397 s. 9; 1933 c. 204 s. 1; 1945 c. 517 s. 4] (8644)

260.10 EXPERT ASSISTANCE. In any county of more than 150,000 population the court may establish a department of the juvenile probation system of such county for the physical and mental diagnosis of cases of children who are believed to be physically or mentally diseased or defective, and may appoint as special probation officers a competent nurse and a duly qualified physician, whose salaries shall be fixed by the judge with the approval of the county board. In any county under 150,000 population when the juvenile court has obtained jurisdiction of a dependent, neglected, or delinquent child the court may require that a physical or mental examination, or both, be made of such child by a duly qualified physician or mental examiner.

[1917 c. 397 s. 10; 1941 c. 158 s. 7] (8645)

260.11 COMMITMENT TO DIRECTOR OR STATE PUBLIC SCHOOL; HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL CARE; CONSENT OF PARENTS; CONTINUANCE; FINAL COMMITMENT, NOTICE. When any child shall be found to be dependent or neglected within the meaning of sections 260.01 to 260.34 the court may make an order committing the child to the care of the director of social welfare or of the state public school or some other suitable state institution, or to the care of some reputable citizens of good moral character, or to the care of some association willing to receive it, embracing in its objects the purpose of caring for or obtaining homes for dependent or neglected children, which association shall have been accredited as provided by law. In appropriate cases the child may be left with the parents subject to such remedial supervision as the court may direct. The court may continue the hearing from time to time without making an order of final commitment, as above provided for, and may make an order placing the child in the temporary care or custody of the county welfare board or an association accredited as provided by law. The court may, when the health or condition of the child shall require it, authorize the county welfare board to provide special medical or remedial care or treatment for the child, including care in a public or private hospital, if necessary, at the expense of the county. In no case shall a dependent child be taken from its parents without their consent unless, after diligent effort has been made to avoid such separation, the same shall be found needful in order to prevent serious detriment to the welfare of such child. Before making an order of final commitment to the director of social welfare or the state public school for dependent children at Owatonna, provided for by this section, the court shall consider such evidence, report, or recommendation as the county welfare board may make concerning the case. Upon making an order of commitment to the director of social welfare, the judge or clerk shall mail or deliver a copy thereof to the director of social welfare, and the child shall be delivered by order of the court to the county welfare board, as the representative of the director of social welfare, to be cared for as directed by the director of social welfare. If the child is committed to the guardianship of an association, accredited by law to receive children for care and place them in private homes, the child shall be transported at the expense of the county by order of the court to the place designated by such association for the care of the child. The parent or attorney for any such child committed, may petition the juvenile court which made the commitment for the discharge of the child.

[Ex. 1937 c. 79 s. 3; 1941 c. 158 s. 2; 1945 c. 517 s. 5] (8646-1)

260.12 GUARDIANSHIP; ADOPTION. In any case where the court shall award a dependent or neglected child to the care of the director of social welfare, or of any association or individual in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.01 to 260.34, the child shall, unless otherwise ordered, become a ward, and be subject to the guardianship of the director of social welfare or of the association or individual to whose care he is committed; but such guardianship shall not include the guardianship of any estate of the child, except as provided in section 260.17. The director of social welfare, association, or individual shall have authority to place such child in a family home and may be made a party to any proceedings for the legal adoption of the child, and may, by his or its attorney or representative, appear in any court where such proceedings are pending and consent to such adoption.

[1917 c. 397 s. 12; 1941 c. 158 s. 3] (8647)

260.13 HEARING; CONTINUANCE; COMMITMENT BY COURT; PAROLE; DISCHARGE. In the case of a delinquent child the court may continue the hearing from time to time and may place the child in the care or custody of a probation officer, and may allow the child to remain in his own home, subject to the visitation of the probation officer, such child to report to the probation officer as often as may be required, and subject to be returned to the court for further or other proceedings whenever such action may appear to be necessary; or the court may cause the child to be placed in a suitable family home, subject to the friendly supervision of a probation officer and the further order of the court; or it may authorize the child to be boarded out in some suitable family home, in case provision is made by voluntary contribution or otherwise for the payment of the board of such child, until suitable provision may be made for the child in a home without such payment. A child found delinquent may be committed by the court to the state training school for boys or the Minnesota home school for girls, or to any institution established by law or incorporated under the laws of this state that may care for delinquent children, or to any place provided by the town or county suitable to the care of such children. In appropriate cases the court may commit the child to the care and custody of some association that will receive it, embracing in its objects the care of neglected or dependent children. In no case shall a child be held under any such commitment beyond the age of 21 years. A child committed to such an institution or association shall be subject to the control of the board of managers thereof.

Upon the court's own motion or upon the petition of the director of institutions or upon the petition of a parent or the attorney for a child, the court after a hearing of which the director of institutions has been given ten days' notice shall have the power to parole or discharge said child.

Every child committed to the state training school for boys or the Minnesota home school for girls shall be subject to the guardianship of the director of social welfare and to all the laws and regulations relating to discipline in and parole and discharge from the schools.

260.14 COUNTY HOME SCHOOLS. In counties of over 33,000 population the county board shall have authority to purchase, lease, erect, equip, and maintain a county home school for boys and girls, or a separate home school for boys and a separate home school for girls, and the same may, with the approval of the district court judges, be a separate institution, or it may be established and operated in connection with any other organized charitable or educational institution; but the plans, location, equipment, and operation of the county home school shall in all cases have the approval of the judges of the district court. There shall be a superintendent or matron, or both, appointed for such home, who shall be probation officers of the juvenile court, and shall be appointed and removed by the district judges. The salaries of the superintendent, matron, and other employees shall be fixed by the judges of the district court, subject to the approval of the county board. The juvenile court may place in the home school, for a period of not more than six months under any order, any child coming before the court, and any child who is placed in such home school may be released therefrom by order of the court at any time. A delinquent child may be committed during the pleasure of the court to any county home school, or any orphans' home conducted by a charitable institution, where the inmates are taught the branches of study usually pursued in the public schools and where agriculture, horticulture, gardening, or domestic science is studied or carried on by the inmates thereof; but in no case shall such child be detained beyond his majority. The county board of each county to which this section applies is hereby authorized, empowered, and required to provide the necessary funds to make all needful appropriations to carry out the provisions of this section. The board of education, commissioner of education, or other persons having charge of the public schools in any city of the first or second class in a county where a county home school is maintained pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have authority to furnish all necessary instructors, school books, and school supplies for the boys and girls placed in any such home school.

260.15 EXISTING HOME SCHOOLS CONTINUED. All juvenile detention homes, farms, and industrial schools heretofore established under the provisions of Laws 1905, Chapter 285, section 5, as amended by Laws 1907, Chapter 172, and

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1945

[1917 c. 397 s. 15] (8650)

260.16 GUARDIANS FOR DELINQUENTS IN PROBATE COURT. When any child is found delinquent in a probate court the court may appoint the director of social welfare to be the guardian of such child, or any institution or association incorporated under the laws of this state that may care for delinquent children and become their guardian, or any suitable city, county, or state institution. The provisions of section 260.13 relative to the control, parole, and discharge of delinquent children committed by district courts shall apply to delinquent children placed under guardianship by probate courts. In all cases girls committed to the state home school for girls shall be accompanied to the school by a woman.

260.17 PROPERTY OF CHILD USED FOR CHILD'S EDUCATION. If any child placed under guardianship by a juvenile court pursuant to the provisions of sections 260.01 to 260.34 has any property, the income thereof shall, unless more than is necessary, be applied to the education of such child; and upon cause shown to the court having jurisdiction of the estate of such child the principal or any part thereof may be used for the same purpose.

[1917 c. 397 s. 17; 1941 c. 158 s. 8] (8652)

260.18 INFORMATION WITH COMMITMENT. When a juvenile court shall commit a child to a state institution or to the guardianship of the director of social welfare there shall be delivered with the order of commitment a copy of the findings and order of the court relative to such child and a brief statement of such particulars of the case as the director of social welfare may require.

[1917 c. 397 s. 18] (8653)

260.19 EVIDENCE IN DELINQUENCY CASES PROTECTED. Any disposition of a child dealt with for delinquency under sections 260.01 to 260.34, or any evidence given in such cause, shall not in any civil, criminal, or other cause or proceeding in any court be lawful or proper evidence against such child for any purpose; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to relate to subsequent proceedings in a juvenile court.

[1917 c. 397 s. 19] (8654)

260.20 RELIGIOUS BELIEF OF PARENTS. The court in committing any child, or appointing a guardian for him under the provisions of sections 260.01 to 260.34, shall place him so far as it deems practicable in the care and custody of some individual holding the same religious belief as the parents of the child, or with some association which is controlled by persons of like religious faith with the parents.

[1917 c. 397 s. 20] (8655)

260.21 CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS. The adjudication of a juvenile court that a child is delinquent shall in no case be deemed a conviction of crime; but the court may in its discretion cause any alleged delinquent child of the age of 12 years or over to be proceeded against in accordance with the laws that may be in force governing the commission of and punishment for crimes and misdemeanors, or for the violation of municipal ordinances, by an order directing the county attorney to institute such prosecution as may be appropriate.

260.22 TRANSFER OF CASES. Subdivision 1. Transfer from municipal or justice court. When any minor is arraigned upon a criminal charge before a judge of the municipal court or justice of the peace otherwise than upon an order transferring the case from a juvenile court the judge or justice shall inquire concerning the age of such minor and, if it satisfactorily appears that he is under the age of 18 years, the case shall forthwith be transferred to the juvenile court of the county. Such transfer shall be effected by filing with the judge or clerk of the juvenile court a certificate showing the name, age, and residence of the child, the names and addresses of his parents or guardian, if known, the specific charge upon which he has been arraigned, and the name and residence of the complainant.

DEPENDENT, NEGLECTED, DELINQUENT CHILDREN 260.27

The certificate shall have the effect of a petition filed in the juvenile court; but the judge of the court may in his discretion direct the filing of a new petition, which shall supersede such certificate. The judge of the municipal court or the justice shall have power to commit such child to appropriate custody, when deemed advisable, for a period of not more than one week and to fix reasonable bail, upon furnishing which the child shall be returned to the custody of his parents or guardian to respond to such proceedings as shall be had in the juvenile court.

Subdivision 2. Transfer to another county. The judge in charge of the juvenile court in any county may transfer any case to another county when it appears that the child resides in such other county and the convenience of witnesses or the interest of such child will be best served by such transfer. When it appears that a dependent or neglected child is sound of mind, free from disease, and suitable for placement in a foster home for care or adoption, the director may so place him or delegate such duties to a child-placing agency accredited as provided by law, or authorize his care in the county by and under the supervision of the county welfare board.

[1941 c. 159 s. 2]

260.36 MAY MAKE SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN CERTAIN CASES. When the director of social welfare shall find that a child committed to his guardianship as a dependent or neglected child is handicapped physically or whose mentality has not been satisfactorily determined or who is affected by habits, ailments, or handicaps that produce erratic and unstable conduct, and is not suitable or desirable for placement in a home for permanent care or adoption, the director of social welfare shall make special provision for his care and treatment designed to fit him, if possible, for such placement or to become self-supporting. The facilities of the division of social welfare and all state institutions, the Minnesota general hospital, and the child guidance clinic of its psychopathic department, as well as the facilities available through reputable clinics, private child-caring agencies, and foster boarding homes, accredited as provided by law, may be used as the particular needs of the child may demand. When it appears that the child is suitable for permanent placement or adoption, the director of social welfare shall cause him to be placed as provided in section 260.35. If the director of social welfare is satisfied that the child is feeble-minded he may bring him before the probate court of the county where he is found or the county of his legal settlement for examination and commitment as provided by law.

[1941 c. 159 s. 3]

A child, of the age of 14 years, not adopted but placed in a satisfactory foster home, may with the foster parents' consent, join with the director of social welfare in a petition to the court having jurisdiction of such child, praying that such foster parents be appointed guardian of such child and for the discharge of the director of social welfare as such guardian.

[1941 c. 159 s. 4]

260.38 NECESSARY COSTS TO BE PAID BY COUNTY. In addition to the usual care and services given by public and private agencies, the necessary cost incurred by the director of social welfare in providing care for such child, except such children as may have been committed to the state public school, shall be paid by the county committing such child which, subject to uniform regulations established by the director of social welfare, may receive a reimbursement not exceeding one-half of such costs from funds made available for this purpose by the legislature.
