1. Contracts and written instruments in general.

1. Contracts and written instruments in general. 2. — Mutual Assent. Offer made by director of national bank to settle liability arising from his acts as director, held to have been accepted by the receiver of the bank so as to constitute a binding contract. Karn v. Andresen, (DC-Minn), 51F(2d)521, afrd 60F(2d)427. It is not the subjective thing known as meeting of the minds, but an objective thing, manifestation of mutual assent, which makes a contract. Benedict v. P., 183M 396, 237NW2. See Dun. Dig. 1742(57). In the absence of conflicting legal requirement, mutual assent may be expressed by conduct rather than words. Benedict v. P., 183M396, 237NW2. See Dun. Dig. 1742. Agreement of second mortgagee to pay interest on first mortgage if foreclosure was withheld, held not in-valid for want of mutuality. Dun. Dig. 1742.

Distinguishment between an express contract and one implied as of fact involves no difference in legal effect, but lies merely in mode of manifesting assent. McArdle v. W., 193M433, 258NW818. See Dun. Dig. 1724.
In formation of a contract words alone are not only medium of expression, and there can be no distinction in effect of a promise, whether it be expressed in writing, orally, in acts, or partly in one of these ways and partly in others, but it is objective thing, manifestation of mutual assent which is essential to making of a contract.
